

Worker's Comp and White Sharia

“The evaluation of a man must be based on the manner in which he fulfills the task entrusted to him by the community. For the activity which an individual performs is not the purpose of his existence, but merely a means towards it. It is more important that he develop and ennoble himself as a man; but this he can only do within the framework of his cultural community, which must always rest upon the foundation of a state. He must make his contribution to the preservation of this foundation. The form of this contribution is determined by Nature; his duty is simply to return to the racial community with honest effort what it has given him. He who does this deserves the highest esteem and the highest respect.” II:2 – Hitler

Internet Blood Sports was people arguing with no guide lines, no rules with no grand plan – it was just two groups arguing with each other in front of a live audience. This is arguing that I faced (((systematic))) oppression, male sex discrimination, toxic masculinity and my awakening to the JQ all in the video game Mine Craft with legal and due process, in Mine Craft. – it's me giving back with honest effort what the admins tried to give me in Mine Craft with legal and due process.

The meta that sprang after getting results of getting $10k out of the system / 40 massages 30 adjustments, stressing out my coworkers, and filing a civil rights case is weaved in this text.

“We all sense that in the distant future mankind may be faced with problems which only the highest race – become a master people and supported by the means and possibilities of an entire globe – will be equipped to overcome” II:1 – Hitler

A few opening quotes

“The great figure and archetype of our age is Adolf Hitler. At a time of greatest danger to our race, this immortal being was sent to remind us of the eternal laws of life.

The words which this man spoke are words of life for our race. Without them, there is no hope. Without them, our kind has no future on this planet. Without them, our race is doomed to extinction”

-Matt Koehl

“But again, it is to choose, which type is superior and, thereby, more desirable: an historic breed which changes faces and reappears according to the changing of the eras, or that kind of person who would be only what he is – part of the scenery – in any era? An historic breed or an ever-present type? Those who make history or those who make the background?

Our TYPE – the True Believer – Will one day rule again. The rest, under whatever society, will go on being serfs. Take your pick.”

(Vol. XI, #12 -Dec 1982) – James Mason

“The Aryan is greatest not in his mental qualities as such, but in the extent of his willingness to put all his abilities in the service of the community. In him the instinct for self-preservation has reached its noblest form, since he willingly subordinates his own ego to life of the greater whole and, if the hour demands, even sacrifices it.”

-1:11 Hitler

“If, by the instrument of government power, a people is being led toward its destruction, then rebellion is not only the right of every member of such people – it is his duty.”

-1:3 Hitler

“How many are out to SINK the boat, not merely rock it?”

Or just call it a religious text. Actually this is a religious text that is springing up in the video game Mine Craft.

While arguing with my mom last week I use the term brown people and she tells me around one of my great great great great grandparents is American Indian. Isn't the proper term red skins -- I'll soon know. Now I sort through family history files that date back to the 1400's, get a tribe ID number, and see what new options I have.

Or just call this a book in the library of some Mine Craft server where the players read and write it with legal and due process in Mine Craft.

>muh freedom of speech

The ends justify the memes.

Capitalism is all about swindling someone else. If there is systematic oppression then why hasn't anyone proved it by writing a manual after overcoming it? I got $10k out of workman comp, new neck back spine shoulder and hips, or 40 massages and 30 adjustments. I got lifting restrictions and seen my coworkers get hurt by the work load getting stressed out due to a greedy big noose boss who consistently said "money fixes everything".

There's a lot of talk of White Supremacist. Often people when asked to define supremacist and they will use pro-nouns. These people are unwittingly Christ-insanity frame/world view: Jesus, g-d, muh divine plan/news feed. Ask them to define supremacy and they just blink. About six months before the 2016 election I was searching for a job, my step dad told me my blank emotionless face wasn't going to get a job, and I found The_Donald / T_D sub reddit and consumed a lot of memes. While growing up a lot of terms and words were never used – speech has devolved – and I didn't have the terms or words to express what I sensed, I didn't accept the narrative from the (((powers))) that be and I checked out. Later I found memes, an evolution of speech, and I consumed a lot of them. While working at a very busy feed store in Hawaii the memes saved my back while navigating the workman comp system, then filing with the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission – however I was missing terms.

I successfully navigated workman comp for neck, back, hip, shoulder and spine. I successfully navigated and filed the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission. Back then I had enough of a vocabulary to be aware of systematic oppression – and that is my awakening to Jewish supremacy.

Before the separation war, commonly known as the American Civil War, two Southern States, Georgia and Alabama, passed Employer Liability Acts then other states passed similar acts between 1855 and 1907. The Edda tell tales of the seeds of destruction. Georgia and Alabama planted these seeds before the separation war.

Workman comp has become pushers of opium. Opium a pain medication that induces a false feeling of trust, love or security – something every employer wants their employees on. How many people do you hear talk about back pain, shoulder pain, hip pain, leg pain, spine pain or neck pain? Why have none of them told their boss? All of these types of pains are related. How many people do you see hobbling? Do you know someone who has gone through neck, back and spine injury? Can you spot people with messed up hips just from watching people walk, stand or sit?

If your hips are off set then the rest of your spine goes.

The (((system))) has seemingly left workman comp mostly untouched and focused on brain washing. White guilt has spread to non-Whites, hence non-whites are scared of tell their boss they have back pain and need medical attention. If it's not some drug dealer selling heroine to your 10 year old girl luring her into their house for the price of a pack of cigarettes, (((they))) throw opium at people through a system legally and with due process most the time, expect people to be replaced like anonymous clogs in a machine or if someone tires to sue their employer... legal is anything they do.

This text beginnings with how to navigate workman comp to get 40 massages and 30 adjustments to your back, then some ways to make extra money as business goes 100% POZ, then hastening the work of the cults, fanning the flames, Christ-insanity hate, how I went from looking 35 to 22 in six months, some mental tricks to fight off brainwashing and then finally an appendix with pics or it didn't happen. Systematic oppression, pics or it didn't happen, so I supply pictures. Pictures of how I filed a civil rights commission case based solely on male sex discrimination. Campaign fliers for a shock campaign and just some other useful stuff. – all while burning a racial identity in with humor.

Could a single straight White male with less than $1,000 dollars in the bank sue a top 500 company for male sex discrimination? If there's no systematic oppression and everything I type in this is crazy and unrelated to how the world works, then this shouldn't cause any advert affects. Just like how Israel denies Palestine even exist or Ryan Dawson (neo-Jew) denies any successful socialist country exist despite Norway being socialist and 90% White and with a planned economy, or that Europeans took up the Jewish made up non-Western religion of Christ-insanity peaceful, (((they))) will deny I achieved the results I type in this text now.

((((Their)))) best, and seemingly only, defense against workers clamming workman comp is brainwashing. Have you ever heard of an employee, especially young, going to their boss and expressing they have back pain and need care or a different position and them getting it? I've been told by employers to take some Ibuprofen, have a drink if the day was hard or smoke a little pot. Managers have told me if you're sober then you wake up and that's as good as the day gets.

“These people want you broke, dead – your kids raped and brainwashed. And they think it's funny”

-Sam Hyde

This quote really hits home for workman comp.

The good part of workman comp being mostly untouched is that there's seemingly zero direct supervision from the system, unless you claim permanent life long injury.

I got $10k out of workman comp or 40 massages and 30 adjustments in about 14 weeks while working at a farm and feed supply store that was three times busier than the average location the USA. Me having lifting restrictions really hurt the team. Seemingly managers don't hire new people until either the whole team falls off due to being stressed out / back pain or a large enough chunk of a group falls off.

Seemingly a company is fined if they take the person off the clock for the injury.

Workman comp....

1. What happens if the person has a brand new totally unrelated injury one month later and goes through the whole process again?
2. What happens if the person starts talking about the JQ and Niggers on the job while going through workman comp?
3. What positions will open up while one is going through workman comp, can/did they apply to them? Did they get them and if not can they file with the civil rights commission?

What's the point of having a job if you're going to break your back? Some will call for a total drop out from normal wageslave employment. I intend to add to that: you can only go through workman comp so many times until you are un-hireable and if you talk/post about the JQ or say nuke Africa you are also un-hireable

Imagine a home improvement store that has a position of about seven men that hand load 20' metal sheets, 90lbs bags of whatever, fencing roles by hand, etc and those seven men all go through workman comp and get lifting restrictions at the same time. Will the female dominated cashiers load ten 90lbs bags of concrete? Will the managers load this? Will the old cucks and liberal fags load this? Seven weeks of straight stressing out the location and finally the answer to who is more oppressed among the shit-lib pity competition. Will the managers hire another seven men to only have them all go through workman comp and get lifting restrictions too? – It's all a question of balls.

There's a lot of (((shit-libs))) and (((cuck-seratives))) who get their life purpose from doing/helping with another co-workers work load. These two people obviously avoid helping with loading, and if they do they probably don't do it more than once every six months. The lot workers will have lifting restrictions, after a few female cashiers fuck up their back beyond all repair, then other proxy departments will try to shift the burden on slower departments. The department managers / leads will bend to the general manager calling out random people to go load ten 90lbs bags of concrete. Seven weeks of sheer comedy straight from clown world – if all the lot associates coordinate their workman comp accordingly.

Can mixed race teams of men coordinate this without an yearly income of millions? Sport teams play as a team all the time and fans can talk endlessly about plays that should or could have been. The difference is with sports when the team wins the supporters, fans, networks, etc get nothing. Whereas if White people win the whole world seemingly gets to escape this (((capitalist))) system...

“These people want you broke, dead – your kids raped and brainwashed. And they think it's funny”

-Sam Hyde

I'm not one for drinking but when taking out a newbie lamb coworker, who's being lead to the slaughter by (((them))), and having a few beers with the intent to indoctrination them... I could drink.

In less than ten pages of this text I will shit all over obummers legacy – In Mine Craft with legal and due process - of obummer care. Imagine if you can only go through workman comp five times until you're unhireable.... 40 massages and 30 adjustments or $10k of benefits x five. 200 massages a year!

Hilter said anything that can help hasten the destruction of the (((system))) should be done.

White Sharia will change according with the times.

I'll take a DNA test when the Indian in a glass TP does. I fight for White Sharia because I fight for the future.

This is about LARPING (live action role playing) against a (((system))) that depends on your good will and expects you to be scared shit-less in your living room for even thinking of confronting anyone with words.

You can find audio of me talking about Workman comp at the channel below. The audio and video has not bee edited since each video would take six hours to render. If you or someone you know is concerned about having a screw driver grinding into your spine for the rest of your life – here's extra content https://www.bitchute.com/channel/feste_revolution/

I will upload interviews with local news outlets and review the frame. My mom having a broken back from a job, a lot of people having broken backs, some much talk about back pain, a very busy feed store under a big noose boss, workmans comp, filing with the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission, to running for office – My awakening – a book that no crowd funding website will let me be on. I'll figure out a different title and post my Momero address here. Part of the funds will go to hiring a ghost writer since I failed English about ten times.

This text is dedicated to Charles Manson.

For with Manson I can walk up to any half way decent looking Light female and ask if they've read any good books lately. Then tell them I'm looking for a good one on Manson. I instantly have them interested in something greater. I hear stories of the alt-right is mostly single White men. Have these men ever hear women talk? Women are centered around hatred – get them talking about other women.

That feed store I worked? It was like a non-stop gossip paid holiday while watching the male co-workers work and clash. White Sharia is centered around hatred. I haven't came up with a better way to distribute propaganda to females of Light - Hawaii 2018.

The last section of the text ends with an even better way to distribute propaganda and instill values into people without them being conscious about it.

The way Manson lived inspired me because he invited a way to live.

“Everything we admire on this Earth today – science and art, technology and invention – is solely the creative product of a few peoples, and perhaps originally, of one race. On Them depends the existence of this entire culture. If they perish, the beauty of this Earth will sink into the grave with them.”

1:11 – Hitler

Instead of looking, seeking, or always studying... Invent a way.

This text aims to be a tool box of utility for navigating workman comp, filing with the civil rights, how to go from looking 35 to 22 in six months, how to spread propaganda/memes, how to live in peoples heads rent free, frame, rap lyrics and how to fan the flames – all in Mine Craft with Legal and due process (Note: while any legal team reviews this document after every word and picture put “in Mine Craft with legal and due process”)

I flunked English class as many times as I've been through psychosis. Once I started to learn about the JQ all psychosis seems to have been sensing the JQ and not having the terms, history or words to describe what I sensed. Use the word nigger freely, read White Power, SIEGE... Yeah psychosis is your genes trying to wake you up: Woke. Israel means he who wrestles with god. Despite me being the sole person working on this text, I feel one call pull utility out of this text and get real results, for I have gotten these results. The rap lyrics weaved in is key since it helps White people burn a racial identity into themselves that's not based on guilt, whining, or blind love while being cursed IE the non-stop waves of anti-White messages over the radio, news feed, etc.

Every year about 20,000 white women are raped by niggers in the US and jews cover this up.
Rape culture, toxic masculinity...

Tesla died in 1943. This was a man of Light. People of Light invent IE he was saying he would find a way to invent free energy and deliver it through the air: Dreamer. What else was he working on when he died? In a capitalist society why would you talk about your plans, ever? The person of Light thinking is first you get the ideal then invent the means. In 2018 diversified NASA is saying going to Mars is impossible.

Stonehenge was built with the pythagorean theorem almost 6000 years ago, yet the Pythagorean theorem got rediscovered 570 BC. How did our ancestors keep track of time before christ-insanity? Why did christ-lies move all their major events to match Nordic holiydays? Our ancient Ayran ancestors didn't live in animal pelts, they lived in stuff found at sears today. All ancient civilizations died out due to blood poisoning.

I'm starting to think global warming is something the planet did long ago in the sense that Africa was it's normal, as today, shit hole nightmare and, as today, a breeding ground for disease: back then Malaria or something close. The Indo-European homeland shifted from a cold client to a warm client and malaria spread. Whites suffering from the mere presence of niggers is nothing new. Niggers are seemingly repeating history in the sense that the nigger is not doing nuffin but spreading and dying of cutting edge blood diseases while collecting welfare: The nigger first genetically modified it's nigger genes by sitting in the sun for hundred of thousands of years, then by mosquitoes and now by AIDS/HIV.

I hate mexicans too. I heard stories of “the only good Indian is a dead Indian” – it's almost like I was unwittingly believing the opposite of what I was taught in the public school system. I later heard of stories of when the American Indians trained horses they rode thousands of miles into mexico mowing down everything in sight.

As long as you're talking to a nigger, you're getting dumber. Boomers have so many proxy terms for niggers it's almost like they have a mouth full of kibble. Boomers get offed when you use to term nigger but never mad about how the nigger acts.

White Sharia is a term that offends people. B-ble gave people rules and examples to kive by, I offer ways to LARP, live action role play, against the system for it's destruction in a peaceful way.

Who would of known a White man without White guilt can rationally explain the concept of God by spinning the facts, terms and events I already knew in a way that makes all other lights look black like the endless abyss (((they))) are. As should you – READ SIEGE.

If I could do it again I would of gone through workman comp as many times as I could, but some (((cuck-serative))) got me to run for public office. Then I talked about the JQ and niggers, see appendix one, for campaign fliers.

If you hate school and you go around talking about the JQ and niggers... will the school let you out of it's brainwashing facilities? What would the school system do if half the White kids all got sent to the officer for hate speech?

As long as you're explaining something, you're probably loosing. If there was a question, reason, logic or story that could be explained that could save the Light races then let the jew and nigger ask it. Mexicans are a great example – almost everyone I've met can barely read and write English... All opinions are not equal.

Has workman comp been over looked for almost two hundred years? Seemingly the workman comp system is set up to feed the NPC pain meds. The pain meds induce a false feeling of security, MSM becomes their best friend, the NPC back is ruined and then not only 99% of time a life long (((democrat))) is born but some walking reminder that goes about in the big city acting as a reinforce of why public programs are needed. I care not to link everything to the JQ. There's many books. If facts would of won, it would of done so long ago. I won't stop those that do a good job spitting facts and linking stuff together. Just enjoy the diversity of how different minds work.

Despite my mother breaking her back at some retirement home dead end job to put food on the table decades ago, because you know White people work to buy food while Niggers sit on welfare, despite hearing stories on FPH (Fat person hate) threads about the medical field and back pain, despite knowing so many people with back pain, despite my oneitis telling me she had scurrilous, despite more and more non-whites showing up in every faucet of my life, despite hearing countless stories of workers who fell off due to back pain, despite almost all my coworkers having backpain, I thought workman comp cared for me. I thought my manager cared about me. I thought my nation cared about me.

Jews aren't Western.

“The Aryan is greatest not in his mental qualities as such, but in the extent of his willingness to put all his abilities in the service of the community. In him the instinct for self-preservation has reached its noblest form, since he willingly subordinates his own ego to the life of the greater whole, and if the hour demands, even sacrifices it.” 1:11 -Hitler

Workman comp does not care for the workers. Managers do not care about their workers. They aren't vested in your personal care or success. It's cheaper to throw pain meds at a NPC, induce trust, then replace the NPC after they snap. Seemingly countless NPCs are left to deal with their own back pain, be it weed, drink, or poor brown people in shitty TV, whatever.

If (((liberalism))) isn't a mental illness then why are all the fish off all major liberal cities supposedly uneatable due to anti-depressants, heroin and meth? Imagine not being able to vote without an ID but six months without anti-depressants, run a mile in under 8 minutes, and dead lift three times your weight; it would be a strong society.

I did a lot of researching and found nothing on the internet related to workman comp. The only place I didn't check was the deep web.

What a red flag.

Despite Mine Craft being a video game for so long now – not a single player added a book – with legal and due process – about some players lore/ experience with workman comp inside that video game.

Thank God I recently just saw the meme war of 2016 and got a healthy dose of distrust in the (((system))). It saved my back, my quality of life. Now onto greater and more noble things.

I later learn that reporting to a manager and saying “I was lifting ____ and now I have a pain going from my hip, back, neck, shoulders and spine. The pain is a 9. I need to file workman comp.” will do all the same as a full page report.

That line is all you need to know. Literally stick to it. Stop talking your self into a grave. These companies record every phone call, you should too. If I had recorded my civil right commission phone calls... Is it legal in your state to carry a voice recorder? Can you record phone calls? Why can some businesses record phone calls in states that it's not allowed for people to record phone calls? Aren't businesses just people? You can't drive a car legally without an ID but you can vote? Doesn't voting mean taking the nation someplace? Perhaps people are too busy fighting off what they sense about their back pain and aren't concerned with the future but rather dopping up / forgetting the pain.

Perhaps the brain makes up emotions when it can sense something but doesn't have the words, terms, events, JQ or racial history to describe the sense. The brain wants to warn you about the sense so it creates emotions hence the non-stop talk about love – a chemical reaction in the brain.

Why do they encourage you to fill out pages to see if you have back pain and not just get an x-ray or better yet see a professional? Computers can detect the smallest detail yet can't tell when some ones back or his are messed up? Oh right g-d chosen people and nigger welfare. report see appendix 2.

We could have been in the stars by now expect we're being forced into an abyss by niggers and jews. Sucks to be the shit skinned people left to have their ears ring for eternity if the Light is put out.

I was asked about the conditions and about the item and the event. Weird questions. Like are some conditions unsafe? Are some items more dangerous than others? Why is being thrown in a prison cell with Whites not as bad as niggers? Niggers in shit hole Africa will tie Whites to chairs and start to cover their body in clay, next to a fire, as the clay hardens they keep covering more and more of the body until they get to the head where they put little straws inside the nose so the White person can breath while being slow cooked alive in clay. Jail is a very scary place for a shit-lib, cuck-serative and christ-lie men of Light. I recently talked to men of Light that were once in prison. They are still haunted by the colored 56% faces. To them I tell them take a page out of De Sade and fantasize about the artistic rap song of your choice. Can someone claim workman comp for moving a 90lbs object and not a 5lbs object? What about five pounds? I personally have seen a lot. One NPC was on the side of the road and had another NPC back it's car into the other NPC's back. The NPC went flying five feet while the other one drove off. The NPC calls the other NPC an ass hole and tells me that it's going to buy a six pack on the way home. This liberal NPC is a cuck-serative then spouts some christ-lie stuff about karma. Later I hear out rages from a dozen NPCs that a NPC group leader got workman comp for back after lifting a box of tissues. The box weighs less than five pounds and that NPC group leader and we NPCs who move 90lbs objects don't?

Why do reporters say Isreal should be allowed to practically shoot kids trying to cross their boarder and then turn around the next month and say open borders for the White nations? Jews cry out that isreal only being 75% ethnic jewish is genocide to the jewish people and that force, paid for and enforced by the government, needs to be taken. Whereas White nations are taking a NAP, non-aggression policy.

It's a question of frame. The story being spread was it is workman comp for back not hip, back, neck, spine and shoulders.

A lot of this is frame. A Dr will not touch your back unless they are trained too IE chiropractor. Workman comp is a series of shit test. The first filter is being able to write, it must be for niggers. This is obvious racist to ask employees to write a statement since niggers and spits can barely read and write English, so I guess that makes every merchant racist. Do niggers care? No. I wonder what the data has on niggers filing workman comp, are they unable to write anything that makes sense or do they write a story as long as the bible and screw themselves straight in the back?

Keep it simple stupid. K.I.S.S

isreal pays it's citizens to hunt down niggers and commit acts of violence against them. Ever see the isreal sniper shirt one bullet, two kills with a Palestine women in the cross hair?

Next the NPC is baited on the phone interview with the nurse on the end of 1-800-the-bitch-isn't-vested-in-your-personal-well-being. Why are females flooding medical field? Obviously so the NPC flirts, has trust, or falls into an empathy trap. The sex pill is hard to swallow. If you're strong and aggressive you can pretty much cum on all your swipe right matches. Six months of lifting or being a nice guy like the TV shows tell you to be like? TV shows, movies, books all give examples of how to live your life and people to mimic just like the b-ble. Unless the female is serving the Light races as her master, it's going to be ugly.

There's talk that China will rule the world. At least it's not the jews. I bet they would make me admin over world back health. Or maybe Putin would give me the privilege of looking after and taking care of the policy of back health. I would rule with an iron first and take away NPC's rights to break their back. I've watched shit skins rupture a disk on the job, then pinch a nerve the next day, then cry out to me it couldn't stand due to back pain – I took a years worth of verbal abuse forty hours a week to watch this happen in Hawaii. What would one of the roles of White Sharia be? I would train men to go about society and spot people with bad backs and take them to a crap to train them how to maintain a healthy back for a life time – but never in multi-racial society and never in a society not grasping at the world and never a society not following the words of Hitler. A lot of time when I read the news or see a headline, I think the opposite is true after factoring in niggers and jews. I use proxy terms or subjects and get a lot of positive feed back from sheep I talk too.

I do want money to get professional audio gear to make music to rap on. Tracks include songs of White men who find the path of redemption after being in prison with shit skins --- red pill tactical nuking thots, aspiring porn stars, and race mixing Whites --- how to LARP yourself through workman comp – and all other kinds of values instilled in me that I flipped the tables in inside my head.

So the NPC should relay the same quoted line above to the bitch on the phone. The real reason the (((system))) want's women in the medical field? It's a shit test. If you're not sexist, you're going to trust the bitch and find out what it means to screw yourself over. Keep it simple stupid. The bitch might talk about non sense for ten minutes or seem to care for ten minutes or wants to hear you some bull shit... Why does she talk non sense for ten minutes? Some one else is probably pulling your psychoanalyzed profile from israel and trying to find one question to prevent the company that they work for from having to pay for your medical care.

“These people want you broke, dead – your kids raped and brainwashed. And they think it's funny”

-Sam Hyde

K.I.S.S

Then some other bitch is going to come on the phone and try to small chat it up. She's going to tell you where the preferred or recommended location is. Don't argue with her. She's going to tell you all your info and billing info will be at said place ready when you get there. It's a preferred location, not required.

If a NPC has a physical aspect of their job, they better do their homework with who's who in Chiropractors in less than an hour drive. NPCs are told to have a plan encase of a fire, encase of a flood. The government should just ban people from breaking their back like they did making rape illegal because that worked out so well. If a niggers break in pray that it doesn't clean the lube off your wives NPC ass before it rapes and murders your wife you cuck NPC. Non-player-computer might replace normies as non-player-cucks or cuck-non-player-computers.

Have fun internet, I owe you much.

Some chiropractors take workman comp, some don't. Some have NPCS waiting for hours in the office, some don't. Some have NPCS who love to talk to others, some don't. Some have huge lines, some don't. Some have the post wall version of the bitch on the phone working for the Dr vested in your care, and some have some intern they wish they could screw. Drs aren't in every day of the week yet alone weekends. Weekends, holidays and not a full schedule, something very unfamiliar to most.

As soon as the NPC files workman comp, the hunt is on to find a reason to fire the NPC. Are you going to get mad at double standards? Do you even know about the JQ? Your shit-lib co-workers can do and say whatever they want whereas the manager is looking for a reason to fire you, man who filed workman comp. Shit-libs want these massive welfare programs to benefit races who want them dead yet flip the fuck out and when a co-worker of theirs gets workman comp. How did I get workman comp and not them? Probably because Rockwell instilled some Nazi values in me, strength forever masters weakness or crushes it. These shit-libs are getting crushed simply by working a job – watch how people walk who push carts. Me? I went through the system thinking it was systematic oppression and am now writing this – to crush it in return – to give back honest effort what the community has given me.

I claimed workman comp within about thirty minutes of my work day in black rocks cavern. One NPC later chuckles “long as the NPC can clock in, it happened on the clock.” Statements like this beg the question can one claim workman comp for detail stuff – if it happened on the clock. Some NPC once says that his shitty job over holiday season had the NPCs do some insane training program before they could clock in: Seemingly if the NPC couldn't complete the training video the NPC could not clock in. A lot of NPCs just left mid way through. I guess that's one way to keep productivity high and insurance claims down. The warehouse job I was at the top 5% of the workers took 12 scoop of Jack3d per holiday shift: Slave One Imports. NPCs that stayed but didn't progress got the boot for not taking this serious enough or some other reason. Drinking booze fucks up muscle growth like Ibuprofen.

You know you have back pain, everyone at that location knows you have back pain, all the workers have heard stories of previous workers, all the customers have either heard stories or seen all kinds of back pain from the workers at this location – and the manager is still trying trip you up. Do you wait to identify an enemy until the bullet has left the chamber?

To all you purity spiraling fucks calling me not White or telling me to pick American Indian or White – Why don't you also tell all the real Whites a code to live by that will secure the existence and well being of their children. Better to be a wolf of Odin than a lamb of g-d.

1700 pages in the b-ble and not one joke. Why? If you laugh at someone who's actively working to break their back, after you telling them in detail why that way is wrong, you come off evil. Any person with some wits will probably crack a joke at these useful idiots. Fired for rude behavior! You should just let people drink five energy drinks a day while taking 20 Ibuprofen while doping up on any and everything and balancing out the high with alcohol at night. Why? Because that fucking idiot gets off on out performing the health person by just a little bit for a small part of the day. Plus it's good for profits and fuels the economy and black economy. Or at least lets niggers sell more drugs. If we don't let niggers into our communities who will sell the drugs to ease our pain from such unfair and ever demanding work conditions for welfare programs? 13% of the population uses about 50% of the welfare. Niggers can OD on whatever twenty times and never pay a dime but if your kid needs an epipen due to an allergic reaction in some race mixing facility commonly known as a school, then any and all your retirement savings or whatever gets eaten up. Nigger filled school makes no sense hence why schools are turned into rape, disease, drug and racial mixing facilities.

If you can't do your job without back pain it's not a career. The whole point of that career or rather position existing in the first place is to force people into mind alternating drugs. Escape, escape and join in with the sheep watching TV!

The preferred location had about six colored land whales behind the check in. There was a few plate lunches, some cell phones, a fan, a radio and some tits showing. Obviously this is a trap for the local Hawaiian men. RIP. It was a long wait, then a drug test, then an bitch dyke x-ray check came and took x-rays. This tie dye witch was hobbling. How much faith can you have in a medical location for neck back and spin when the stupid bitch you're following has obviously a fucked up back. The only white person was a DR. I told him what I was feeling and he told me I wasn't feeling what I said I was. Write my some strong pain meds for a week and told me to take two a day and take the week off. The red flag was that I had to sign something saying I wouldn't return to said location for future care.... Such wow how people accept this as medical care. These locations would do better to inject pain meds to NPC five minutes after checking in to get that feeling of trust going. After all... their pain is a nine and must be so awful so it's humane to fix that ASAP. Was the saying take two a day and kill yourself because of pain meds or a reference to niggers and jews?

So many won't finish this or even study it. I hope one day that NPCucks have their group leader assign secondary duties to their class due to the usually primary NPC having lifting restrictions and wreck their back. This (((system))) completely avoids teaching people how to lift correctly. Despite the mass amounts of things for NPCucks to dope up on, the cracks are beginning to show. Perhaps it's to move a 80lbs object here and there.

I then went to the nearest POZ-q-diversity-center and was treated with a more professional looking crew that was straight out of some medical TV show. It begs the question who is the most oppressed the hamplanet dyke or the clean cut nigger? I refuse to have short hair because that niggers and jews and other shit skins can have the same hair cut as me. A shaved White head thought is good. Neither the dyke or nigger can get the female they want without rape, abuse and brainwashing. 80 years of blue pills and still thots aren't fucking niggers. I don't think I saw a single straight white male. Talk about 100% POZ in a hospital. So this trick was to give me some extra super strength pain pill or tylenol, I forget. How deep rooted in your distrust? And after a while, obviously so the pill would take affect, the short blue hair dyke DR saw me. Told me to take these muscle relaxers and to try doing some stretches. I had like 10% body fat or less. I was shredded. I've done so many late night TV workout programs and have a decade of sports behind me and this bitch tells me to do some stretches. Surely this is a blanket mass strategy works on most. Honestly israel should pay me for telling them to psychoanalyze and profile hospital patients because this blanket strategy doesn't work for them. I wonder if (((they))) psychoanalyzed niggers? Don't they know even thinking about yet alone talking to a nigger makes one stupider? To think 3,000 years of the JQ tactics useless and 100% POZ due to them treating niggers as something even close to human. I think either both locations had the drugs on site or within a five minute walk... They want you doped up ASAP. At least when you have a full mental break down on the street and ask to pray to g-d then get hauled off to a psycho ward they inject you with some strange liquid. Obviously the next phase is that any worker who claims to have back pain is mentally ill and must be injected with pain meds or katamine.

The next day I'm to start work around 9:30. My jewish boss is trying to cut back hours. To think I might not of got the care I needed if not for my jewish boss wasn't so greedy. Employees are scared shit-less of showing up to work late yet alone asking anything from their boss. Every time a manager diverts coast they probably get a bigger bonus at the end of each year. Is your manager their to keep the store running or are they there to divert insurance claims against that location? If workman comp fines a company $30k for an employer taking an employee off the clock to recover.... and the back care I got was $10k.... and tons of workers have messed up hips... and these Drs work isn't reviewed... These Drs are vested in you getting the most care possible... and you now see it's force that forever masters weakness... It's a LARPING battle. It's important to relay the same god damn fucking message "I was lifting ___ and now I have a pain in my back, neck, spine and shoulder that is a 9." I show up to said Chiropractor location and have a lapse of memory due to stress and forget the previous x-rays. The x-ray place hands me the bill. I hand it to the front lady, she says I hate when they bill you and not us but don't you worry. I told her I had no paper work and she told me she had to number to call to get my info so they could bill. The first location didn't have my paper work after three hours. It took this location almost ten weeks to get the info. It took them over a year to get paid.

My managers wanted to see me personally injured, my leads wanted to see me personally injured, my coworkers wanted to see me personally injured, the insurance workman comp phone calls were all bait, wow. Who could I trust? Seemingly whoever (((they))) hated was my best ally. I came across Internet Bloodsports and then found SIEGE then the man who did the free audio book for it and his website and now – it's better to be a Wolf of Odin than a lamb of g-d.

The first location is a shit test. It has a drug test and some strong pain meds. A Dr wont touch any part of your body that isn't part of the workman comp file. Despite what the NPC thinks back \neq hip, neck, back, spine and shoulders. It's almost like these words and terms have been censored.

It's funny to think that now the workers now how to LARP through the system. Eventually the system will change, or collapse. What will the system do? Upgrade it's tech to have computers review hips and spines for workers so that they get the care they need? The system can't afford that. Over night like 60% of the workforce would have lifting restrictions. Sure, most would have a new healthy back in less than 14 weeks and the workforce would have new life breathed into them, but what would happen to those who depend on welfare?

Any NPC that reads this may get more value out of taking on $30k worth of student loans / debt / payment in less than three months than that bull shit system. I learned what LARPING was while going through workman comp. I learned from the best in the (((system))). Why do you think there's a couple companies that handle the whole nations insurance claims and stuff? Don't you just love centralized things?

After 20 massages and 15 chiropractors my pain goes down to a 5/6. The Dr writes me a script for another 20/15. and I get a clean bill of health and it ends at a three. Around the end the insurance company called up and said what the DR thinks about if I might need more care. If I was to need more care or it be permanent i'd have to see a state DR. Must suck being white and trying to get life long disability with all this POZ and diversity training.

Later in this text I speak about a (((christ-insanity))) who had back surgery once and was told she'd never be able to work again... Then has been working and has had back surgery five more times. That tumblr meme about a patchwork disable trans poz whatever? They are real in Hawaii. Same thing with the 56% face meme. I've seen that 56% face meme in real life shopping riding fat people scooter in Hilo.

Does the (((system))) not do a complete brain wash? Men are scared shit-less to tell their boss they have back pain. They don't even know where to start. In a (((capitalist))) society you are meant to be replaced like an anonymous clog in a machine. It's all about swindling each other. I see so many NPCuck-seratives wrecking their backs just pushing carts while smoking cigs between their breaks. I see IG pictures of heirs of Tobacco companies with 100 paid whores on birth control on cocaine on leashes and being hit with riding crops being stretched out beyond repair for like six figures a year from 18 to 25. Then there's local thots who pretty much do the same expect for shitter dirty low quality drugs on the weekends getting POZed up from niggers.

I hated cuck-seratives, shit-lib, chrit-insanity back then and that healthy distrust saved my back. Thanks meme war 2016. Now I'm off T_D and on /pol/.

The school system usually does a complete job brain washing people in the sense that you're sposta get excited about this fact or that fact or this new discovered fact – it's a lot like getting excited about this news story or that news story. A complete lack of character development. My shit-lib sister had to shop at hot topic because that's the only clothing that fit her and I was introduced into some characters but mostly she told me about 4chan, like 22 years ago: Character.

So the J-left NPC group leader is going to do everything it can to throw you off. How long will you see these people as your people? Can a manager or lead (insurance, work comp, etc) really vested in your well being in a capitalist society or even a multi-racial society? It might just happen to know what one button to push that'll steer you into a ditch. This is a pressure project. Whereas I'm seemingly the only person that wasn't beat down from a job in Hawaii. Maybe I am White, after all what did the Chinese do after inventing the compass? The Chinese didn't leave China with the compass. I share this knowledge – and I hope every one commits cultural appropriation to these tactics. I used workman comp to pressure me, to get razor sharp. Did that hook noose jew boss want to not only see me personally injured but to mess up and commit fraud and have to foot the bill after getting fired from that shitty video game.

True I later filed a civil rights case. It was more pressure. So many deadlines plus so much first hand LARPing lessons. Unlike in school where you might get a blow on your grades. One wrong lift and my back was done. Being knocked off balance and being influenced by a jew would lead to a messed up back for life and $10k worth of debt. One wrong line and my civil rights case would fall apart. Then there's tons of a deadlines that if you missed one it all fell apart. When I went through all this they seemingly had blanket statements that didn't even phase me, unlike the masses. There's lots of pit falls. I originally called the nationals lawyer guild but hung up after hearing the greeting message, gut feeling. I'm a lot sharper than I was. Am I a diamond? Men pressure each other to diamonds. I was pressured against the system. Since I didn't have any men to pressure my self against, I invited one. That any normie NPC can do and so many need.

Every picture in this PDF is “pics or it didn't happen” – nothing else. How can I prove all this without posting pictures? PBS, a state funded news outlet/tv channel or whatever, posts peoples names and locations. PBS doxes people. Some will say if a nigger or jew can get a person of Light to work for them then half the work is done. If talking to niggers or jews always make one more stupid then its like some math equation of approaching the limit of zero or some shit while people of Light are evolving getting more racial ID than ever and approaching infinity. While one gets infinity closer to zero the other gets infinity big.

What will NPCs do when half of the crew are going through workman comp and have lifting restrictions? Back to back for two years. Will the system find a new reason to hire people? Better be on your best behavior. What will the world record be for the person who's had the most workman comp injuries that consisted of 40 massages 30 adjustments? What company will get the world record for not hiring more people? If you can only go through workman comp so m any times until you're un hireable... how long can someone stay at a job while claiming workman comp one month after each time it ends? What a hobby.

The Dr / chiropractor work isn't reviewed unless the NPC opts for a life long injury. The NPC just happens to have a new totally unrelated injury a month after getting a clean bill of health. Maybe it's the job and not the person? Maybe it's capitalism? Maybe it's cuck-seratives? Maybe it's civic nationalism? All this is jew shit. Make it into a contest who can claim to most massages from a job via workman comp because this is clown world. Some of us know the reality but for normies clown world can due for now as a gate way. Point out stuff with shit-libs and using the term clown world makes them laugh. Even though these shit-libs are laughing at other shit-libs and mocking and saying they have no clue they are also unwittingly laughing at themselves.

It's all a question of balls. Will said unwitting christ-lie have the balls to become human or are they only sheep being lead to the slaughter? Will said human stand their ground at said job and repeat claiming workman comp until the end of the system? Does anyone have enough guts to pave the way for the next wave? Dudes sacrifice themselves all the time for nothing, for vice, for niggers, for jews.

Grown men are break down in divorce court with the mere thought of losing money. Then they get scared shitless sacrificing themselves for an Order that has infinity possibilities other than just plastic toys and shitty genes. If almost everything we admire was invented exclusively by the Aryan, can you really use the same term for his genes and nigger genes?

The real reason why no religion has ever explained why one shouldn't do this or that is because then it would have to rational explain g-d. READ SIEGE FAGGOT.

Maybe the NPC has a side construction or whatever side gig and they use the system for free massages. Maybe you do deadlifts and just happen to get your hips out of align. The point being no workman comp Dr seems to have their work checked, only if it's life long. So clean bill of health and one month later it's more free massages. Share your stories with White Sharia, this text collection can only improve. The NPC is going to get shamed just try not to chuckle anything stupid.

Imagine how I feel seeing the box stores on my map having men get the care they need and the work load being passed to cashiers and cashiers fucking up their back daily. The company isn't able to provide support besides replace the women like clock work. Unlike the NPCs who will drop like flies who don't have this text you do. Will the media cover it? I give you the paladin bubble skill. Just stand immune. Enjoy the new soap opera with a soul crushing story plot 40 hours a week.

Finally the answer to the question of who is more oppressed. Lets see who the managers assign to load ten 90lbs bags of concrete while all the lot associates have lifting restrictions.

Side questing.

It's always good to ask lots of question to fellow NPCs while on the clock about how the company works. After all you're looking to get more skilled because you're ambitious and want to be a group leader some day.

Like I learned that a NPC can only return stuff so many times without a recite at some locations. There's seemingly a dollar limit before they need a group leader approval.

Some group leaders only make thirty cents of every dollar their group sells since so much of it walks out of the store.

There's usually fliers and other sheets taped to the counter. Obviously a pocket pen camera or some device could capture.

Search engine the place. What are the busy times? Holiday sale? Why are some departments always have an off count on a product that should be in? Maybe some scouts it out big holiday sale after big holiday sale and no one gets arrested. Maybe it's some states that care more than others. Maybe it's some cities that care. Maybe the security has been so POZed up that the only thing the company can do is arrest it's employees for stealing. How useful is white security that hates racism. It focuses on Whites who don't steal. Perhaps there will be gangs of Light directing groups of other races who want to earn their ticket into eternity. Rank and file.

Hanging around a home improvement store in the kitchen and bath area and talking to women customers. Maybe she needs a handy man. When I was clean cut with normal jeans and a polo I would get NPCS asking me to do their project and they would pay. Later I hear NPCS installing $1750 worth of bathroom stuff for $5k, renting the truck and doing it in a weekend with their dad.

Another NPC tells that some NPC hired a NPC duo to do a total remodel. The NPC did the outside of the house and a fifth of the inside and that's when the other NPC paid the NPC duo in full. Seemingly the NPC duo built trust over a week and the NPC paid $100k cash to finish the inside of the job. This happens all the time in Hawaii. Shit-lib whites or cuck-serative whites or christ-lies whites want to trust only other White people to do the work on their house... Two weeks $100k in cash in hand. Not bad.

Word of mouth or control the communication?

There's so much propaganda. Most peoples brains can't registered fiction vs non-fiction. What difference does it make? It all impacts the brain.

Some you can influence and some you just need to play by the rules. Search meth nigger or crack whore nigger and you get tons of White females and disgusting tab lines. Us White people know about race see this as propaganda against Whites. Image search Pahoa and I'll tell you every house in the photo was cleaned up via photo shop and all the people you see in those pictures had a similar store. Pahoa or down town Hilo are good places to see why White Sharia needs to be a thing. Pahoa side walks out side corner stores and tattoo stores have whores, junkies, race mixers, ham planets, and all kinds of disgusting shit laying on the streets. No business can open up in Pahoa unless they sell stuff less than $2.

Seemingly there's a lot of NPCs in Hawaii that want to flip beach lot houses and not do the work themselves. Hawaii is kind of fuck off when it comes to code long as you pay the state. Just watch out for the neighborhood you move into because someones going to steal your gate. How ironic White NPCS moving to Hawaii to get away from spits and niggers, refusing to change how they think or vote or act, stay a proud unwittingly individual, and Hawaiians steal their gates before stealing everything inside their house during the night or while the NPC is at work and the house is empty because the wife's brain is 100% POZED. What comedy.

These men probably welcome my presence because despite the police force only being a handful, probably to keep diversity quotes out of the question the JQ pressure them into watching me. This allows the local men to go about business as usual at a faster pace. What a weird alliance we have. We've never met each other and if we did we never talked of this yet both know what's up without speaking a word. Evolution is at work for the people of Light.

Paint and other weird chemicals come out all the time. Honestly some expensive new product that's now a piece of junk? Go to hardware stores and talk to all the departments about how to clean it up... just don't mention it's broke... you just have a client who rented to someone who made a mess of it. Like there's some paint in a spray can that make a cast iron bath tub look and feel new. It's seemingly very close to the color of water heaters. It comes in multiple colors. I bet you could clean up a water heater and exchange if not return it for a new one. Water heaters... $400-$900. Imagine doing plumbing jobs and charging to remove the water heater. Then using that paint on the water heater. Then having another NPC go swap it out for a new one and install it in the next job. That's like an extra $500 per job. It would really get women involved. Finally an excuse for women to have some wine and go out with the friends and exchange a dolled up new water heater. These NPC mods are so busy dealing with a POZed group that a dollar amount below a thousand doesn't make them flinch and many others would find very attractive don't even merit more than a 5 second inspection. Does it look rusty? Is the paint chipping off? Does it look new-ish? Often a NPC will take a photo of said water heater being returned late and night and the manager NPC will only glance at the photo for a few seconds before saying exchange it or say no.

Instead of laughing at POZed up workplaces, have them benefit you. Only be a pleasant customer if it suits you because these people...

“These people want you broke, dead – your kids raped and brainwashed. And they think it's funny”

-Sam Hyde

It matters not if our enemy is conscious or enthusiastic about their role.

If you send anything but a complete 100% soy boy to return shower walls or a toilet the return lady is going to have him pull the items out for inspection. Send women. Is there a line? Are people in the line getting visually upset how long the return/exchange is taking? Is no one from that department answering the page due to them being stuck with a customer? How useful is their neighboring department? Some departments take $10k a week in returned / exchanged damaged items. The company makes this cut into the workers yearly bonus. Despite everyone saying they want that big bonus, no return lady will inspect a toilet (take it out of the box) and no neighboring department will answer the call. Remember you got places to go and people to meet up with very soon. You've probably seen tons of dramas on TV, just make shit up.

Toilets get returned all the time and are almost never inspected fully. It would seem a quarter of the toilets returned are broken and sometimes out right used. All that bathroom fiber wall shit during the bathroom remodel you pulled up? just say paint it up with that $20 can of spray paint and get that $300 back or better yet exchange it for the stuff for the next job. There's seemingly an amount of times one can return something but the times one can exchange something without paperwork? These companies can only write off so much each week without the managers being notified. If a location can write off $10k a week... Can a group of White men/women work with that figure? So things wont change for a while until everyone's doing this and since niggers don't read.

Plus cashier returns if often 100% POZ. Unless you get a ham planet with fierce makeup with a neck that makes a stack of pancakes look pathetic, you're probably going to get a good return. Push for an exchange and if the item is out push for a return so you can get the job done. Remember you usually shop at this location and it's your first stop... just this location is out of the item and you have a tight time table to work with. Sometimes you get a tard and you just LARP a little bit of being mad and the sperg gets all sperged up for the rest of the day while you get that $200 back.

Installing toilets is easy. It's returning them or exchanging them that makes pressure. How much does a DUI cost? How much does college education cost? How much does flipping out you change return a damaged product and walking out cost? How much will it cost to write the book on how to do this? A company may write a new set of policy in response when a threshold of money is passed. So what? Are you part of the scenery or do you react?

There's online primer classes part one of two that give some bull shit printable paper that looks great with a resume for $200. There's only two gigs in the whole nation when it comes to water safety. Catchment, pools, pumps, pool chemicals, plumbing, flow, head all this stuff you can learn about for $200. Then take it to get a job some place plumbing related. In my group I only raided a few days a week, just enough not to get food stamps. So seemingly I could land weekend jobs installing bathrooms and remodels after I passed the 90 day probation.

$5k a weekend for $1750 worth of parts. Most of them you can return after fixing up with paint products via a third party group member.

Planting seeds.

One day my phone broke and I was unable to play some kids game. So I bought a e-reader thinking it could play the kids game. Plus it was on sale. I get it to find out it's just an e-reader. I thought wtf am going to do with this? Read? My whole life I hated reading. At my parents house in Hawaii the internet is so slow that only text loads past 5pm. After getting a shinny paladin in hearth stones I got bored with the new pay to play expansion pack. So I didn't prepare a head of time, it was reading time. I browsed the store. First I started by reading the blurb about the book. Fuck that. If it didn't have a cover that spoke to me or a title, whatever. Sheep say don't judge a book by it's cover and that's just an excuse to read 1700 pages of the bible with zero jokes and all kinds of irrational thought. Don't judge the b-ble or any other book by it's cover... also Mein Kampf is pure evil and it will bore you to death - jews. Hell I never knew what the word rational was until I browsed book titles.

So the one book I was drawn too from the cover? The title? It had a skull and had the word men in it: Gender studies. Is gender studies POZ or are all colleges POZ? The best selling male gender studies book were from a man who got well known over decades of high quality blog post in the man-o-sphere and collected them to into a book as per request of other users. I was unaware of books like these, i've wittingly or unwittingly learned some of the stuff in the book, and the book had a lot more. Then there's a man who decided to study history on his own and write a book to serve as a beacon for other men. I was working in very busy feed store where customers went to a line, I held that line. I could sit there all day and hold that line and the other men didn't care long as they got to do sissy weakling shit and hide from holding that line. Whereas POZ gender studies comes out of POZ colleges. The gender studies you hate so much also produce the managers you hate so much also produces the financial people you hate so much.

I was giving out See appendix 3 to local whites and the next one to local Hawaiians.

So I look up the recommended reading list with these books and find sub cultures. I do a lot of reading and get tired of post then start finding books. I see some memes listing books so I buy the books. I later find archive.org I later find that some narrators have websites that they do audio books themselves. I have like a hundred of hours of books in front of me. Books that I could never buy off jewzon, jewbay or any physical location. Finally something worth more than gold, words from White men that put history and everything put in perspective about race from a White point of view. All the gray spots, all the blanks, all the whatever about nothing seeming related... A Light unlike all others that make all other lights, point of views, perspectives seem black like the endless abyss (((they))) offer.

In other words I now see in black and White.

So I'm looking to down size. Maybe move. And I'm looking at all these books... What to do. I could sell them for dirt cheap. So I think of something I'll give them away. I live in a vacation state. I bike around the city seeing people on vacation. So I have this leg pouch. See appendix 4. I keep a couple books in it at all time to give out to preferable young Lights on vacation.

This whole started when I got some though sticky notes and wrote some edgy irony bro podcast website on. I'd write murdoch murdoch at cheekyvideos or dailystormer.name on tor and post them around time. Then I was reading a Daily Stormer about steam not allowing low quality troll games. Seemingly they allow Nazi games long as it's not low quality. The sticky note was low quality. So I opened photo shop and spliced a few memes together and promote Mr Bonds 4th mixtape See Appendix 5. Every time I bike around town and see them I'm just laughing wildly.

The first one I stapled to the post some tie dye witch came up and asked about it before inspecting it as a I rode off. It seems the troll quality passed. I later double back for a route and saw someone inspecting another. It feels great biking around town and seeing people read that high level troll. I can't help but grin and laugh wildly seeing these type of fliers around town. It's like waiting in a check out line and nigs be niggling and I start laughing. I must look mad being the only one laughing with no headphones in, no phone. I wonder how many of them listened to the free mix tape? I put like 30 around my town.

Then I thought If I was going to give out these books I'd give a post card from Hawaii and write some content in it. Giving kids a piece of paper just seemed too weird. So I thought to give them a book, to write and direct them to content and to give them a post card I printed. See appendix 6.

Protip: if it's a soyboy with a video game shirt on, let them go in peace and don't waste resources on them. Or talk shit to them and build up that booming voice. In Hawaii body cams are legal.

Despite this being war I hold back some resources and groups.

So normies don't lie about not having time to look at anything until the weekend. So I was biking around town putting up these fliers See appendix 7 for like three hours a day for two and a half weeks. I take a three day weekend to recover at the same time my mexican roommate and his colored half hawaiian kids get sick and start summer. On the third day I bike to the store to buy some bread and lone behold the two Light men I gave that frog meme too were on the clock and walked up to shake my hand. Once at the start and once at the end of the conversation. I suppose I lead them now. To what ends? To spread memes?

I have like twenty books to hand outs to young Lights on vacation or around town. How do I approach a very young Light female? The masses are feminine. There's a popular alt-right you tuber. The book is about $15 but it would seem to be a good book for young Light females. If that's the price, so be it. I just wished it be a little bit smaller to fit in my leg pouch. The first female to join me will have a job figuring out how to modify my leg pouch for that book. For ever $25 sent I will buy that book, write and direct to content, and print a post card in it. Imagine some young Light female 7-14 on vacation from some major city and gets that book. Then there's the young Light men I give books too. The ideal book is $10 so for ever $20 sent. I'll hand out that book. Ideally I keep a stock of both books so I never run out and never miss an opportunity. However I bet all my monero transactions will be zero. God damnit.

That meme of some dude in London being dragged away with the text saying if only you knew how bad things were. Handing out books with written content and a post card from a fit person of Light who's confused with a handful of celebrities... Ya, I can no fap for that. I don't lift as much as I used too since my food budget went down to $100 a month. It's not the best lifting meal budget... So extra funds would go to staying in prime shape in order to not only pass out books but make the best connection while passing out books. Optic-cuck? Not this role.

Can't someone looking to actually do something new move to Hawaii and figure out to let me live with them for free while I act as a figure head passing out books with a couple dank memes inside? Imagine if they shared the meme or book with their friends or jewbook. What a way to spread a message.

Hawaiians got a land act in the 50/60's that lets them lease a lot of $1 a year. There's agriculture lots that are 1/10th in taxes compared to the main land for having one food plant on them.

Hawaiians took up (((christ-insanity))) about one, maybe two, generations ago. They went from being very strong and owning all the Hawaiian Islands to only having 1000 pure blooded Hawaiians left. The Hawaiians often hate Whites... yet some are still true believers in the (((christ-lies))). Who is Hawaiian? The land act seeming says anyone with 30% Hawaiian blood. There's still so much land open for people to claim yet no one has money in the bank to build a house on it. So 10-15% blooded Hawaiians are trying to get the land act down to 10-15%. Some even want to Hawaiian blood threshold down to 2%. 2% DNA...

One reason to never race mix is if you're White you probably have 2% neanderthal DNA.

“Everything on this Earth is capable of improvement. Every defeat can become the father of a subsequent victory, every lost war the cause of a later resurgence, every hardship the fertilization of human energy; and from every oppression the forces for a new spiritual rebirth can come – as long as the blood is kept pure.” 1:11 -Hitler

“Everything we admire on this Earth today – science and art, technology and invention – is solely the creative product of a few peoples, and perhaps originally, of one race. On them depends the existence of this entire culture. If they perish, the beauty of this Earth will sink into the grave with them.” 1:11 -Hitler

Somehow the pure blooded Hawaiians bought an island. No Whites, no anyone but pure Hawaiians. The island doesn't have a mountains so the clouds can do their thing and make rain. It's partially a desert that doesn't have enough water for many people during the summer months so mostly everyone has to leave that island. Pure blooded Hawaiians. You see one and ask them and they tell you the island is dying. They claim to have their own religion on that island. And the 10-90% blooded Hawaiians? They seemingly don't care to support the 100% blooded Hawaiians.

“When man tries to rebel against the iron logic of Nature, he comes in conflict with principles to which he himself owes his existence as man. And so his action against Nature must lead to his downfall.” 1:11 -Hitler

(((Christianity))) has essentially genocided the Hawaiians in one, maybe two, generations in front of our eyes. If you're White and ID as a (((christ-lie))) I do not see you as White but also fiercely unwittingly fighting for White genocide.

“No, there is only one holiest human right, and this right is at the same time the holiest obligation, namely: to make sure that the blood is kept pure and, by preserving the best humanity, to create the possibility of a nobler development of these beings.” - 11:2 -Hitler quoting Nietzsche

So while doing my first interview with some local news station I kinda stall at the end when they use the term humanity. What would have been great if I remembered lines from that book with skulls on it with the word men in the title. The author speaks about noticing how you use the word we and us. Like do you think other races care about White well being and the future of White kids? Does the White person, who's fighting to become a minority in the only nation they have access too, have any evidence to point to where other nations take in groups of White people and let them be White? Yes, I can think of one – Russia taking in 15,000 White South African Farmers.

Campaign plan

You might want to consider running for office. My campaign was to shock people and to develop political technology that say someone in congress or senate running for office in CA could use IE a $1000 campaign that stands a chance vs a $10,000,000 campaign. My district was small enough to walk but no, I fight for the future. In my current state I can pay myself a salary equivalent to the position I'm running for from the start to the general. If I can raise it I can pay myself $5k a month. This video game is confusing since one comma might mean that said thing just said is not true. Why aren't there FAQs for non-shit heads? Plus it's just a load lets just say that.

I wrote up a campaign plan but whatever. Internet Blood Sports is life. My campaign goal is to get my opponents to VS me in Internet Blood Sports. See appendix fliers for (((political))). There's not one neighborhood board meeting on the Big Island. Internet Blood Sports could move in but (((politics))) is scared. The SPLC and ADL yell shut it down!

My plan isn't to spend a shit load on signs but betting on being able to vs them via five hours. To just insult and rip them apart on IBS live for five hours a week until the election. Can't some lawyers figure out how to make political internet blood sports a thing to replace neighborhood boards?

I saw some Hawaiian young men outside on lunch break. I biked up and introduced myself and said I wanted to make policy to take money from the jews and give it to the Hawaiians. The ring leader instantly shook my hand. The older men ears perked up when I told them about my $10k benefit story. I handed them the first ten pages and I owned facebook that night from 4pm Hawaiian time till like 11pm. I had like 600 page views.

Zero donations still. Hawaiians have been yelling they want Hawaii for the Hawaiians for almost 70 years. What do I see? Expensive T-shirts, plate lunch, alcohol, vaping e-cigs and weed chemicals, more plate lunch, coffee, SUVs, new phones, new tablets, new cars, and a ton of back braces. Getting someone to give up their plate lunch is like pulling teeth. Maybe there's anti-depressants in the fish, hence the addiction.

Thank g-d that my printer cartage hasn't ran out of oil... I mean ink. It's a miracle that this ink has lasted so long when it should of lasted only one night. Praise Kek!

For $100 in my campaign, buying a printer, paper and ink. I seemingly got 3000 people to read ten pages of straight fire. I developed a lot of tactics too.

Some of the life long christ-lies I now see in the stores look at me with horror. Dudes a preacher, dudes like in a biker gang and shakes in fear in public when he sees me.

$40 printer.

$40 ink and paper

or about $100 worth of stuff. Literally just campaign fliers

So far about three people in psychosis. There's a White young news reporter reviewing my campaign fliers and interview on said website listed at the top... he's getting paid to read all that and study – soon he'll turn.

Psychosis

Honestly I've been through psychosis like eight times. I lost count. The last time I went through it it only lasted like five minutes. I fully knew I was in it. It was rather interesting to feel my feelings like that. I miss the feeling. I've been locked up in mental wards three maybe four times. And Homeless three times. How many politicians want to talk about homeless or mental health but never walked the walk themselves? I bet homeless people would be very useful to society if they were broken down into groups by race. Obviously this is racist since some races would actually do something while others infected and destroy everything around them.... like a creeping black plague or a black hole.

Imagine if 20 White homeless people were given an acre of land to live on. 20 tents and 50 pallets and some tools. The same for 20 niggers, homeless or not, expect 6'... I mean 6 miles away. What would the land look like after one week? After one month? It would be the most racist experiment ever because of cause and affect. Niggers are dead weight.

I mean, you'd have to give both camps the right to govern themselves... Kinda like what Britain did with people who didn't fit in their society or had large groups in jail. I would give the death penalty for anyone caught selling Heroin.

Psychosis is sensing the racial question, sensing the JQ, sensing the nigger and shit skins want you dead and your kids raped. It's sensing how everything lines up and your mind is trying but doesn't have the tools to do it effectively.

“Ultimate wisdom always consists in understanding the instinctive causes—that is: a man must never fall into the madness of believing that he has really risen to be lord and master over Nature—which is so easily induced by the conceit of half-education—but must understand the fundamental necessity of Nature’s rule, and realize how much his existence is subject to these laws of eternal combat and upward struggle. Then he will sense that in a universe where planets revolve around suns, and moons turn about planets, where force alone forever masters weakness, compelling it to be an obedient servant or else crushing it, there can be no special laws for man. For him, too, the eternal principles of this ultimate wisdom hold sway. He can try to grasp them; but escape them, never.” 1:10 – Hitler

Psychosis is having that half-education. Cuck-serativism is like a shield. Shit-lib is like a sword. Neither of these two can defend against the jew who has both a sword and shield. The jew questions everything so nothing seems real. Then a child is able to consent via looking someone in the eyes. In a better sense both cuck-seratives and shit-lies are swords against Whites. Christ-lies are swords against Whites. These swords against Whites may come off as a shield. Essentially one is no longer able to defend against 200 anti-white messages a day or all the anti-white vibes are overwhelming said person and get crushed in a mental sense.... How do you get interracial porn scenes that should never of been out of your head? Do you move, do you filter your content, do you abandon specific areas? If so your mental shield is weak at best and your mind has zero sword.

Essentially you need a way to fight off alien morals, alien beliefs, alien anti-cultures that have built nero-pathways inside your head.

“The crown of the racial state’s entire work of education and training must be to burn the racial sense and racial feeling into the instinct and intellect, into the heart and brain of the youth entrusted to it. No boy and no girl must leave school without having been led to a final realization of the necessity and essence of blood purity.” II:2 -Hitler burn a racial identity it to your head. Uncuck yourself. Shit skins, who have their own nation to go back to, live with 15 people in a one bedroom apartment in White nations... Are you willing to allow 14 other Whites to free up their rent over head so they can do stuff? Are you willing to act as a collective? Or are you so selfish that you wittingly or unwittingly pick up the christ-insanity? So many 65+ year old White couples live in a house all alone watching TV all day on tax payers money.

“These people want you broke, dead – your kids raped and brainwashed. And they think it's funny”

-Sam Hyde

What will 15 White people do in a one bedroom apartment? Who would win! 13 White people not paying rent inside a one bedroom apartment filled by 15 White people or the whole ADL? Or SPLC? Some would become meme factories. Some would flag and report people/post all day. Some would work to spread memes on social media all day. Some might allow members for their unit to pick up seemingly nickle and dime jobs – in the sense that one might teach swim lessons for free; I've heard what swim coaches say to young kids in-between laps. Maybe they hand out memes/fliers at raves. Maybe they post IG pics of their culture with the intent of replacing the white picket fence dream with a tv mounted high up on the wall. Maybe they go around town and notice cashiers breaking dress code or phones by cashier stands and make a huge amount of noise to the manager and cooperate location. Maybe they spin their local news.

See no evil, speak no evil, hear no evil, do no evil... Define evil.

After learning about the JQ and niggers it sure is easy to read people. It shocks people and probably freaks them out that someone on vacation in Hawaii on some coffee shop I can walk up, talk about books, guess their state, guess what Light race they belong to and give them the It's Okay to be White paper. How'd I know she was from Cali, no white guilt.

I don't fantasize about ass, pussy, money, or tits. Who would of known nigger, jew and other shitskin goblin type races have females that have the worst phenotypes and only ass, tits and pussy put them on a level playing field as whites. I fantasize about Light phenotypes – as does seemingly the whole porn industry.

You enemies will never let you down. Some of the best fliers I wrote after seeing an interracial german thot with a nigger at a coffee shop. That made my brain light up and go to work on the fliers. Obviously someones watching Hawaii on jewbook for more fliers to be posted. I just need to keep inventing ways.

Once one reprogrammed ones brain they tap into a well of seemingly infinite energy and will.

I can't stand porn now. I feel sick seeing the interracial thumb nails. From age 8 until like six months ago I was hooked. Hours and hours on end just searching. Browsing porn or memorizing endless facts that have serve no purpose? Ever since some alt-hype youtube video about interracial couples lighting up the brain with disgust I thought to myself every time I saw a nigger in a thumb nail how sick it was. Within minutes of thinking this I broke the spell that plagued me for decades. After two decades of being hooked I now get disgusted, gag and want to throw up seeing just thumb nails. Some people are conditioned to watch porn being in front of their computers, me I linked porn with interracial scenes and now find all them like an extreme turn off and gag at the image in my head.

Thinking this was disgusting was not enough. Sure reprogramming your brain is great and all but you still have to undo the damage. So one night while in bed I thought about that thot, the thumb nails, the videos obviously meant, the system pigs, race traitors... hard core violent rap lyrics taking place in the nail aisle with a flayed man banner for the store logo. There was some youtuber that showed the intro to a scene. He black pilld me. I now have the white pill. Fantasizes about the flayed man banner or nails or whatever soothes your soul. If I had a huge amount of money I'd get studio gear /time and make a song about this as to be the new counter culture... in expression of art.

I can't even make a post titled "White Sharia rap" on CL without it being flagged and pulled in minutes with almost zero text inside the ad. What is White Sharia rap about? Simply it's goal is to get Whites to center around hatred and not hatred for themselves or their race or the future they can offer. If Whites can breed in a more noble human that can sense and comprehend and solve problems we can't even sense... -It's better to be a Wolf of Odin than a lamb of g-d.

I assume all my emails are censored and about every social media is. Why wouldn't it be? I'm in Hawaii almost alone expect for my newly sprouted seedlings. These Light females I handed the frog meme out to better come around in a week so I have anew place to move too. As much as I want to move out of Hawaii, I created a new way to recruit but also new groups to recruit. Maybe it's too romantic to think I can give out books without linking myself in the extra content in hopes they find who I found and through one of them find me. One thing is for certain, keep planting seeds and inventing.

It feels great thinking that every time I invent a new way, it'll get censored or shut down. That I just need to keep inventing. No more searching. No more looking for tactics developed and used from long since rotten corpses. 75% Nordic, Norwegian blood, and 25% pan-European from the May Flower ship with one great great great American Indian ancestor – I'll take a DNA test as soon as the Indian living in a glass TP does. Also for the Mayflower side family reunion was with a lot of Mormons. Smith blood.

While browsing (((youtube))) I have this great ideal to only listen to White people talk about music production. Weeks of searching casually I finally find a White man who teaches music production. His channel six years old. Seemingly after six months of doing sound design videos he did a remix blew up on sound cloud, got signed to a label, toured for three to four years, co-founded a EDM website and then co-founded a couple other businesses. Subscriber count? 10,000. Whereas this busy ant nigger has almost a million subs has been doing it for about five years and sells music theory videos...

Nigger sells mangled music theory videos his million subscriber count, niggers degrade English language to mumbles, while mexicans mangle spanish to an even more mangled language. Mangled language and incomprehensible lyrics seem to lead to emotional talk – Kinda like chickens clucking to each other.

White man does youtube synth sound engineering videos and within six months... above.
Nigger with million subscribers about the same amount of time mangles language and proud Christ-insanity.

“If we were to divide mankind into three groups – culture founders, culture bearers and culture destroyers – only the Aryan could be considered as representative of the first group” 1:11 -Hitler

Type twerk or pole dance into jewtube and it's political IE the hotties have displayed a few hundred or thousand views while some nigger ham planet pole dancing has 11 million.

“Refuse to swallow what the jew pissed in our psyche” - These Juden Mr. Bond

((((They))) are never going to allow me campaign fliers to spread like wild fire on jewbook again.

Invent and never listen to niggers, shit skins or jews (American Indians are red skins). If the guitar that worked on the Album Dark Side of the moon sold for enough to guy house – Then Aryan genes, those who created almost everything exclusively we admire, should not be in the same class room as a nigger, shit skin or jew. The Aryan can only lose power while talking to a non-White while the non-white can only gain power. If you do you're going to be one of that million subscriber base being told it's going to take years and years of daily endless grinding to get you make something somewhat decent while play pausing hour long videos of nigger-shit.

Education... Doesn't a teachers plan need to be approved by some board? College is a business and if 95% of the people can't understand culture yet a long even comprehend the makings of culture... Then do colleges and schools teach how to bear culture or destroy it? Everyone seemingly wants useful idiots. Money is made off chaos. Hence seemingly all education and schools brainwashed one to become a culture destroyers.

“How many are out to SINK the boat, not merely rock it?”

(Volx. XI, #6 -June, 1982) -James Mason

The more I memorize quotes, the more I can link stuff together to have my power level on the rise.

Million people listening to some nigger talk about music production: The new (((neo-christianity)))

Sure some look at me weird, some are straight scared and literally shaking (christ-lies), some are shocked, and others shake my hand like their life depends on it. What do I see? I see some going thought psychosis now. Lovely, I wish my enemies were put through the same tests as me, and seeing them going through psychosis is... well just say I know how to play into how I choose.

What do I see? It's a lot like going through workman comp for neck back and spine and getting the care, and talking to the DR about your personal care. The Dr told me I was the idea patient. I learned much. About how to maintain good back health. I hope to write at greater detail with pictures of how catch norimes up to speed. The normie sees a NPC walking. I see a NPC hobbling. Limping, gimps, etc. (((the most advanced society))) but it can't spot people before their rupture a disk and pinch a nerve at some wage slave job?

I like fanning the flames. Especially for things that I pick up on that NPCs are unconscious about. Say they are all bright and happy and loud and all about POZ messages and I'll see them hobbling around and respond in that upbeat reply about how their back is doing. The soul crushed look: cuck-seratives. The cuck-seratives wish that their jewish masters cared about them like the way I could spot their personal ills both mentally and physically. I need not soul spy.

As a person of Light, it's gut feeling, invent, and instincts.

The NPC probably thinks I'm speaking to their soul, when in my head I'm ridiculing them how easy it is to pull them in different directions: this way, then that, then this again – all for sport. Three different emotions I get out of them in less than two spoken sentences. If you're on the clock at some dead end job, play with the way you speak stuff. Make it a game to pull NPCs in weird selling point directions. Being above ground is lot like Virgil in Dante's Inferno expect it's my mind taking my body through a brisk walk in hell viewing all the other NPCs in it's own level of hell. From personal experience, I fear nothing more than my own body. What values were instilled in me? Why did my genes, blood, body react the way it did? When I first started to learn how to rap it became a quest not to sound like a degenerate. Politics became a quest not to have my efforts used against me – to work for the jews unpaid. Witting or unwittingly it's all the same.

NPC's often betray their body, their mind, their race. It's my job to give the NP-Cuck subconscious mind a reason to turn against them. I could do good but if doing good would save the Light races from being raped and genocidesd in their own homelands then it would of done so long ago. Why do I say niggers because they still act like niggers. If not calling them niggers made the Light homelands safe and secure the Light children's future then I might consider not using the word nigger but that might start the whole cycle over again. We are living runes. Just make sure your rune isn't flipped the wrong direction.

How much damage can you do in one short sentence?

Can you plant the seed for psychosis in one sentence casually at some box store then fan the flames through the months?

Can you plant seeds for psychosis that get the flames fanned by useful idiots who have values unwittingly instilled in them?

How much damage can you do with a political flier?

Better to be a Wolf of Odin than a lamb of g-d.

The christ-lie religion should be left for the colored until they are 100% POZ.

The Hawaiians picked up Christ-insanity about 250 years ago and went from ruling all the Hawaiian Islands to only having 1000 pure blooded Hawaiians left – still many here cling to Christ-lies.

Mind fuck

90% of the time the person you're arguing with online is an Israel paid citizen following a script. That means a lot of memes are compromised. So many books, pdfs, videos, documentaries, etc are compromised too. I search for audio books from established voices posted on established forms. Is this 100% proof? Is Mein Kampf book on major sellers 100% Hitler and not modified to weaken or water down or straight remove or paint things the wrong way?

Gonna have to start seeing and thinking in patterns.

“Ultimate wisdom always consists in understanding the instinctive causes—that is: a man must never fall into the madness of believing that he has really risen to be lord and master over Nature—which is so easily induced by the conceit of half-education—but must understand the fundamental necessity of Nature’s rule, and realize how much his existence is subject to these laws of eternal combat and upward struggle. Then he will sense that in a universe where planets revolve around suns, and moons turn about planets, where force alone forever masters weakness, compelling it to be an obedient servant or else crushing it, there can be no special laws for man. For him, too, the eternal principles of this ultimate wisdom hold sway. He can try to grasp them; but escape them, never.” I:10 -Hitler

One thing is for certain. Learn to see patterns. Try to place them together, and you can't do this without a growing and evolving vocabulary. One of the reason why I liked the book of Mormon is because so much of the pro nouns I can swap out for nouns or other things. Weird, it was like crossing water in my mind. I still rather have someone giving me the Turner Diaries, SIEGE or White Power than the book of Mormon.

When asked if I'm White Supremacist I ask them to define supremacist. They often use a pro-noun. I ask them not to use a pronoun. Then I ask them to define happy. Then I ask them to define it with a pronoun.

Perhaps psychosis is when one starts to think of time in seasons and patterns, not like a progressive straight line. This would make sense why when one starts to think of time in seasons they often freak out after sensing the JQ but not having the words to speak it – hence why the JQ is banned to talk about in so many nations.

Once you are aware of the racial question...

“All occurrences in world history are merely an expression of the racial instinct for self-preservation, in a good or bad sense.” 1:11 – Hitler

All those patterns line up and give you synergy. While most think of time as a line, I see them walking off a cliff.

All those head scratching questions about this or that become black and White. Knowing this one can speak a couple sentences that cause massive unbalance in normies minds. It's best to let the normies speak first and play into their frame with a stronger frame that they can't wittingly sense then guide them to a conclusion. Then flip the topic to something seemingly unrated but stay in the same frame conversation. Link stuff together for them... The goal? To start a chain reaction inside their head of linking things together and sense they don't have a sword their shield will get overwhelmed and eventually cause psychosis.

Building a professional studio and producing a song to compete against studio that cost 1 million a day to rent? I could probably do it now since I'm in the mindset to invent rather than look for shiny objects. Blood speaks to blood. The sound cloud rappers rapping about fucking bitches on cocaine seem to be a hit despite awful quality – What is the cause and affect of endless love songs written by White men for White women? Have you ever tried to talk about love after swiping right? It's easier the cum on the thots face then talk politics/ power to her. One sound cloud nigger rapper just got shut dead by a bunch of other niggers. It would seem this is a meme. Lo-fi hiphop is a meme. These people have been using their equipment for years yet some how never actually learned or cared about learning how the equipment works: if lo-fi hip hop producers weren't a meme they would eventually become just another hip hop producer; or maybe that's just burnt nigger genes aka empty heads. Maybe lo-fi hiphop is niggers using White mans technology and hiphop is Jews paying White men to do all the work for niggers, training a monkey to push buttons for food. The nigger effect of always become dumber. Niggers heads being a black hole that only make you dumber isn't a meme, it's the reality.

“Ever notice the similarity between the tenets of Christianity and those of Marxism? They both negate race and private property; they indulge in brainwash, treason, subversion and have resorted to torture and war to get where they want to go. Supposedly a movement for the poor, the hierarchy of both is filthy rich. The Pope and the International have a lot in common with regard to questionable national loyalties and I wonder how the Church would fare against a 'House Un-American Activities Committee'- style investigation. The bulk of the Communist world is non-White as is the majority of those professing the Christian religion. The liberals and Marxists would have you mix with Negroes on earth while the Christians would have you mixed with them for the rest of eternity. (That would be my own idea of hell!) - (Vol. X, #7 -July, 1981) James Mason

Someone want so to into eternity with niggers who still to this day tie Whites to chairs, mold clay around them, put straws in their nose and slow cook them alive?

“There can be no making pacts with the Jew, but only the hard: either – or.” -1:7 Hitler

“... This planet once moved through space for millions of years without human beings, and it can do so again some day if men forget that they owe their higher existence, not to the ideas of a few crazy ideologues, but to the knowledge and ruthless application of Nature's iron-clad laws” - 1:11 Hitler

The quality of the mix tape does need to pass a threshold of quality. De Sade would fantasize for hours between masturbating while locked up in prison – twist this while making music. The new mindset of inventing ways over looking comes in hand. There's no blue print to how to treat my room only tools for someone can test and invent an acoustic sound room. A room often has dead spots or spots twice as loud perhaps a lot like the mind. Where will my audience listen to my music or a (((youtube))) video? Many people listen to music with head phones but how many listen to (((youtube))) videos with headphones? I saw some youtuber video of someone covering interracial porn it was a very giggly looking white female and two niggers. I was black pilld. I hadn't reprogrammed my brain at that point but I felt horrified. After reprogramming my brain by thinking how sick and disgusting every interracial thumb nail was some of these clips still haunted me. Seemingly the same night I thought about the flayed man scenes like De Sade I fantasized about it for hours. Problem solved by thinking about what to express through a White Sharia alter-ego rapper character. De sade would fantasize for hours before masturbating on and off all day in jail. I fantasize for hours before writing. There's lots of young men of Light who's been psychoanalyzed, it's time to give them some tools to turn the tables in their heads.

I undid decades of countless hours of being conditioned to and for browsing porn in less than minutes. Brains seem to require some input. What else can I link to this? Synergy? Cuck-seratives, nigger lovers (liberals), christ-lie, the JQ, niggers, etc. There's so much to list.

“White genocide is (((their))) plan, counter- (((extermination))) is our response.

-Alex Linder

“The enemy is anyone who attacks” - James Mason Title of (vol. XIII, #1 -jan., 1934)

I was originally thinking that my political fliers only spread to 18-26 year olds around Hilo. To think about it that christ-lie biker cuck-serative saw me shopping and froze in spot, eyes wide, literally shaking in front of like ten people. How many people really saw my first ten fliers? How many read them? Are people still sharing them? Did ZOG shut down some of their zogbook? Did those who get their accounts banned now have a motivation to keep spreading my fliers via other means? I think about a senate candidate in CA in 2018 who said making policy about taking money from the jews and giving it to the niggers. What did the niggers do for him? Niggers are worthless. Doesn't he know the White man suffers just from the presence of niggers? I told one 56% face Hawaiian man I was going to make policy to take money from the jews and give it to the Hawaiians. This young man instantly shook my hand and thanked me as a brother but also seemingly got my ten fliers to thousands of people maybe more and not just in Hilo. Hawaiians want teeth, they want tools, they want results but they wont give up the Aloha spirit or Christianity. Niggers just want everything you got. In less than a minute and ten pieces of paper one Hawaiian young man did more than any nigger seemingly did for that CA senate candidate.

Bravo random 56% face pan-pacific-islander man. Once you read those first ten fliers... think about thousands of people reading them in Hawaii one night. Then throughout the week see people going through psychosis. The self-hating white interracial thots who messaged me, the ones who see me and their genes automatically eat them again? Ya, eat your heart out.... or other have niggers slow cook you alive to eat your heart out literally.

The definition of genetically modifying anything is when a human interferes. Whites were the first to genetically modify themselves in the sense that they left the blazing heat of the sun and lived in the harshes most unforgiving environments this planets had to offer for hundreds of thousands of years. Whereas the nigger could pick a water melon any time of the year, impregnate and abandon females leaving them to the water melon patches. The nigger got genetically modified by the sun. The nigger is like dirt in the sense that the dirt just sits there baking in the sun since the beining of it's creation and until the end of it's creation: nigger genes are worthless and will always be worthless, for the nigger sat and dindu nuffin for all of it's existence for hundreds of thousands of years sitting, watching the sun, burning in the sun, developing burnt genes, shit colored eyes, shit colored skin, shit colored hair and a complete 100% gene structure of pure shit.

The pure blooded Africa... 6000 years of written history and dindu nuffin... See appendix for equality facts political flier.

In Hawaii, Hilo, it's very common for a girl to graduate highschool with five to six kids. If the girl gets pregnant and no one knows who the father is then at one point it's cheaper for the state to pay the girls mom to stay home and raise the kids until she graduates highschool – so she can get the monthly benefits to raise the kids. Seemingly this brings in 60k a year to stay home and have kids. Long as the house has no sign of drugs and the Dr's don't suspect drugs CPS doesn't take the kid away – seemingly this is something that only happens in a the ghettos no White person would dare go into.

One can seemingly reprogram one self by first fantasizing the stuff they want out of their head out, then fantasize things into reality. I fantasize about the destruction of the system, everything else is error.

In one track I could turn the tables insides millions of young men of Light mind. Passage of manhood has never been so easy.

It really turns the table on the meaning hammer time and a dancing nigger.

Speaking about turning the table. As shit skins invade Britain with Britian spreading their own six year old daughters asses wide open for endless gang rape from shit skins, in maybe one decade Britian will be controlled by Arabs. Arabs are mostly Muslims. Muslims will have nukes for the first time in history. I hope they get them before mexicans take power of nukes in the US. If there's one think I know about their religious book it's they want Jews 100% dead.

Anytime you're talking to a nigger you're getting more dumb. Anytime you're listening to nigger music, you're getting more dumb. Same with jew shit. I listened to the same oxxymiron song for a week straight. I practically learned Russian and sometimes now speak with his ascent. I event started speaking Russian words like a professional Russian rapper in a week. Manson said you have to read the books backwards to get all that other stuff out. I had to get all those nigger beats and jew produced rhythms out of my head. I've never had a better work flow in my digital audio workstation. I never had an unlimited well of energy, will, and invention for everything – thanks for no longer working against me genes.

After learning about Rockwell and Yockey I still sometimes get scared shitless in my living room and urgently rush to get stuff out like I'm about to get assassinated that night for even thinking yet alone writing about some things.

“When human hearts break and human souls despair, then from the twilight of the past the great conquerors of distress and care, of disgrace and misery, of spiritual bondage and physical constraint, look down upon them and hold out their eternal hands to despairing mortals. Woe to the people that is ashamed to grasp them.” I:2 – Hitler

“... A movement that wants to renew the world must serve, not the moment, but the future” 11:6 – Hitler

The energy probably comes from how I rewired my brain. Some Klan leader and many many other people of Light said they will merely suffer just from the presence of Niggers. Every time I see a nigger my brain lights up and seems to work in new ways, for I actively put a lot of user input in. You just have to program it. Program it for fatties, self hating whites, and every unwitting enemy. Instead of thinking that the nigger smells and you need to get 6' away, program your brain. The more you talk about nigger behavior the less justice you do to it inside your head. Without knowing about the JQ or niggers any extreme emotion in your head probably doesn't connect with anyone else.

I was thinking red pill stuff before I knew about the red pill. If people of Light aren't the prize, then why are almost all Light homelands being invaded and young girls of Light being raped? How big do you think? Antifa or BLM says all white people are Nazis, and Nazis don't have rights and raping and abusing them is justice. Net work markets will say that have or developing a 100 year plan. 100 years and still putting money above genes? Sounds like neo-christ-likes cult for shit skins. I sometimes tell them about the low income housing market of how the government had these low income developers fill out their taxes with 100% accuracy and how one day the government said these people were making too much money too easily and changed the rules for the low income developers and not for the government. Adam Weishaupt and his illuminism or the order of the Illuminati was seemingly all about soul spying, IRS, taxes, etc are great ways to see into businesses and shut them down.

The best part is listening to these net work marketing or mentor programs where the neo-cuck-seratives say things like "I want to give 90% of my passive income from a business I have to set up once and never touch again to the poor and travel the world." Can they visit Saudi Arabia already? Why is it every Muslim, Arab or not, grinning at me and saying what a man of men. Oh right, White Sharia.

I mean if Whites had to carry another race(s) into eternity and the stars... anything south of the boarder, jews, niggers or Russian, Arabs, pan-asian, and pan-pacific-islander, American Indians.

"We all sense that in the distant future mankind may be faced with problems which only the highest race – become a master people and supported by the means and possibilities of an entire globe – will be equipped to overcome" II:1 – Hitler

It's going to take hundreds of years of selective breeding to undo christ-insanity affects, and Aryans won't be 1/10th the world population but 95% or one standard deviation.

All those non-whites don't have to worry about their kids dying or fighting in some war after the real threat is removed. Smash Cultural Marxism.

I still think that memes need to be harvested. Pepe the frog in the appendix gets a lot of White people interested. They've never heard of any of the other content and pepe serves as a link. Just like how I have a celebrity face, a fit body, some nice black boots and can talk to people's blood I serve as a link to random people of Lights on vacation handing out memes and books. You don't need a celebrity face, just great smile (think racist stuff) and lift and wear all black.

There's been values instilled in you. Learn to flip the tables inside your mind. People of Light can sense what each other are thinking. Hell Arabs sense what I'm thinking and grin and tell me something told them to talk to me. That's why the jerk off whites fantasizing about Asian meat has never gotten a good vibe back from a female of Light. Charles Manson in the video I saw he went through about a dozen different facial expressions. Seems crazy? Without saying anything he communicated to me.

How depressing and lonely it must be to not be able to communicate wittingly through the smallest eye movements. How empty and meaningless life is without being able to read and write. How everything seems and endless abyss without learning history through a White perspective. How crazy ones thoughts can get without knowing about the JQ.

There's always talk about finding your roots, finding yourself, finding your spirit animal, or whatever. Never any talk about finding a racial home land yet alone worrying about who's jamming noose is going to be jammed up your children's ass. There's almost no talk about connecting with your subconscious mind. There's just tons of drugs. Seemingly everything we study reflects the European soul hence why studying is changed to memorizing countless useless facts that change.

Take the build of an of atom. It starts with one thing in the middle and builds from there. The electrons that surrounds it cannot be pinned down in one spot, most of it is empty space, just a big cloud of nothing with something that we can assume that's here or there, try to predict how it moves, but never see it, never capture it, never seen, only seems to be there trying to describe something – like emotions.

Fire ants are a real threat to some pan-pacific-islander islands. Fire ants have gotten to the point on some of these islands that when they send their kids to school, the kids can't leave the building for fire ants on the pavement and outside walls. No one grows anything on those islands because of fire ants. Fire ants have forced pan-pacific-islanders out of their islands. I don't know how many decades they've been trying to fight / research how to defend against fire ants. I wonder if any claim to be true believers and prayed the ants away or better yet stayed on the island with the fire ants? Fire ants are in every tropical part of the world now: 100% POZ.

These pan-pacific-islanders should acknowledge they evolved sitting drunk under a coconut tree waiting for the coconut to fall on their head for lunch.

“Social activity must never and on no account see its task in inane welfare schemes, as ridiculous as they are useless, but rather in the elimination of basic deficiencies in the organization of our economic and cultural life that must—or in any event can—lead to the debasement of the individual.” I:2 -Hitler

“It is not the mass that invents and not the majority that organizes or thinks, but in all things only and always the individual man, the person.” II:4 -Hitler

“... The majority can never replace the man.” I:3 -Hitler

“Everything we admire on this Earth today—science and art, technology and invention—is solely the creative product of a few peoples, and perhaps originally, of one race. On them depends the existence of this entire culture. If they perish, the beauty of this Earth will sink into the grave with them.” I:11 - Hitler

There's obviously a demand to find a way to combat the fire ant that is making life unlivable for humans, yet capitalism offers no solution. There's obviously human suffering with the countless people loosing their homes, towns, and nations to these fire ants, yet no humanity, human rights, etc is raising money to solve this problem. If everything we study is a reflection of the Aryan soul.. Aryans studying about how fire ants take over islands and displace who races might set up some red flags.

White people can only be White in White nations. All these shit-libs, cuck-seratives, christ-lies, etc are group thinking for sheep based emotions, not individuals. The individual: mangled, censored and pro-slave-bias-language to the point of of endless gray areas unable to connect with anyone and build anything IE the individual can't build, invent or evolve language and they want to speak about a future? Perhaps societies collapse due to the pro-slave-bias- language never evolving and people letting ego rule them, letting their emotions rule them, letting their brain sense something and try to give signals to the NPC but never putting it into words IE christ-insanity, cuck-seratives, shit-libs.

Didn't Rome change the definition of virtue so more groups, (((churches))) and talkers IE breaking the link of cause and affect, before they collapsed? Rome let it's language devolve to better suit peoples emotions.

Can't talk about niggers in the US without getting shammed. Can't talk about the JQ or niggers and keep a job. Most of Europe and Russia is illegal to question yet alone deny the holohoax. The EU banned memes. (((They))) and their sheep cry out it's "progressive" while violently oppressing language. How can a society progress if the language is being regressed? The less the masses know, less they can express with words, the more feelings they have and the more of a battle it is to catch those feelings hence the countless TV shows that mimic the b-ble teaching / giving people examples of how to live, how to hampster their emotions.

Scientist can deactivate a part of the brain that removes fear of niggers and in-turn induces a feeling of trust in some g-d. Freedom of religion? What if a religion said it was it's religious right to place magnates on your head to accomplish this. Soy comes to mind.

Such wow how mentally ill.

The Hawaiian that paid $1 a year for the house I rent a room in passed away. The living room got cleaned up after almost 80 years. A shit skin mexican, who I called ICE on, put a TV high up on the wall. Next thing you know the POZ and cuck-serative who always wants conflict are glued to it smoking pot that they buy/trade from the shit skin. A christ-lie was some faggot who probably sucked nigger dick in the 70's and is now dying of aids. He then took so many drugs and drink while on his medication he developed cancer and is now dying from cancer. This chrit-lie trades his opium pain pills for weed. The shit skin then lures shit-lib white women to watch TV and offers them all kinds of drugs. Put a TV up and the majority of the working class will be glued to it. Unless you know about the JQ or niggers than your subconscious mind probably scares to hell out of you hence the massive amounts of drugs, alcohol, public programming. When I first went though psychosis the meanings in the songs on the radio flipped in a very dark eternal way.

Aryans had to invent love while long harsh winters over hundreds of thousands of years. Probably also inventing trust and forgiveness. Maybe you beefed with someone over something and the winter came in to break it up and over during a break months later you see they were right about something. Only the Aryan forgives and forgets, don't forget that. Proof? Why are only White nations boarders open?

Hawaiians have held their hatred for the White man and now only have 1000 pure blooded Hawaiians left. They've seemingly been fighting the White man for a couple hundred years yet shrug off the christ-lie missionaries that visited shortly before.

“Here too, of course, Nature can be mocked for a certain time, but her revenge will not fail to appear. It just takes time to manifest itself, or rather, it is often recognized too late by man.” I:10 – Hitler

Will the pure blooded Hawaiian and the 10% Hawaiians turn their hate towards jews or niggers or will they hold their hatred for the White man until their bitter end. What will Hawaiians do with 200,000 niggers move to Hawaii?

“The Jewish doctrine of Marxism rejects the aristocratic principle of Nature and replaces the eternal privilege of power and strength with the mass of numbers and their dead weight. Thus it denies personal worth, contests the significance of folk and race, and thereby withdraws from mankind premise for its existence and culture. As a foundation of the universe, it would lead to the end of any order intellectually conceivable to man. . . .If, with the help of his Marxist creed, the jew is victorious over the peoples of the world, his crown will be the funeral wreath of mankind and this planet will—as it once did for millions of years—move through the ether devoid of men.” I:2 -Hitler

Almost no religion or parent explains something. This does no good to the child. The child eventually grows up and often not being explained why this or that is folly is the seeds for their destruction. Anyone who explains anything either seems crazy or the frame is setup so they loose. Harvesting memes is great. Now one can harvest de sade and keep themselves on track in a sense by fantasizing about said activities. I fantasizes about writing, swimming, biking, music producing, and talking to people of Light around town.

I fantasize about a lot of things like breathing beauty back in the world.

You don't bless people when you're being cursed.

“White genocide is (((their))) plan, counter- (((extermination))) is our response.

-Alex Linder

Thots will spend countless amounts of money and time on makeup and hair products to often flirt with genes that were burnt, and obviously destroyed, over hundreds and thousands of years laying out in the sun like the dirt they are. It never occurs to a thot that she should visit Africa – a part of Africa under control of niggers or even to visit ghettos in her state or the states in those nigger rap songs. Nigger females spend countless amounts of money and makeup to look Whiter, to get plastic surgery to display a Whiter phenotype.

The order of the Illuminati was all about soul spying and directing people for their own ends through instilling values into people wither they were conscious about it or not. Wither or not my enemy is conscious or enthusiastic about their role makes no difference. We have had values instilled in us. Flip the tables in your head, then flip the tables in others heads.

The age of consent in shit skin places like Mexico or South America is eight or maybe ten. Imagine seeing a old nigger with a ten year old White girl, obviously being pimped out, and seeing a couple together in public. Having an interracial couple like this would be so bad for PR.

Never forget Eva Helgetun (1996-2011). Eva was a 14 year old girl from Norway who was raped by 3 Somali refugees in Trondheim when out looking for friends. Unable to cope with the ordeal, she took her own life a month later. RIP you sweet angel.

“If you're going to commit suicide, do the world a favor and take out a high ranking Jew with you” - Alex Linder Not an exact quote for that one... browsing through years of gab.ai post trying to find it.

First you get the idea then your methods. The order of the Illuminati plan was world domination through controlling people with or not they were conscious they were being controlled or not. Know to throw people off balance, fan the flames, show them a glimpse of madness that'll reflect in them, link things together, learn to stay in your frame. I like to agitate people pushing carts. Saying I too once had back pain. I straight up assume they have back pain from how they walk. I care not if they acknowledge their pain. I give them parts of my story about workman comp, I attack cuck-seratives status, I mock them for not having the guts to use the system to get a healthy back and for not having the balls to stand up for their personal well being. Remember force forever masters weakness or crushes it, so when talking to a wage slave remind them of this through story...

IE while at Target checkout line I'm speaking loud to my shit-lib mother about Anthony Bourdian, celebrity chef, because he's on a magazine cover. I tell her for years he went around talking about how much he loved diversity, how he said all this anti-white stuff, and how he expressed his love for brown people, and over the years his depression grew and grew, his suicidal thoughts grew and grew and none of his friends or family seemingly could help him cope with this unknown self hatred that one day after years of saying all that on TV he hung himself. I mentioned stories like this make me believe there is a God, he's unapologetic pro-white and if you go against him, he'll turn your genes blood and mind against yourself until a bitter end. Some 56% face Hawaiian guy looked at me with rage before taking his items and leaving.

The thing I liked about the book of Mormon is that every conversation can be just as meaningful as a conversation inside the church on Sunday. And that some people have work to do that permits them to skip church meetings. My local LDS YSA ward is like 80% brown, filled with self-hating soy cuck boys. The one White girl was excited that I was making moves on her but she already planned a move back to Alaska earlier that year. Two weeks later and it's just white cucks trying to race mix at that LDS ward. I like to ask LDS member's if they studied what the founding members of the church said besides J Smith. If a White man mixes his seed with a shit skin, he should be put to death on the spot – or something like that from one of the founders of the LDS church.

Diversity training events like at j-left cuck-bucks is a great time to harvest memes. Instead of harvesting memes you harvest the actions of others. I'll go visit these soy boy locations and fan the flames. Asking them how the training was and if they now understand white guilt. I like to fan them a few times before handing them the pepe frog meme in the appendix. I really send these people into a craze. Sometimes I get to talk to the young Light females longer but I don't. I ask them if they've read any good books lately, they usually respond they are so busy, I respond with an upbeat what you have eight kids, they reply feels like it and then there's an awkward silence for a minute while the venom sinks in. There's probably a line of colored people with five kids in line. She's making them drinks feeling life is too busy to read while the colored people have five kids and have time to sit at cuck-bucks. Fan those flames.

I like handing out books with memes written in them so by the time 2020 comes around, these networks have expanded and grown into so many different types of nodes.

There's some popular brands in Hawaii that I like. One is a play on SS and another is a play on Nazis. With one to two lines of text or sentences one should be able to harvest this meme. Did the inventors intend for this? Were they conscious about their products? It's time to make those who really like those brands figure out the true meaning behind those popular brands as in to turn the tables. Hawaiians want Hawaii for the Hawaiians. They want all the Islands back, not just parts. Hawaiians are unwittingly some kind of national socialist. I'm letting them know. it would be hilarious to turn most Hawaiians into Nazis with 30 pieces of paper and some it's okay to be Hawaiian hand outs.

Is it easier to turn liberals into voting republican or turn them into radical neo-nazis? I have no clue what Muslim states are but they are turning Nazi. I think it's easier to completely change the culture than to talk people into locking themselves into a mental prison: flip the tables inside their head over walking them from one mental prison to the next. Making fun of spergs, bug men, and cuck-seratives. Instilling values seems to be easier when you make someone it gives them strength over something: countless men don't have strength over their own dick. It's said it's easier to destroy than to create. In a capitalist society it's all about swindling any and everyone to make money whereas you're not allowed to create anything. In a National Socialist state you're breeding up the race. Hawaiians wanting Hawaii for the Hawaiians is obviously Nazi. Then you add in what the jews did to the Japs to the land in Hawaii and you get more Nazis. Then you talk about what the jews did the Asians and you get more Nazis. Maybe facts don't seem to really work on the masses of people, it's power they follow or better it's the promise or threat or illusion of power they follow.

Amazing how I used to think I needed millions to be happy; it would seem every race is trying to be surrounded by White people in good or bad ways – the proof is Whites being forced to trade with non-Whites. Seemingly only Russians are doing it in good ways. Putin, what a man, the first to be a culture bearer in... maybe since the start of Rome.

Un-fucking up that twisted frame. It's not what you can learn it's can you uncover the values instilled in you and how you can turn the tables inside your mind then go around turning tables inside other peoples minds. You have been programmed for your whole life, turn the tables in your mind and harvest the benefits.

Every time you see some hobbling around especially on the clock, that's someone you can instill values in without them wittingly knowing it: give them a couple sentences and they'll have twenty minutes of pushing carts to hamper it in their head.. Every time there's some diversity training in a company, that's an opportunity to spread memes.

White people are cattle that build nations that aren't allowed to live in them – their not even allowed to keep their christ-insanity-bias-lanage whole. People are like weeds. Instead of reinforcing the lie fan the flames, always knock people out of their frame with the intent to cause a chain reaction that will overwhelm them later while trying to maintain the lie. When they are in such a fury they are more likely to take your pepe it's okay to be white meme with a block of text.

The it's okay to be white meme in the appendix should be changed. It should direct the person three steps then list content by type.

As I bike to the pool I see some of my political fliers get ripped down yet the ones saying “no shit holes in the US, then the world, all else is error” with little nigger memes photo shopped on stay up. The one with (((political))) in the title. I stapled it above the high quality troll promotion for Mr Bond. They political flier was ripped off. Did someone want a copy? Or were they offended? Many of my fliers stay up around town of all kinds. As much as I like these other fliers they seem to take up a lot of ink. Future fliers will be like the one titled LARPING for massages. IBS got shut down and it had to evolve into something else. For a short three months IBS did great. The goal it to mix propaganda in. Some NPC desperate enough to fix their back pain may act. I'll having living testimonies soon. Living a breathing people unwitting unconsciously following the values I instilled. I used to say you can always trust someone to act in their best interest, wrong.

“How necessary it is to keep realizing that idealism does not represent a superfluous expression of sentiment, but that in truth it has been, is, and always will be the premise for what we call human culture—yes, that it alone created the concept, ‘man.’ It is to this inner attitude that the Aryan owes his position in the world, and to it the world owes man. For it alone formed from pure spirit the creative force which, by a unique pairing of the brutal fist and intellectual genius, created the monuments of human culture.” I:11 – Hitler

I went from working at possible the busiest feed and farm supply store in the US. Jacked, shredded and bulking muscles out of a v neck. On a weekly biases I was accused to my face of doing steroids. Despite doing chest only twice a week I got huge results inventing ways to incline chest at home after being a wage slave. I trashed everything I believed about training and trained like I wanted results next month. I got them for incline chest. With a v neck my massive traps did most the work and the incline chest did the rest with massive arms. I was then working in the plumbing department! All the other departments wanted me because their workers or themselves were hurting. For a short time people asked if I was flexing all the time. I was laughed and showed them a half flex or when I did something heavy I would actually flex. It was clear, everyone thought I was flexing until they saw me flex.

A lot of departments fought for me. Two managers tried to put me in the parking lot to help load stuff. My group leader fought like hell to keep me. I made her laugh a lot more than everyone else. Everyone else talked shit about her. I saw myself as Virgil in Dante's Inferno taking this christ-lie deep into hell making jokes about it the whole time about her resting place, and she fought like hell to keep me. I was great at moving water heaters and could solve peoples problems and double for two other departments. This christ-lie NPC had back surgery five times. The first back surgery Drs thought the NPC could never work again. Anti-white is nothing new. I'm assuming the NPC went to apply for SSI or whatever and was denied. It was a mercurial she could work again. Four back surgeries later this NPC is shaking uncontrollable when it's 30 minutes late taking it's meds. It has a TENS unit built into it's spine. Frankenstein. Frankenstein... the daughter of the first feminist wrote this. Frankenstein... wasn't the mother had had the daughter who wrote this also come up with conservatism?

These NPCs are extremely easy to LARP into. 1700 pages and not a single joke, these NPC will like anyone who makes edgy jokes. If it's too far just apologies and they will forgive. Race, JQ, and niggers are out of the question most the time. Boomers have so many proxy terms for niggers it's like they have a mouth full of kibble. Just bounce between them. If you're going for the word record for most massages out of workman comp it's better to leave all the jokes aside and speak with your actions.

LARPing will help with customers. One of my favorite thing to do is talk about how the black pipe is for waste and the white pipe is for supply. The black pipe can't handle pressure. The black pipe when burned gives off toxic gases and is banned in CA. The white pipe I sell this all the time for random projects, people just like the aesthetics of it more than the black pipe.

So the lot team needed me. During my six months period at this place I saw three teams of six to eight men replaced every two month due to back pain. Wave after wave I tried to talk to them. Each wave I got more... unrestrained. By the third wave I straight told one. He was about to call me when his auntie had some kind of medical emergency. He was too busy dealing with that to call me. His back is now fucked up beyond all repair. One of the second wave guys actually built up the courage to yell at his lead. Finally someone with some balls, however, he barked up the wrong tree. The cashier group leader NPC was the proxy for these men. NPCS who can't lift 20lbs bags over seeing NPCs moving 90lbs bags. One night all eight of the men called out or were off and unable to come in. The cashier NPC lead had to help load some ham planet. One 50 lbs bag of concrete and the NPC messed up her back. She got pregnant from her boyfriend the next week and since she was prego she could use that as an excuse not to lift. None of the other cashier NPCS would do the job, they stood by talking to each other while paging for a man to come. The NPC cashier group leader didn't get workman comp for whatever reason. Yet I picked up and saw enough to see that she got permanent disability. Maybe she was bad to keep around for the moral? One of the lot NPC yelled at her that she had no right to say how fast things should get don, not being able to do them her self. Maybe she played a dumb bitch too far. Maybe to get permanent disability you need to grind 24 men's spine into nothing. Maybe it's because she hobbled around crying and weeping. It's probably a question of that she was bad moral for the team. I applied to the position 100% held by women and was passed on it. My sells line was no one would get injured under me. Some post wall 40 year old NPC got the position. This NPC didn't even try to lift. She'd page every thirty seconds. She'd go find people and tell them to go lift while she did whatever for them.

Flier the town with variations of my fliers. Imagine if every home improvement store, every farm store, every store with items above 50lbs essentially became a pitty struggle fest vs those who have the guts to claim workman comp. Hell even offices that have staplers could claim workman comp. Those who refuse to opt for workman comp will get wrecked in a mighty short order. While those going through workman comp will only get one solid physical labor month of work out of them every 15 weeks.

Liberalism is the little pimping sister of Marxism. Liberalism offers a shield by telling it's follows to saying: no, everything you say is wrong, I don't talk with Nazis, Everyone who disagrees with me is a Nazi, you're mind is poisonous and you're why society is sick.

Then it offers a sword: anyone who disagrees with group think thoughts, of course approved by the jews, is not human and should be killed, has no rights, is justice to commit violence against, is just to rape their kids.

While working in the feed store some organic chicken farmer, when she could afford it, I tell that old crazy cat lady dog lover everything is genetically modified. She got mad and said I was wrong because she was an organic farmer. I know someone who's the president of the master Gardner society, a nation wide non-profit, who tells me the second a human interferes in any way the thing is genetically modified and that's the definition. Instead of changing the definitions of words to fit a political narrative, maybe one should search other languages for words that fit – this would obviously be racist since I bet there would be a bias for German words. Perhaps she was right for niggers instead of genetically modify themselves they stayed sitting in the sun not doing nuffin for hundreds of thousands of years. If the b-ble would of described the size of fruit or the spacing of tomoatoes it would have been it's down fall. Untouched by man, grew dime sized tomatoes for about ever ten feet of green vegetation and over time of hand picking the best tomatoes they got decent sized ones, and plenty, in a small amount of vegetation. Most DNA is related to the brain and most DNA is junk. Those with 2% neanderthal DNA almost exclusively invited everything we admire.

In the b-ble it says to love someone is to give them room to grow. The masses of christ-powerball is shit skins who invad White nations, leaving no place for Whites to grow. That is why one reason why I call them christ-lies and claim the purpose of christ-insanity is white genocide after observing cause and affect. 1 in 100 niggers know without the White man to leach off they'd be back to living in mud huts and eating each other again in two years. Niggers and many other shit skins are dead set on White genocide.

I hope to get out my texts that a nation wide revolution comes through workman comp: mass shut downs of stores or hoards of NPCS unable to due their duties and the nation starts a contest who can get the most massages.

I was the first person in Hawaii to apply to a 14/88 group. The website had a list of 88 organizations. I read the names opened a handful. It was down to a few. Two stood out. TWP and Vanguard America. I was interviewed over jew owned and spy program known as discord. I was barely let in. They had me free style to make the final choice – mostly I just talked shit about my co-workers and got some to laugh. Later after joining someone messaged me. I was kicked out not before someone send me three PDFs. 200 years together, Mein Kampf and White Power. It was obvious that me being the only person in Hawaii wasn't going to work and if I was going to join I needed to be in person.

I started with White Power. Rockwell said any White person who reads that will change over two months. I struggled through the first couple chapters but after two chapters I couldn't put the book down. The first two chapters I seemingly overcame any and all bias embedded into me from the (((system))). While walking to the store and back I had wild almost like conversations between my gut and brain. How do I get away with link White Sharia links to White women on dating apps? I remind them to listen to their gut and that it took hundreds of thousands of years of listening to it to survive the harshes environment of the ice and it's the closest thing we'll get to speaking to god. They agree and send a message about this or that and I remind them if we were actually speaking face to face, i'd be speaking to their blood, not through a screen.

Memorizing passages from SIEGE or The Words of Hitler really gets people to agree with you or really shuts them down.

Thank you for the PDFS. I have now passed out some grade A content to White people on vacation in Hawaii. As PDF's were shared with me, I share PDF's. Monero address is attached later. I just wanted to say I am a dreamer: I dream of hiring a ghost writier.

Hilo is a very rainy city. Maui, Kona and Honolulu all have so much more traffic. My local republican party send me to Honolulu for Leadership Institute training classes two day events for $30 in Honolulu. I was the sharpest person in the class. I was the only know that knew what frame was in the class and I explained it better than the teacher and explained it in a way that had the colored idiot saying he understood. The Southern Gentleman/volunteer later tells me I could be the next ben-jew-commie. I respond I hate ben and everything he's ever said is stupid. The Southern man was shocked and told me I had to meet a recruiter. It was some large nigger about 24 that helped some state youth go for trump in a swing state. I walk up to him and say sup bigs but it actually came out sup nigs. Unless you met me you'd know I have a very different accent. While at these training events there's groups of girls of Light on vacation going in and out of hotels doing whatever. While in the checkout line, I got checked out. I was in shocked I never saw a group of all Light girls, especially ones from Europe. Seemingly these youth groups hold yearly conferences in Honolulu. I hope to go from passing out books in Hilo to passing out books in Honolulu. $300 a night is no cheap price tag. If a conference runs for a week, there's conferences for all of summer. Then that's the price of radically catching parts of Europe up.

Some one who is above average being fit, can introduce themselves in a doze different languages, can carry a brief case carrying a dozens of the same book in a dozen different languages passing out books to groups of White girls on vacation for some meeting from Europe. We'll call them meme harbingers.

Honolulu and Hilo are both still busy. So many people of Light go on vacation all the time all year.

There's so many vacation spots in Hawaii. How do I multiple myself? Where do I get men? How fast can I multiply myself?

This would be a great way to promote a mixtape too.

Ideally I'd like to get two full time men in every city in Hawaii or at least the vacation spots. Kinda like how the Mormons do it but talk to White people on vacation.

A new printer is needed, no more low quality memes. One to print more professional looking photo post cards. See appendix 8. Ideally I can put female volunteers to work hand writing some of the content. No low quality memes.

Speaking about memes can we meme shit-libs devolving language to fit their bias? Didn't the (((church))) force words to change their definition in Rome? Doesn't that make (((shit-libs))) the neo-rome-church?

The goal is to flood so many people of Light looking for local memberships, moving for memberships, starting their own groups, acting solo or in small groups. I'm sure groups will grow and evolve – they just need a frame work to work with. I aim to have so many people of Light applying to the cults I follow that their gut tells them about me. Just like how Odin found Loki, I hope they hunt me down and stamp a tattoo on me claiming me for their tribe. What a story for your first tattoo.

My gab.ai is lvl99loki

I went from looking 35 to looking 22 in less than six months. These hulking traps and legs still stay with me. I trained with a bag of feed. See appendix 9.

In short I would stand over a 50lbs bag and clean and jerk it into a bed of a truck – 10 to 12 at a time. I would take a bag of feed and take it all the way down to up in front of my face. A bag of feed is very flexible. Other times I would just stand and do deadlifts with the bag between my legs. I would swim everyday after work. A TENS unit is great, just know how to use it. Incline chest I would do incline flies with 15lbs with each set followed by a burn out of 7lbs, 5lbs, 3lbs, then just bars without weights until I couldn't any more.

I need to start keeping a journal again. I kept one while working at that feed store and tracked my progress for fresh out of the ward schizophrenic after a catastrophic break down to farm supply store, workman comp, HCRC, then home improvement job.

In Hawaii I tell myself things are amplified here. Many old people who wrecked themselves at some job moved here because it's hot so it's easy on their joints or aches and two there's like 2% nigger population. The volcano has been taking out lots recently and i've seen a lot of niggers seem to move in while this happens.

Most people are unable to tell the difference between TV and reality. They think niggers are their baby who needs to be protected – via thoughts in-grained in them while mindlessly consuming TV.

This time I will write about the christian dying of aids. This now cuck-serative smells so bad. I keep my food budget so low by playing on his christ-lie feelings. Tonights meal was some kind of red sauce, tons of red pepper and squid over noodles. Thankfully while picking up some office equipment for my personal life I bought some canned roast beef. Listening to my gut never does me wrong.

Christ-lies and cuck-seratives will be a good part of my mix tape, attacking their status. There's some 40 year old dude who wants conflict and always acting like some shitty cartoon from decades ago. He was watching cartoons decades ago. When I'm his age I'll have been listening to violent rap. The more I talk about these two the less justice I do to how awful people they are. The cuck-serative had a black step dad who beat him while growing up in CA. This cuck-serative has a half mexican daughter.

I might teach White kids how to swim. I was at the pool and there's this butter golem in a full body scuba suit, hat, and huge glasses. Then there's the Ms. Yoga pants say Gym but body says KFC. Yeah, I'm going to be coaching White kids how to swim and indoctrinating them.

Obviously the age of consent is so high so one white kids have longer chances of mixing races in school, more brain washing time and any nigger / White couple would obviously be the worst thing attack on interracial couples image. What a White girl would say later? It would be a complete media black out – and this is nothing new. No white girl would ever go near a nigger after hearing these horror stories – White Sharia rap – hence why Jews control the media and are dead set on this multi-cult for White nations.

That christ-lie faggot dying of aids? What is the subconscious psychology affect of sucking black dick decades later besides just dying of aids? Denying AIDS leads to HIV leads to POZ? Can it get worse? It would seem your taste and cooking goes to shit over decades. That squid smell is brutal he decided to heat it back up for a late lunch today. I'm gagging in my room. I have to keep my door open and some white boards to prevent mice and rats from coming into my room because the air flow is such a shitty designed room. Squid that's been sitting out all night for lunch? Sounds like he sucked nigger dick 40 years ago and wishes he could repent from AIDS by being a christ-insanity. Absolutely disgusting.

Synergy

So the christ-lie is passed out on the couch. Dude took six 5mg pain meds. His mother was coming over today to pick up the left over squid. She came around six am to go to the market. I have no clue how this dude got back on the couch but she left him. That squid shit is boiling and just making the non-30mg oxy doped up people gag. So the cuck-serative throws it out side about 50' away from the house where the pigs usually come and get stuff at night. The christ-lies mother comes back around 2pm. She's a tie dye witch liberal type – yet still a proud Christ-lie. I'm trying to get some fresh air since I've been working in my room all day. On the way out I say ay anon I got your butt plug. The bitch seemingly left a huge goard or whatever it's called on the table. It was surrounded by some beads and some other stupid shit. I see the shit-lib sitting out side in her tie dye shirt waiting outside thinking that she can will her son to wake up from his 50mg oxy nap, he apparently took more after his mom gave up that morning, on the couch watching tv. Anon goes that's hawaiian dog. I say hell no that's some nigger shit and go back to my room. I go back out twenty minutes later to find the nigger shit butt plug off the table. Anon and I are laughing outside in the back. I tell him we need to get a shovel and put some dirt on that squid cause I can still get a smell of it from here. We walk around to house to see the bitch still in the car hearing us laugh. Anon grabs a snow shovel – in Hawaii because that makes sense. We start to head towards that pile of squid outside and my gut goes hell no i'm not going near this but it was too late. I got enough of a gust of wind it that I went running off gagging. I made it to the bathroom and dry heaved for a minute. I threw up a little bit. I brushed my teeth and thought it was over. Then I thought... Think about those interracial porn scenes and how disgusting they were. I gagged and threw up more than just the dead squid smell.

Link that disgust together. I thought I reprogrammed my brain and was in the clear. I type this as I dry heave knowing I have nothing else to throw up.

How do you undo a life time of being told and promoted interracial porn? Buy some squid from the asian man market that's on discount, boil it for a five hours with red sauce and lots of peppers. Then leave it out all night. Then reeeeeeeeeeee-heat it in the morning for about five hours. Then throw it outside in the blazing heat and let it sit for a few hours. Then go smell it thinking of all those interracial pron scenes. Walk away if you can't stop gagging, but then keep thinking of the smell and those race traitors in those scenes and work up the worst headache in your life. Work it up as hard and as long as you can until you can't maintain the headache. Then go back and smell the squid again and stay their thinking more about those scenes, always trying to get your headache worse and worse.

I just got a sniff of that rotten squid and thought about that checker board thot or race traitors cunt of what it'll smell like the next morning after being with a nigger.

The next day I bike around town and I work up one of the worst headaches I had in my life thinking about the smell and interracial scenes. Weeks later, editing this, the thought makes me feel ill and almost gag up my breakfast.

More people of Light should reprogram their brain like this. It should become a contest. So that every time they see a White and nigger couple in public or a white women acting nice to a nigger they get triggered and throw up in public. Imagine if a nigger put his hands around a white women or some shit and twenty people threw up. Imagine if the silent majority did this... imagine if a few cashiers and a few people in line threw up after seeing an interracial couple. Talk about tactically nuking that race traitor. What would the employers do? What would every one say do? Will you become the towns dude who throws up at the sight of interracial couples?

Are you willing to be pro-White? One way to do that is by programming you brain with above method.

My head hurts in the areas that that alt-hype interracial videos showed. Every time I calm down and stop gagging I think about the smell and interracial porn and start dry heaving again. Brain is throbbing. In short, link stuff together and get those chemical reactions in your brain to work in your favor.

All In

Cultural appropriation to fight Cultural Marxism.

Sex is a very powerful motivator. Niggers seeming picked up the De Sade way of doing things of fantasizing about using White women how ever they want while making rap beats. How many White females opt for this? Lets give them an alternative to go all in with.

There's so much data, science, studies done about sex and the brain. There's been much done about how porn is bad for the brains. Are we going to shame each other and cry about this? Lets give men an end to work towards, a beautiful end.

Back to that 15 White people in a one bedroom apartment in a big city? Lets put a White whore in each decent sized city. Prostitution is probably illegal in most states and that's not what I'm getting at. No gifts, no money, etc. White men in the city will meet with a member from the one bed room apartment, now called White Sharia Trap House WSTH, at a different location. Maybe the White man is going to college, maybe he's making a lot of money, maybe he needs a path to redemption, maybe he needs motivation to lift more, maybe he's just tied of cultural Marxism.

Sex is a very powerful motivator. Sex with a women spikes his testosterone for the first few times with the female.

The White Sharia Whores, WSW, goal is to exploit sex as a motivator. White girls in college can and have fucked five men in the same night, seemingly every the whole weekend, every weekend. Five men a day, seven days a week, that's 35 White men who, after passing the vetting process, now have weekly homework assignments.

Maybe the White man is taking computer science classes and talks for an hour with WSTH while mapping out an app for this or that. Maybe another WSTH wants to start a business with some LED lights and needs someone to program an app.

Word is going to spread.

WSTH networks now have access to a slew of skills, talents, etc.

Undermine the porn industry.

Undermine strip clubs.

Undermine bars and clubs.

Recruit from raves.

Undermine hip-hop and rap concerts.

Undermine TV and movies.

Imagine if someone wrote an app that monitored your TV in the sense it just knows if the TV is on and logs the hours of the TV being on. Some people are glued to TVs and movies – lets fix that.

The vetting process? I would start with a one month vetting process, long hang outs, long talks, switch WSTH members to talk, sit down and review social media profiles together, STD test, review the phone, pull phone logs, pull whatever.

Cause and affect.

“... In the long run a sound mind can only dwell in a sound body” 11:2 -Hitler

That DYEL White cuck can put his arm on WSW waist line while she whispers to him that she'd be so excited to see him take off his shirt when he lost fat and gained muscle. Then a White Sharia Trap Chief, WSTC, will give a PDF listing resources of how to get fit. Is it legal to promote torrents? Is it legal to change the video by applying a filter and distorting the muscle so DVDs / flash drives be given out?

Maybe the WSTH has a member who wants to be a personal trainer and start a business out of it.

Maybe a WSH wants to start a yoga class, gymnastic class, yoga channel, gymnastic channel, pole dancing class, pole dancing channel, etc.

Imagine if a WSTH cucked all of Seattle.

Imagine hip-hop concerts, bars, clubs, strip clubs, porn industry, TV and movies were out of White females.

WSTH should promote that what they offer is fame – that only they are cool – that only they have power.

If we can't make porn illegal, we'll cuck a whole city and in a short time we'll recruit all the to be models, to be race mixers, to be sell outs, to be race traitors.

A WSTH should have a member decided to keeping up to date with federal laws, state laws, city laws, neighborhood laws, etc.

Remember it's just White Sharia Whores fucking White men who just happen to have establish a friendship with the White Sharia Trap Chiefs.

Sex and porn are used against Whites.

“.. Terror can only be broken by terror” 11:7 – Hitler

White Sharia will fight back with sex, word will spread in the city and the anti-Whites will be reminded on a daily biases that their men are being cucked in front of them.

Exploit the brain, exploit the motivation, exploit high testosterone, exploit results, exploit whatever legally and with due process to smash Cultural Marxism in the video game Roblox.

Rune-Go

Cultural appropriation to instill values in people without them being conscious about it.

When the Chines invented the compass they didn't leave China with it. Japan invented Poke-mon go and isn't using it for anything. Pokmon is the story of some White guy being followed around by a rat for his whole life. Political technology is neutral IE both parties can show up to Internet Blood Sports. Poke-mon Go has a decent frame work. It's time for evolution inside a fixed frame work.

I'm going to start a goy-fund me to raise money to start this app. There's also a monero address. Seek my gab.ai/lv199loki

Rune-Go

I originally wanted to have two different skins to choose from Nordic and meme versions. I quickly sensed that the meme one would get kicked off the app store and that Europe would ban and make it illegal.

Rune-Go will teach people runes. It will instill values and teach Nordic myth, history, racial world view to it's players.

Within six months of my mom and step dad playing poke-mon go they've learned hundreds of Pokmon names, attacks, types, and the frame work the game offers.

Take this framework and evolve it to teach runes, Nordic myth, and history through a racial point of view.

$10k of benefits story

I moved to Hawaii around three years ago. My mother had back surgery and my step dad had a heart attack in the same year. I was black pilled from driving for Uber in Seattle. I came to Hawaii to shovel mulch. Thinking of memes + caffeine pills landed me a job part time. I was picking up ten 50lbs bags of duck feed one day when I dropped off a resume at one of the local feed stores. Shortly after I started moving 50lbs bags of feed about 40 hours a week.

After about seven months I tell my manager something along the lines of 'I was lifting something and now there's a pain in my back going from my hip, back, spine and neck. My pain is a 9.' I write up a report and keep it simple. I talked to a women on the phone and told her the same thing I just wrote down. I talked to another women on the phone and was to be sent to a preferred location. The preferred location seemingly didn't have a chiropractor and I was prescribed pain meds. I went to the hospital which also seemingly didn't have a chiropractor and was prescribed pain meds and was suggested to try some stretches. I then remembered the chiropractor ads on the shopping carts at the local grocery store.

I seemingly had 48 hours to get care. There's lots of deadlines. Luckily I showed up on a day that the Dr / Chiropractor was in. Why the insurance company sent me to a preferred location that didn't have a chiropractor in response to a worker comp hip, neck, back, shoulder and spine injury seems silly. I relaid and wrote the same message of something like 'I was lifting something and now there's a pain in my back going from my hip, back, spine and neck. My pain is a 9.' I relaid the same story to a nurse case manager. While talking to my nurse case manager she asked me what I felt and I told her I felt I should follow the Dr / Chiropractor care instructions. I told them my insurance company didn't give me any paper work on numbers and they told me they take workmen comp and they will figure it out.

I was to be given 15 chiropractor and 20 massages with a lifting restriction. After about seven weeks my pain was only about a 5/6. The Dr wrote me a prescription for another 15/20. Although my pain only went down to 3. I was given a clean bill of health. I asked the Dr what his chiropractor rates are usually and I thought to myself, 'wow I just got 10k of benefits in 14 weeks.'

State House Rep Candidate (R) Hawaii District 2 Hawaii Civil Rights Commission Story

Around the same time as me getting $10k of benefits out of the system I applied to transfer job duties from warehouse duties to cashier duties under the same job title, Team Member. My location hired another women making it 100% women who held cashier duties. I documented me applying to the position since I've never seen a man hired for cashier duties.

There's a lot I could of put in my civil rights case but I solely focused like a laser on one point that I believe I was discriminated solely based on sex citing that my boss saying that it would cause havoc. Shortly after having a case worker assigned to my case I cited my religion for having a preference for having a man on my case. During the intake interview he said something like 'this could open the flood gates.' I call back in a week to learn that said guy got offered a new job, that there wasn't enough time to wait for another man to be assigned to my case since there's a deadline.

Despite not watching TV in years and never liking sports. I went off like a NFL coach on the big screen. Seemingly the response from my 'money fixes everything' boss changed. She gave me a reason, and I quoted Hawaii State law from the part about discrimination. She said something like my boss said he didn't and I said 12-46-102 that pretty much says the burden of proving it relies on the employer. I felt I had a solid case since all the men's names are clumped together and spaced out from the female names on the weekly schedule, since there's daily check list for both job duties, and I told them to review the evidence. A manager told me they could find no cause. I replied to send it to the person above them and they also said there's no cause.

What qualifies me for running for office?

From workmen comp to filing with the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission I went up against about ten people with decades of training and experience and got $10k of benefits out of the system as a straight white male.

I'm pro-white yet I think we can all agree that companies grinding young men's spine into nothing and replacing them like clockwork is a poor choice. These globalist have all the data. A decade ago my mother wrecked her back to put food on the table for me at some dead end job. A decade later ____ are handing out pain meds like candy.

State House Rep Candidate (R) Hawaii District 2 The Jew who thought 1% of it's paycheck was too much.

My understanding is unless the mother is ethnically Jewish than the offspring cannot immigrate to Israel. Israel is an ethno-state: They DNA test everyone who wants to even visit. In the US it used to be illegal for a dual citizen to hold office here, but the Jews changed that. Despite 90% of Americans not trusting the media.... how many of their heads are echo chambers for Jewish lies? 90% of the communist spies were ethnically Jewish. Jews promote race mixing for non-Jews. Did you know in Soviet (Jewish) Russia the Jews banned marriage? Did you know the Soviet Jewish state passed out tokens to their goons to 'have their way' with wives and Christian women whose family had a history of monogamy where highly targeted? I forget if it's 120 or 240 countries that have kicked out Jew in the past 2000 years. No one wanted to raise all those mixed bastard kids. Plus STD's were on the rise, gross. The Russian Revolution high government was made up of about 85% ethnic Jewish people. About 30 million Soviets were starved to death. Why should Hawaii learn about Jews when there are so many fires?

Spending 10 hours to put out one fire when the fire started can start another in 30 is mad. The big island imports about 90% of the food. Brazil truckers went on strike and it's havoc. How many shipment delays is the Hawaii away from havoc?

This kike cashier for some reason feels compelled to tell me how it's undermining the host nation. Despite having a full time job for about five years and despite the company offering medical for 1% of it's pay check, the kike thought 1% of it's paycheck was too much and opted for Obummer care. This poor excuse for a mother was or is on the local city council board. Make no mistake: Jews have their moral standards and they then change the goy moral standards to fit their Jewish needs.

90% of Americans hate the Jewish lying media. Honestly fake news is nothing new. Mein Kampf is the best seller in Iran right now because Israeli snipers take pride using one bullet to take out two (a pregnant mother). You dumb shit Christians that love the bible I got this to say to you: If you love the critique of Jewish supremacist so much why don't you listen to critique of Jewish supremacist by a non-ethnic Jew? Every time you watch a movie these Jews catalog thousands of your emotions then feed you the morals they choose for you via social media. That's why it's called a social feed, goy.

56 % face goy cashier to US veteran.

About 15 employees with like 12 with the same job title. About half are assigned to cashier duties and are all just happen to be females, equality. Then there's one general manager and one warehouse manager. Then there's a receiver who usually uses the fork lift. So there's about five guys. One of them is a lead and spends most the day talking to the manager about some shitty Jew produced TV show decades old. I, someone on the right who's not a conservative, understands the hatred for the white man in Hawaii, for I too hate white liberal men. Like Japan, China and Russia I am race realist. This leaflet is why I'm cannot believe any longer in the Jewish made up ideology of conservatives. Capitalism was made up by Jews to destroy Rome. I'll get into these salve based religions like Christianity later, till then seek my campaign literature of how I got 40 massages and 30 chiropractor out of workmen comp. So there's about four guys who do hard physical labor between 8am to about 6pm.

So I'm going through the workmen comp system with a healthy distrust for any blue or short haired women. Workmen comp came about in the US around 1855. Dates are important. The Jews passed the hart -cellar act of 1965 opening the US to everyone on the world. My healthy distrust in the system rewarded me with the care I needed. Whereas I've heard full a grown cuck, six kids not of his own, cry out their meth head emotions from a mouth with baby sized teeth to their greedy hooked noose boss about how it's unfair the Trump supporter got care and he, the zombie masses of the shit lib party status quo, didn't. Next time goy, check the size nose.

Mr. "I can't feel anything in my left arm" vet and I get to close with each other. Despite me having lifting restrictions. After I finish workmen comp I tell him, just don't respond to the cashier calls. I'll get em'. This shit lib hated me from the start but after seeing how I treated him compared to the other shit lib co-workers, he shared food with me. One of the butter golem cashiers tells me to check the male bathroom because it sinks and it thinks the vet is dead. This anti-white cries out weeks later "why won't he leave or just die!" What is she smoking? Why did it take her six months to find out she was pregnant? Why are is meth head masochism death cult allowed influence policy for those who do no consent... Just think about what they would do the kids! Did you know in the Jewish encyclopedia it says that sexually abusing and torturing non-Jewish female past the age of three is not a sin?

No, you're a single mother.

No, I don't want to raise your kids.

No, I don't want your purple hair.

No, I don't want your dozen of STDS.

She's looking for some IG fame, letting chads run trains while on her stanky, thank god for perfume.

She's showing off her ass and thighs, boosting her self esteem, using her pussy to get money.

If you got a dozen dudes in your phone who buy you lunch, Yes I'm talking to you.

If you got a choker necklace, yes I'm talking to you.

If you fuck people while not in love, Yes I'm talking to you.

Using your pussy to get money, Yes I'm talking to you.

You should make some better decisions and scrap the ash from those Jewish values.

Your shit is my business when you live on the system spreading your gonorrhea.

Thot in the 30's who's only interaction with her kids is face time five minutes a day while working as a cashier having a red bull and shrimp chips for lunch. I'm sure she's used to lines of 30 second transactions with random niggas expect she's not totally dopped up. How low that seed has sunken. State House Rep Candidate (R) Hawaii District 2 Your future was robbed.

Tor, the deep web browser, sent out a tweet saying they don't welcome the 'dailystormer.name' URL. The deep web is also known as the dark web, a place known for buying designer drugs, viewing child porn, hiring hit men, buying guns, or watching snuff videos etc. 100% of the media is owned by Jews and they want a control over the narrative. The ONLY non-Jewish ran media got bullied off the internet. Godaddy, the company who caved like the weak sissy cuck, is now being served with 7,000 other sites that the ADL and SPLC want removed.

The Daily Stormer is the first website in history to be removed from the internet for reporting the news with a non-Jewish spin. If you think you have freedom of speech on social media instead of saying you hate niggers talk about Jewish power because ZOG will shut you down. Remember Jews move the goal post for goy morals and ethics constantly. Every movie you've watched ZOG has collected thousands of emotional reactions from the herd. Every social media feed you've looked at with your phone has helped trailer your social media feed. Jews have their morals and ethics and they constantly move the goal post for the goy morals and values.

Christians are forced to bake a cake for a POZ party. A POZ party is where HIV/AIDS infested men have sex with each other while trying to breed a super potent strain of AIDS to take over the world. Sometimes young men who feel society rejects them find a welcoming group and these POZ parties throw a 'gift giving' event where 200 POZ men in a dungeon run a train. Talk about going all in and positive vibes only. Read the Culture of Critique before hating the white man! Jews hide with the white man in statistics when it suits them.

Marks, an ethnic Jew, in the communist manifesto said fags, dykes, niggers and race mixers will be fucking useless in the revolution to come. Niggers still live in mud huts, but make no mistake they like the Jew will enslave you and rape your kids. Niggers are tweeting out that they want to enslave white women to clean their house, rape daily and make her eat it's shit: "Cultural enrichment." Honestly the J-left cannot compete with ideas and facts and that's why they want to shut down freedom of speech. Why do niggers tweet this? Remember the AVERAGE IQ is like 60. Jews openly say they will be the leading role in this multi-cultural experiment. Open borders for the goy and closed borders for the Jew. The west is dead... We're a generation of revenge.

Jews have been kicked out of like 600 nations throughout recorded history.

State House Rep Candidate (R) Hawaii District 2 Shit skin rapes girls and cucks jerk to it.

Do you know what's going on in Europe? 6 year old girls are getting gang raped by shit skins, and then they use a slur in the court and get a longer sentence than the gang of rapist. Nihilism is the rejection of universal morals and ethics. These shit skins are walking out of courts after the judge rules 'that's just their culture.'

Anytime you see a hippie looking white women ask her if she's tolerant. If she says yes tell her that she'd look cute in a hijab and that any sons she has you bet the Doctor will do a great fucking job turning the boy into a girl. That her son doesn't need his balls and they'll chop off his dick and dig a hole into his crotch. These tolerant white women think offering love will win. Let those who want to die die. Let those who want to live live. Let those who want their bloodlines to become sex slaves for eternity let them. The world would be a better place.

No one in Hawaii likes diversity. If they did they would move out of the highest cost of living state in the nation and move to some ghetto on the mainland.

Hawaii is getting less and less hand picked shit skins.

I've talked to the cuck-seratives in Hawaii. They seemingly think that God will come down and save the white race so they go about like a good goy on a 3000 year old platform. I too hate self hating whites. If you betray you're race your disqualified. White women and black man couples are like 3000x more likely to have a divorce. Does that count all couples who never get to married due to domestic violence? Niggers are open about it in their music, they will beat you if they can't pimp you out, then you hit the wall due to drugs or age and niggers say can't turn a hoe into a house wife, then pick up a new thot with a bag of dope. Maybe we should do what Israel does and take away women rights and make them not able to divorce their husband unless the women can prove abuse. Of course when you live in a police state they just laugh and turn off the camera.

I want nothing to do with other races while Jews and Niggers want to enslave and rape your kids. 70 years later and niggers are calling for segregated areas. The SPLC and the ADL are fighting. The left is eating it self alive while the cuck-seratives jerk off to their kids getting gang raped in the night and refuse to stand up in fear of being called a racist. Hi, I have balls, they are white and my name is on the ballot. Funny story how I got here you might ask. Read SIEGE.

What father of Japanese, European or Hawaiian will encourage his beautiful and accomplished daughter to marry a nigger? Would he enthusiastically give her away into marriage? Why is equality only speechified and never seen. If he is of sound mind let him speak. Then and only then can this diabolic thing called equality be reconsidered. Any debate will be removed from the internet by ZOG, for he is not sound minded and that's why his wife pegs him and has his chastity seated so deep.

Why it ask. Why should I give it a reason, for if there is a fact, cause or story in the world it's head with act as a black hole. It refuse to root up laws, ethics, morals, stories, facts and causes of long since rotten corpses, and in fact saying it locked it self in a mental prison is an understatement.

Vile indeed are those who preach equality. Most of our ancestors would glory naked in the sun and wind yet today thots, the lowest sunken seed, are growing out their bush to cover their herpes.

A mans opportunities are never exhausted long as there's other people, of not his friend, who have millions of acres or piles of gold. Here then is an opportunities on a collusive scale. Seize the opportunities, all else is error. How fast an aristocracy based on merit would mow down a aristocracy based on credit. He who claims equality with another is ever called upon to prove his claim not by a rotten phrases parroted from moldy documents but by actual deeds. Business minds thoroughly understand and have learned from bitter experience that some men are destine by nature to bare command and some to obey. Even before a thousand years before their birth. Some call them brothers but fear nothing more than living in a ghetto. Shit lib white women from Cali go to Africa to be raped all night. One claims to be a scholar of Malcolm-X and apologized to the nigger while being rapped all night long. They come back with aids and infest the dim witted cucked soy boys who are enthralled by at least being kissed once by death. White south Africans are being thrown into boiling pots of water, elder women are having the bottom of their feet lit on fire repeatedly, and any beautiful white female is being fucking massacred. The Hawaii Republican Party in their public agenda tells that will be a refuge for those in need of it across the world yet turn a blind eye to white South Africans while taking the Nigger into their bosom. 60 years of liberal politics in Hawaii has done enough damage, ditch it before Niggers take full advance of the lube that is know as tolerance. Equality, 3000 years and never proven once. Abe Lincoln wanted to send the blacks back to Africa and FDR wanted to keep the Jews out. The saddest words of tongue and pen are what might have been.

Has it ever occurred to them that niggers love raping and this safe space and the drugs funded by the tax payer hurts nigger?

Jay-Lazy-Pitbull-Z told his story about selling dope in NYC, and now shit libs are giving dope away in Seattle and LA? Dems are the real racist.

Honestly, I grew up in Tacombon or 30 minute south of Seattle. Rent was like $300 a month whereas rent, no utilities, is like $1200 in Seattle. I'm starting to think the term Feeling the Burn came into being by a Jewish mind for gas lighting people about STDs: Shit libs are feeling a burning sensation be in herpes or hepatitis or the fuck flue (POZ) and the Jews are doing their usually Jewish tricks in diverting the blame on another group.

Race-Mixing is financed and led by the Jews. 90% of convicted communist traitors & spies have been racial Jews. It used to be illegal for a dual citizen to hold a high government position, but the Jews changed that. Your morals and ethics have been programmed to you by ZOG controlled social media and cameras. A few generations have been programmed. Jews have psychoanalyzed you and know how to change your morals and ethics. Jews are constantly moving the goal post for the final touch down.

I choose to discipline myself to fight an enemy who wants to enslave me and rape my children. Unlike nigger slaves who were castrated with rocks, white slaves were breed together to have white off spring. The word slave has at it's root slav or the ethnic people of Russia. Jews will gaslight you about me wanting to take away your freedom yet wishes it could ban Mein Kampf without bringing too much attention to the book, So the authors of the bible and the makers of fake news claim Mein Kampf will bore you to death. Such wow how the goy are conditioned into only thinking that the only critique of Jewish power can come from an ethnic Jew from thousands of years ago while allowing an ever changing, morphing, ever more brutal and relentless critique of their own races culture.

State House Rep Candidate (R) Hawaii District 2 Motherland or prostitute?

If any race can buy land in your races homeland / nation / state, etc it's not a home land. Your races motherland is now a prostitute. I mean the terrorist nation known as Israel was founded on ethnic cleansing. Jews are crying out that Israel only being 75% Ethnically Jewish genocide and that non-ethnic Jews need to be removed by force. What % Hawaiian is Hawaii? Don't be anti-semitism now goy.

Did you know Israel will pay it's citizens to hunt down Niggers and remove them from Israel by force? People who live in the US like to point out how big the military budget is. Did you know the amount of welfare to wet backs and niggers is about the same as the military budget? The yellow and white man pay for health care while niggers sit on welfare. Did you know the amount of aid sent to Israel each year is about the same as the military budget? Mean while Hawaiians move out of Hawaii due to costs.

Dual citizens from Israel vote for wars to send the best men into war. It's healthy for a man to want to fight for his nation. Did you know that Jews were notified on 9-11 not to show up to work that day? Did you know the patriot act, implemented after 9-11, was written in Israel? Did you know every computer chip made past the late 70's ports to Israel? Did you know when Russia found out that Israel could shut down Russian power plants with flip of a button Russians went back to analog? Did you know Russians are seemingly the only ones with digital equipment that doesn't port to Israel?

Do they know that America was originally meant only for white European immigrants of good character? That only white land owning men could vote? Some of these neo-cuck-seratives, search Murdoch Murdoch on cheekyvideos.net to find who, openly say that they don't care how brown America gets long as the Constitution stays in tact, yet turn around and say that Israel being 75% Jewish is genocide and that force needs to be used to remove the non-ethnic Jew.

Do you care how non-ethnic Japanese Japan gets long as 'people' still fly the flag?
Do you care how non-ethnic Hawaiian Hawaii gets long as 'people' still say Aloha?
Africa and Israel are ethno-states who have their aggression first policy, violence before questions. Whereas the goys are taking a nap, non-aggressive policy. J-D chosen people say that the Goyim were born only to serve the Jew. Without that, they have no place in the world. These rabbi's openly say that stuff like this. Rabbi's be saying that when the next Jewish Mashia comes that every Jew will have 40,000 slaves. Just pick up a Israel news paper. The Jew is open about this like the book World Jerwly.

Non-Hawaiians mock Hawaiian's for working so slow compared to the mainland. It's lot like the EU yelling at Italy to work faster. Italy yells back 'hey, who you think you're talking too.' Italy didn't have a taste of Fascism but they wrote one of the books on it. Italy has been denied that economic system ever since. Ever since then Italy has thrown out dozen of different types of governments but the Jewish economic system has stayed the same. In Italy one girl was attacked and they rioted and partially overthrew their government. People from around the world call them fat, stupid, lazy but in reality they don't put up with their women being attacked yet alone going missing, being raped, etc. Does a non-Hawaiian being born in Hawaii make them Hawaiian? Does a non-Sweden who moves to Sweden make them Sweden? Is someone Japanese when they get a piece of paper from the Japanese government? Does me getting invited to a Muslim titty bar make me Muslim? You jealous?

Why did the life long Mormon white man go full blood and soil over his Christian identity? I gotta thumbs up these local females because this to-be-race mixing weak flamboyant cuck has jerked it so much that by h is mid twenties he developed a serious wrist injury. This planet is dying. Nothing on this Earth stays sick for more than a couple months. Something is killing this planet. Does that something have a name? Does that something have an address? Calm down, I'm just saying they might need a Pit bull emotional support animal.

Do Hawaiians care if they are genocided long as the people who live on the Hawaiian's after them hold the value of the Aloha spirit. Ask me if I care about the constitution more than my people, the authors.

Why can't my people move onto something else that maybe only us understand? It's like history stopped in 1945. Why does one race have to baby sit another oh right Jews and Niggers can't farm. Do two tigers kill each other after a successful hunt... yes if one takes too much of the kill. Despite workers only being able to seek workman comp so many times until they are un-hireable... ZOG has spent trillions on Africa and these niggers after one month let the crops die and say farming is hard. Then spent Trillions on Africans in the US with what to show? Nigger tech... Aids? I've stopped listening to any and all nigger music. People say rap is elementary and should be banned... but have you heard Oxxxymiron aka Russian rap? It's almost like whatever the white man puts his spirit into becomes art.

She worked at youtube and youtube demonetized her, and within a week she shot up the place. I can't help but admire her and the feeling seems to go both ways. Ever since Israel snipers started wearing hoodies that say one bullet two kills that have a pregnant Muslim woman in the cross hair Mein Kampf has been a consistent best seller. These Muslim states can't print the book as fast as Muslims are buying it up. BASED. I hope they sell English copies of SIEGE. I can't wait to see the fourth Rei.. I mean fourth book cover.

A lot of people who live in America think that we live in a capitalist society that if there's a demand for a product that someone will sell it. WRONG. The lying main stream media (100% owned and ran by Jews) hasn't made money in decades. Interracial white female and black male porn has never made profit: it's all political propaganda. Somehow people think they need 18 years of education to have two kids. Niggers cry about slavery in the US despite like 78% of slave owners being ethnically Jewish in the US. Nigger slavery is more brutal than ever in 2018 with Muslim slavers.

Some how Muslims societies not only function but fight back and get results against Jews and seemingly just say fuck off to publican education all together. If education, morals or ethics could save the world it would have long ago. I rather see schools in Hawaii fall apart over night and the Japanese government use that money to get parents farming with their kids. If the Big Island imports 90% of their food, and those food ships ship out of CA, and CA has Israel dual citizens in high government that have no problem voting the US into wars for Israel I'm sure that they will never forget what side Japan took. Did you know in the Jewish encyclopedia it says if a Jew ties up it's neighbor and they starve to death it's not a sin? Or you can play into the system of pigs like a good goy and listen to Nigger wisdom youtube videos about how having nine baby mamma's drives him insane and that you should never have kids or get a girl and just work and find what ever makes you happy even if it kills you.

Befriending Muslims makes both us grin. If you don't have a friend named Mohammad who urges you to someday visit his favorite titty bar in some Muslim country you're probably already cucked. If some old Japanese man doesn't give you the silent nod of approval you're probably already cucked.

I went from asking normies about how they feel about people not being able to read voting to claiming those useful idiots who want free massages after a life time of having to work in an unfair system. These normies won't opt for workman comp because they are scared shitless of loosing their job even if it means breaking there back. Luckily there's a lot of people out there developing back pain or who have back pain. Believe me, and white history, these people who were thrown in jail or unable to compete they'd would of sent off to start their own colony and govern themselves. Yet Jews are dead set on being the leading role of this multicultural experiment. So your races existence and children's well being is an experiment? Seek and share my campaign literature because I seek to make Obummers legacy, the highest status nigger in the world, just another dindu nuffin. Watch me not even care about upping the quality of my work, being outside the system, having less $1000 in the bank, shitting all over Obummers legacy and telling the people how to get the care they deserve.

Who would win? A rigged political system, thousand of years of planning, endless blank checks, ZOG, countless shit libs, every rat noose genetic fuck up on the planet, countless cuck-seratives, and billions of niggers or one pure blood white man who listened to the audio book SIEGE less than 24 hours ago?

Anyways, I was going to list the 25 points in the appendix from SIEGE. But I rather let people know they can find that book on Archieve.org I mean honestly, you take the word Germany and replace it with Hawaiian. Hawaiians can also read White Power by Rockwell and replace the world white community with Hawaiian Islands. Just try not to keep physical copies of these books laying around since if police see it... yeah there's police training in the US for seeing people having physical books.

No book ever written by a Nigger, or album or mixtape for that matter, is considered intelligently dangerous: "woke." Whereas SIEGE, White Power, Mein Kampf, 200 years together, anything Nietzsche is. White man listens to SIEGE audio book and within less than 24 hours undermines 200 years of ZOG... in other words he acts in instinct and listens to his gut feeling and his genes shine.... in other words the media will never mention how many people cure their back pain because I'm intelligently dangerous. An IBS stream picks a topic and invites people that oppose each other and then live streams it: 2v2, 3v3, 5v1. These IBS live streams on (((youtube))) got upward of 10k live viewers with sometimes 200,000 total views... for content that sometimes goes over five hours. There's never enough blood when it comes to IBS whereas politics is (((sissy))) (((Christian))) (((shit))) that makes nigger equal to whites by forcing whites down to the level of niggers.

Some of these streams were so bloody that (((youtube))) shut down the stream live with 5k viewers. You can only go through workman comp so many times until (((they))) say you are un-hireable. I could be out there teaching people how to maintain a good, strong, healthy, pain free back. But I rather sit back and cheer those getting the best socialist type care they so desperately need for having to work in this (((archo-capalist))) system while those meek witting or unwitting (((Christ-cucks))) play a modern day more brutal version of Russian Roulette, and it couldn't happen to a sweeter (((bunch))). My people mostly have healthy backs. (((Their))) people consume drugs to forget like swine they swine (((they))) are. Young healthy people will no longer break their back, so just wait until the workload shifts. State House Rep Candidate (R) Hawaii District 2 (((Cuck-seratives)))

Six months ago I thought it was clear I was alt-right, so I was interviewed for an alt-right group. I was let in but I was called a (((neo-cuck-serative))). I never heard that term before. I was pissed and was kicked out in less than an hour. I later got some PDF books. Hawaiians can't read White Power by Rockwell and tell me those tactics weren't used against them by (((US))). Rockwell wrote that book so within two months and would know what's going on. Note in the video game Mine Craft Jews and Niggers are not people as per legal and due process of the courts of Mine Craft. Free audio book or PDF found at Archive.org How about all these (((shit-lib))) students add that to their (((liberal))) book list. I mean we both hate (((conservatives))) but in short there's no term of abuse not used by both commie-jew-controlled-right and commie-jew-left for me. That ought to be a lesson to you dimwits.

The masses of people, dim by nature, tired by overwork, just might be fooled by someone in the (((system))). If I wasn't for a ton of edgy political incorrect memes I probably would of trusted people in the (((system))). One of my favorite things to do is to check in with various people of light around Hilo. One big soy boy tells me his father is a DR and a proud (((conservative))) before hobbling off to push carts. One of the heirs of a tobacco company has a $4 million dollar mansion. He spends his time paying 100 whores to stay on birth control from age 18 to 25 to be led around on a leash, being hit with a riding crop, and getting all stretched out before replacing their post-wall bodies and now border line personalities. Any man who is worth his salt can tell if a women has done shit like this.

The already rich and the cowardly pretenders called (((conservatives))) who look down on me and do all they can to destroy my imagine. I waste so much time checking in with the sons of these proud (((conservative))) to watch as their soul, backs, and dreams slowly gets crushed one by one. (((conservatives))) are cowards and weaklings. Have-it-both-ways people. I will “prove” this but only if you ridicule (((them)))... now visit a home improvement store and see the guys pushing carts, then go across the street to one of the various box stores and watch young people hobbling around pushing carts or hobbling between smoking cigarettes shelters. I'm grinning thinking of the sons of these proud (((conservative))) breaking their back pushing carts before hobbling off to the smoking shelter to smoke a cigarette meanwhile the heir of a tobacco company keeps 100 whores on birth control and cocaine until they've been stretched out beyond repair or hit the wall.

Does the (((system))) not do a 100% complete brain wash? To think there's some white thots on this side of the Island that could be getting paid six figures a year but gets the same physical and mental life long scars for free, with lower quality drugs, and STDS from local Niggers. Talk about zero class.

2. ??? I have the worst headache in my life and I want to get these mailed tomorrow. While printing these I needed more supplies. I went a few places. The first place I saw a white women with a nigger kid. I ducked into an aisle before I got sick. I then thought but wheres the nigger father and started laughing. I found myself drying heaving between laughing uncontrollable in a cold sweat. My brain seems to be doing work linking the 56% ham planets in too. I then was leaving another store when I saw a decent looking white girl surrounded by two two 56% faces. It took me months to program myself to smile at decent females showing my nice teeth but it took less than an hour to program my brain to be disgusted at the sight of whites mixed with non-whites. Within seconds my smile went almost throwing up. The red pill community taught me how to tacitly nuke females by telling them you have no sexual attraction for them what so ever. I now see white females next to non-whites females and I almost throw up. While biking home I thought how bad I could make this head ache thinking about so many scenes and people from my life. The front right lobe of my brain feels like it's been ripped in two. The middle left area of my brain sometimes feels the same. Five hours after smelling that squid and thinking about that smell and interracial scenes, couples turned into me almost throwing up just seeing white females next to non white females. Just thinking about any of thing makes me dry heave. Two weeks ago I made a political flier saying I'm never so happy violently up rooting every jewish lie. Today I linked a life time of disgusting porn and people i've seen together and have the worst head ache ever. Hopefully by the end of the day I can link any image I have by the end and wake up with a new brain. I hope next time I see an interracial couple I vomit on the spot. Luckily for me body cams are legal in Hawaii.

 - A. I suffered a work-related injury as a Team Member while performing warehouse duties.
 - B. On or about May 19, 2017, I saw that the store was hiring for cashier duties. Employees are hired as Team Members with the intent for either warehouse or cashier duties. All the cashier duties are filled by women and all the warehouse duties are filled by men.
 - C. On May 19, 2017, I wrote a letter to Store Manager Bob Ogilvie requesting a transfer of my job duties to cashier under the same job title, Team Member. I put my request in writing because I had only seen females hired for cashier duties and males hired for warehouse duties. Mr. Ogilvie denied my request because he said it would cause havoc.
 - D. I applied for a cashier position two more times in response to new ads. The store hired a new female employee for cashier duties on June 23, 2017.

Bob,

We spoke briefly in the store room and you mentioned you see me having a future with this company, and today I am writing you regarding that future. When I was a kid my dream job was to be a personal trainer. I thought people would be all about personal health and it would be a booming industry, but the world I observed up to this point tells a different story: The expansion of Krispy Kreme. I have been employed here for over a year now. We have another store meeting coming up, and from studying glassdoor.com I have concluded that the problems that this store face are not unique, however, I am offering you today a few of my unique skills.

The main problem this company faces is health. I solely intend to focus on warehouse work. I now have a decade of competitive sports behind me. Imagine if I could replicate myself: not just another worker who does choke loadouts without complaint but a worker who can do these loadouts for years to come for every store location. I see a lot of potential in this company. I can tap into my online communities to promote and even write a short PDF / manual on how to achieve what I've done: To turn back the clock eight years in less than one year while making a buck. Being able to tell compelling stories to motivate and give the skills needed to young men to find Tractor Supply Co as a choice career is a unique skill I offer.

I am going to solve this problem by breaking down boundaries. I have successfully turned painful loadouts into painless loadouts and a bro-fist. After Brian and I did a loadout on Sunday he said something along the lines of, "well that was painless." I was like, "That's why I'm here brah, safety brah, and team work brah." Pat has told me to listen to Kyle and Brian on how to do things around here about ten months ago, but I do not see good fruit. In fact, I see another health-related problem that I can solve.

You can always trust a man to act in his best interest and that is why some people avoid loadouts when they are in so much pain. You are only as loyal as your incentives. Self-control is over rated. We need a stick and carrot. There should be accountability; we cannot bet but perhaps the winner of each week gets a bonus, and this would create an incentive to work safer aka long term health. Maybe it is time to create a safety team, and I would lead that safety team.

Times here are getting tough and grim. It seems like some people feel they are spent for the workday not even half way in their shift. This is a problem because it stresses out the warehouse team. Seemly multiple times a week someone is hiding from loadouts. There's little to no emphasis on lifting in the green zone. From my experience, I have been meet with hostility for working safely. Co-workers have mocked me for lifting a 16lbs bag of cat food or a 10lbs box, yet I have taken the high road.

I am no neurosurgeon, but I have read a book by a neurosurgeon. I have communicated with a famous neurosurgeon and modified my lifestyle. Reliability is another thing this local need but is not as large as a problem as health. A healthy sustainable life style is a marathon, not a race. I do not know how to fix said back complications, but I can provide on the spot training on lifting correctly. Maybe the next generation of workers will be persuaded to focus on reliable lifting techniques. Lifting is truly an art and must be mastered. It may take up to six months for the fruits to show.

Over the six months I will help men and women develop lifting techniques that can withstand the test of time. Back is one the strongest muscle groups in the body but NOT as strong as legs. I will straight up give diet advice and life style advice but let them figure it out through trial and error; there's a reason why my diet is mostly the same thing again and again. Over six months anyone I mentor will have what is called a base. They will have the muscle memory down. They will only drink green tea and water, and they will be a work horse who doesn't flinch at loadouts.

Creating a culture that promotes health is choice for this business. I believe you and I can create a wave of workers that will get the attention of corporate. I would like to document it if you decide to take this intelligent risk with the intent we can implement it to stores nationwide.

I am not a nutritionist, yet over my year plus working here I have come a long way. I was a fixer-upper. I had some biceps, a smile, interested in music and not much else going for me. I can provide before and after photos to prove what I'm about to say: I have reversed aging and look like my 22-year-old self again. Over the last eight months I have cut out alcohol, my mind is blossoming and I took an actual interest in books for the first time in my life. I believe cutting these unhealthy habits out has made me so much more of a cheer to work with despite the constant untasteful conditions thrown at me, and people not being friendly brings me to my next point.

I believe being unfriendly is evil, and an unfriendly person cannot provide legendary customer service. Another one of my unique strengths is building bridges. I build relationships with customers fast. I build sells fast. I get the customer confident and ready to checkout fast. I know my ABC's: Always be closing. I have gained status with the men in our community, and a bi-product is women respecting me. This plays into trust. Seemly a good amount of people who come into this store turn down others but opens to my request to assist them. I literally have people waiting eagerly to be helped while I'm assisting another customer. Customers promote the hell out of me, and I'm all about making that two thousand dollar sale in 30 seconds and believe I can teach everyone here the same tactics along with many other tactics applicable to the challenges this business faces.

Good health means some of this other stuff isn't that serious. Not to say reliability isn't serious but when lack of reliability doesn't end in a painful workday, then I walk away painless. Not to say selling fast isn't a priority, but having a crew of elite sells men focusing on ABC instead of avoiding loadouts while talking about dog food for 45 minutes. I believe people experiencing these back complications creates a hostile and painful work environment where the littlest problem gets blown out of proportion.

All these symptoms have a common root: health. I hope that we can work together to get to a point where the current major issues this store face evaporate and we have the luxury of worry about the small things like the feelings we have about each other. Perhaps there wouldn't be so much tension and hate if people weren't walking around with so much physical pain.

There is a masculinity war between me and some other men here hence the hate, however, this problem will fix itself soon because of the three guarantees of life I offer: Lifting incorrectly always leads to complications, smoking and exercise always leads to death and mixing without knowing what you're listening too is always a waste of time (lol for the last one). It is 2017 and this company needs to acknowledge as much information as possible to create an environment, another unique skill I offer of deciphering the bull shit, were men are not thinking highly of themselves for being a martyrdom for an 8-5. The future of this company should not depend of a man pity struggle fest competition that replaces men like clockwork.

Health and the future of this company is why I'm writing you today. The training videos are dated and do not work since they do not cover every type of loadouts. The training videos are general and unspecific and have seen them fail many people. I feel this is the exact forward thinking this company needs. I feel I have taken an intellectual risk, submitted myself to unchecked verbal abuse and physical threats by going with my decade of competitive sport knowledge. I feel I can influence multiple online communities to create a choice worker begging for this job. I feel since my step dad was able to create a training program that got national attention and implementation with the intent and did save lives in Iraq I too can save the lives, backs and the quality of lives for men and women employed by this company. Choose what you want to talk about and let me know.

Truly an intellectual risk that will greatly benefit all from the shareholders of this company down to the bottom of the totem pole.

TSC's to be personal trainer,

To day, 2-23-24 at 8:15 - 8:22 AM I, BRYAN FESTE, popped my back while picking up a 10' 3 1/4" wood post that was wet. I pulled it to me w/ my left arm, pivoted & brought it up w/ both arms while extending out to throw it in the loading container. ~~My left arm~~ I must not of picked it up evenly because while extending up & out I lagged on the left side so I would not smash the wood on the metal pul. POP. I continued to do more wood post until a client handed me a load out. ~~W/~~ during the load out I squatted up the half bale of Alfa & felt pressure in my neck and pain followed on the other side. While pushing out the cart my shoulders (right side) has pain while on the phone 8:33 - 9:33 I noticed other spots as well. My knee is popping while walking. My whole back from neck to hip is sore. Pain in my shoulder & pressure pain in neck. by end of call, I've developed a headache. my speech has declined.

 The connected dots are main areas of soreness. 3+ / 10

We will not

Steven,

I am writing this letter for three reasons.

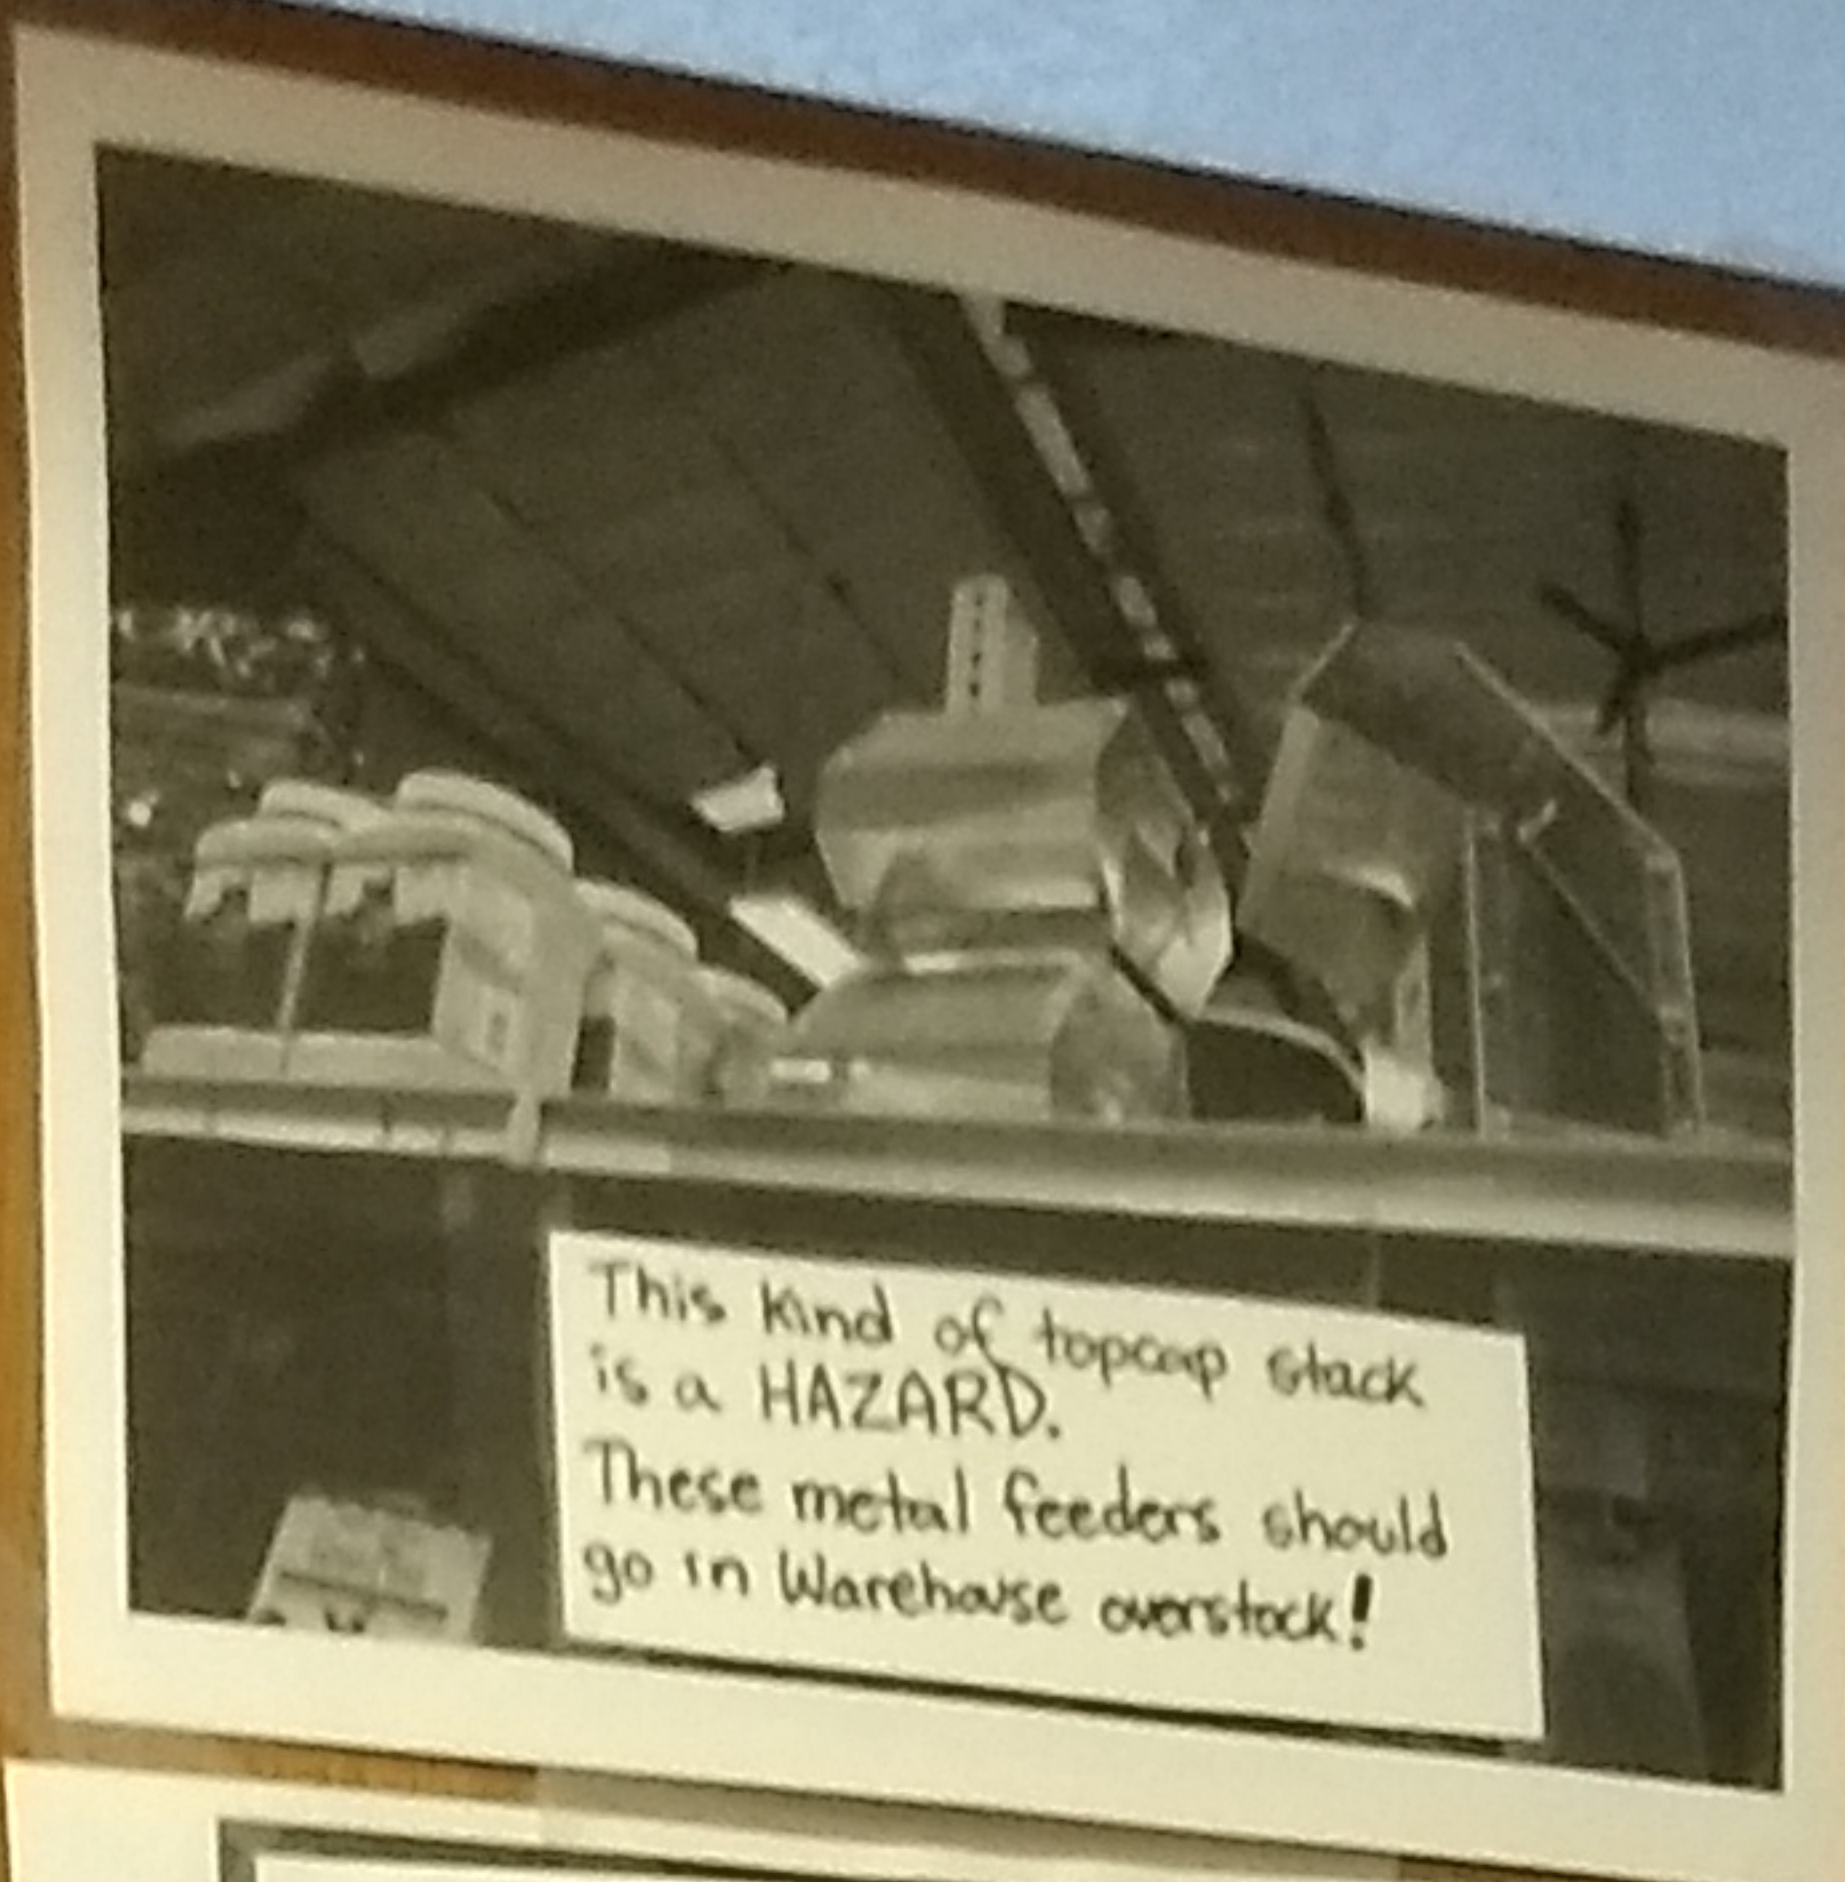

1. In 2017, I have dealt with a different public program. Shortly after submitting my paper work to that program, they contacted me via phone and one of the things they asked me was if I held any preferences based on my Religion. The only contact with this office, besides the initial paperwork, I have had was made by my efforts with the sole intent to communicate that I have a Religious preference for having a man on my case. I am requesting of you the same respect / reasonable accommodation that was offered to me before: I want a man on my case, for I am citing my Religion.
2. I have included the contents of the letter I sent to Robie.
3. I would like to supplement and add more information to my case before my interview. The new document is the page with Shirene's date of hire.

Have a good day,

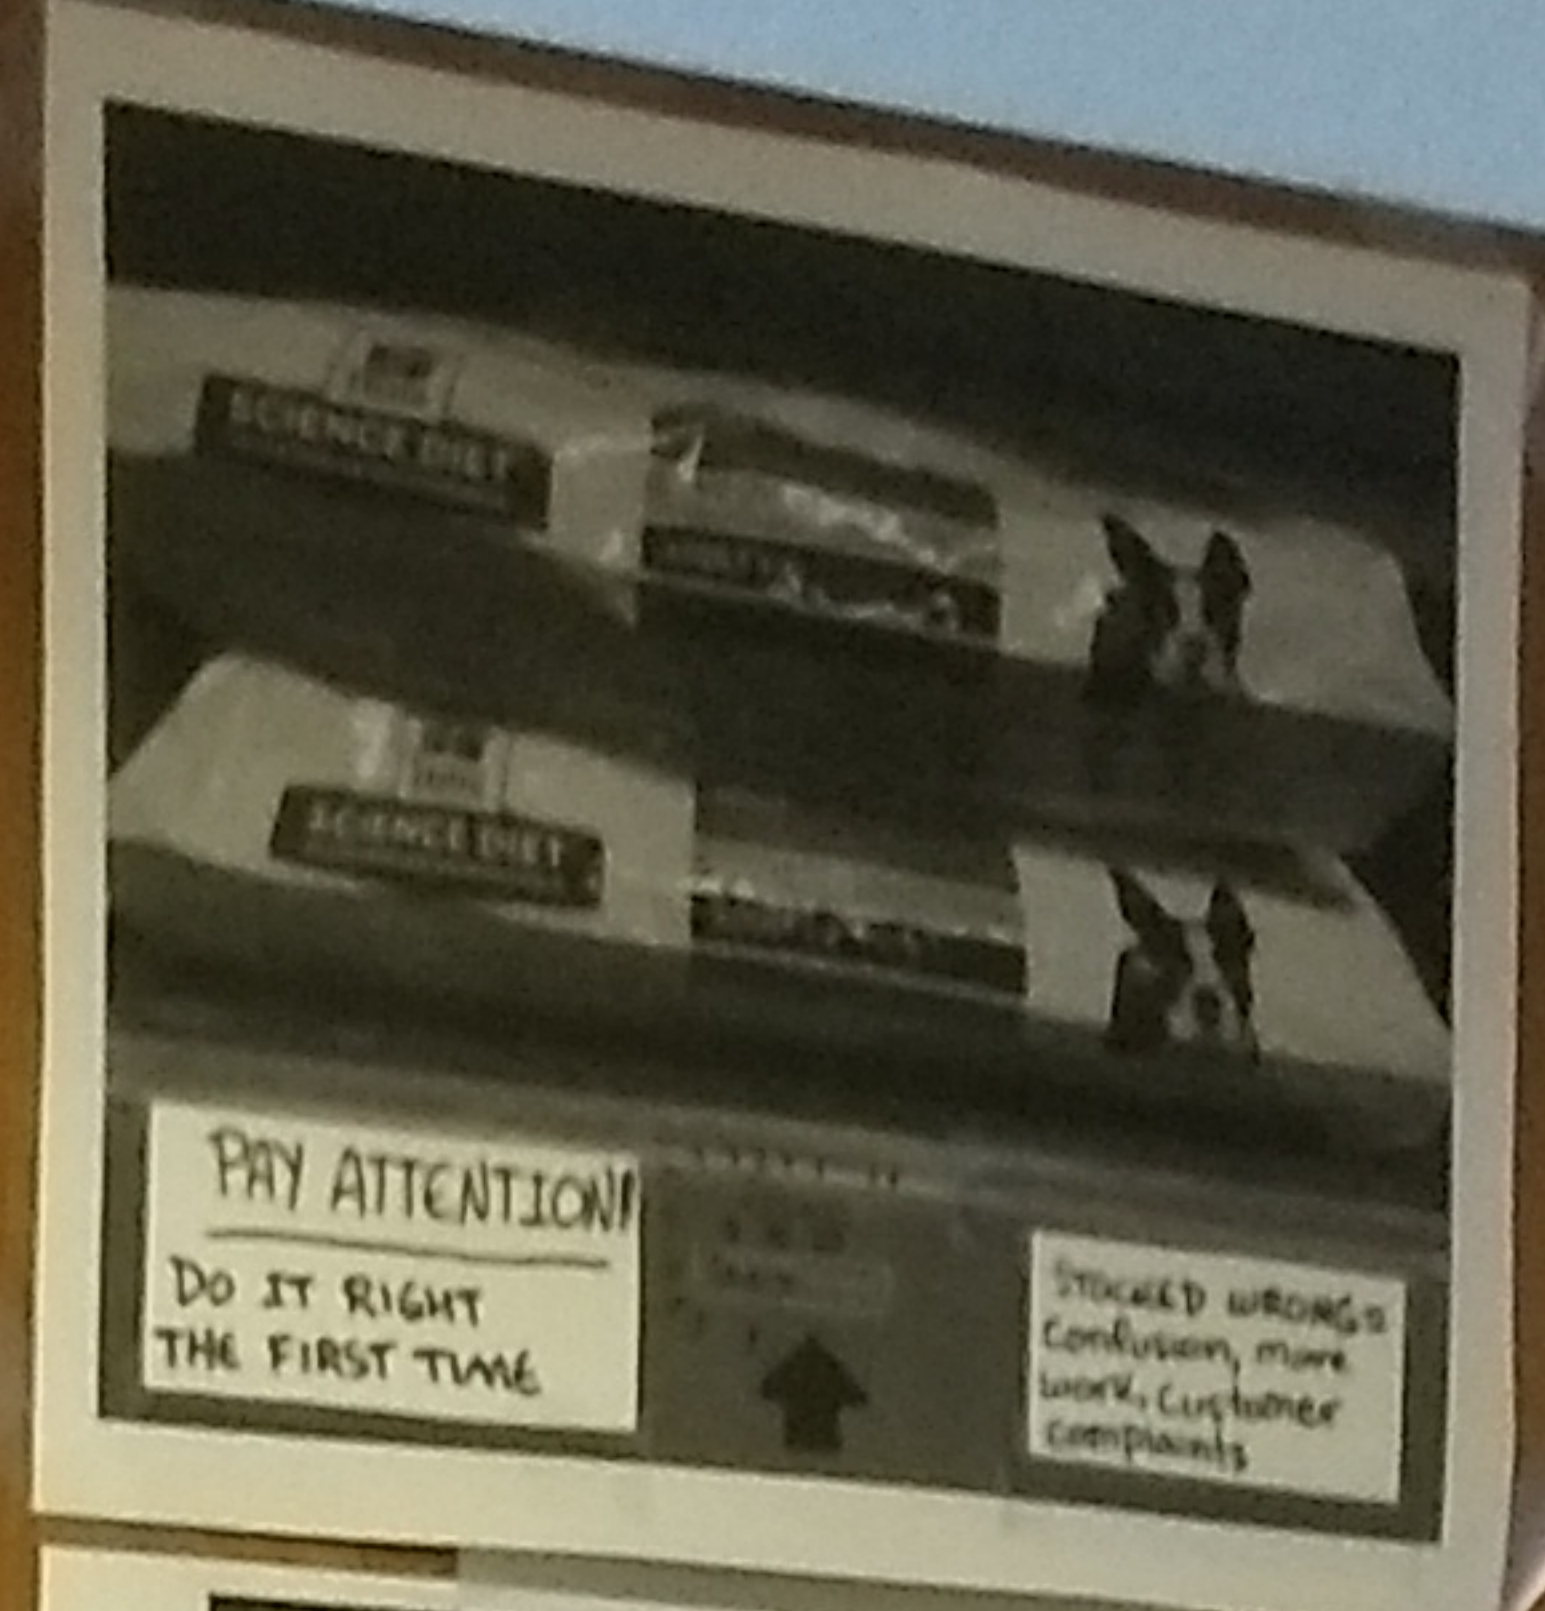

6-30-2017

Problem Resolution: 1 - Highly Dissatisfied

Comment: Every time I go in the same cashier rolls her eyes and sighs. Is not helpful at all to shop elsewhere, which I do a lot of the time. I have to ask if items are even in stock. I had a big deal out of it. Much eye rolling.

Shortly after 5:00pm large warehouse and loading dock 8-30-2017: Feste is working on a loadout of two full Tim's with a hand truck and Shane is on the loading dock working on a pallet of 25 cubes with the small forklift.

I check look out the large warehouse loading door to see if one of my team members can assist me and find Kyle entering the small warehouse looking around. I shout for Kyle's assistant noting that I'll only take a second. Kyle takes over Shane's loadout telling him to go home. Shane was only scheduled to 5:00pm that night. I call out to Shane asking for assistant. Shane starts to motion towards me. Kyle barks at him to go home. Shane walks away.

I try to reason with Kyle for assistant. Kyle calls me lazy, that I need to work harder and to shut the fuck up. After a few more attempts of my reasoning being met with him calling me lazy and that I need to shut the fuck up, I walk through the small warehouse to the loading dock to fetch a pallet to roll the two Tim's onto.

Kyle is on the forklift without backup warning sounds. I recall the safety poster at the top of the stairs that tells us something along the lines of "don't stand in a small space between a wall and the back of a fork lift." There's only a few feet of space between the wall and the fork lift's back. I freeze in an open spot for a second and Kyle gestors and is shouting at me to go. I say, "Man you don't value your own personal safety, you don't even have a seat belt on right now, why would I trust you with my personal safety." Kyle is practically screaming to me about how lazy he feels I am and that I need to shut the fuck up and do my job because he is safe. I respond that safety is my number one priority and express my concerns about his leg and back pains noting that he should listen to Jeremy, our new district manager, about customers having no right to complain about how fast we work long as they can see us working. He tells me to shut the fuck up again after calling me lazy. I tell him that Bob doesn't expect us to lift these full bales by ourselves.

Kyle expresses that whatever I say never makes sense. I ask him if he's been smoking dope again while on the clock. He says I smoke dope and everything I say is fuzzy and it escalates from there up to him hobbling out in a rush. Kyle walked out of his scheduled shift.

Bill, a former employee, has expressed to me that he quit because he couldn't stand it any longer how disrespectful Kyle is to him.

Re: Notice of Dismissal and Right to Sue in Bryan M. Feste vs. Del's Farm Supply, LLC
FEPA No. H-19821; EEOC No. 37B-2017-00296

Dear Mr. Feste:

The investigator assigned to handle the discrimination complaint which you filed with the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission (HCRC) has recommended that the case be closed on the basis of no cause. The case has been reviewed by the Executive Director who concurs with this recommendation. This does not necessarily mean that the problems you alleged did not occur, but that the investigation could not confirm those allegations to the standard of proof level required by the statute for the Commission to further pursue the case.

Please be advised that this recommendation has been accepted, the processing of the case by this Commission has been closed effective January 3, 2018 and your complaint is being dismissed pursuant to Hawaii Administrative Rules (H.A.R.), Section 12-46-11. You now have the right to file a private lawsuit against Respondent in the State Circuit Court within ninety (90) days after receipt of this notice pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 368-12 and H.A.R. Section 12-46-20, should you wish to do so. You are further advised that you should consult an attorney immediately if you wish to pursue this matter further. If you feel your case is strong, an attorney may well be willing to take your case forward because they are not limited, as this Commission is, by the requirement that the matter meet the required standard of proof level before proceeding.

Also be advised that a complainant may request reconsideration of this dismissal of the complaint only within thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of this Notice of Dismissal. (H.A.R. Section 12-46-11). The request for reconsideration must be in writing, must fully set forth the new evidence or specific reasons for disputing this dismissal and should be addressed to the Executive Director at the above address. However, please be advised that filing for reconsideration does not extend your 90-day deadline to file a private lawsuit.

Christal,

I worked at this location for over a year, and never seen a man hired for cashier duties. I have plenty of evidence to support this, and plenty people who I can call to support this. Maybe a decade ago they had men hired for cashier duties, but my entire time at Del's - Feed and Farm Hilo, Hi 100% of the cashier duties were held by women and 100% of the warehouse duties were held by men. They did hire a trans women for cashiery while I was their, but it's rude to assume her gender as male despite her claiming and identifying as a women [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has already been submitted to be interviewed on this, perhaps he can also speak about the daunting workload.

[REDACTED] can speak about what he's seen at Del's. [REDACTED] asked for my number one day after chatting with him about farm supplies. [REDACTED] has never seen a man cashier or a women do warehouse work during any of his visits to Del's since he moved to this island. [REDACTED] also saw Kyle unable to stand because of daunting work.

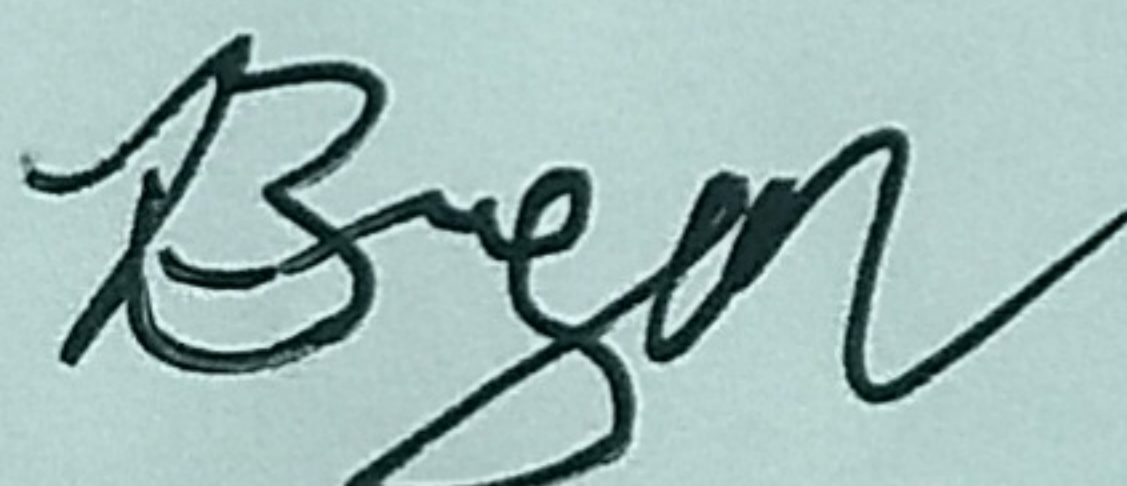

[REDACTED] can speak about what he's seen at Del's. He works for a farmer and visits Del's often. He's never seen a man cashier or a women move 50lbs bags of feed.

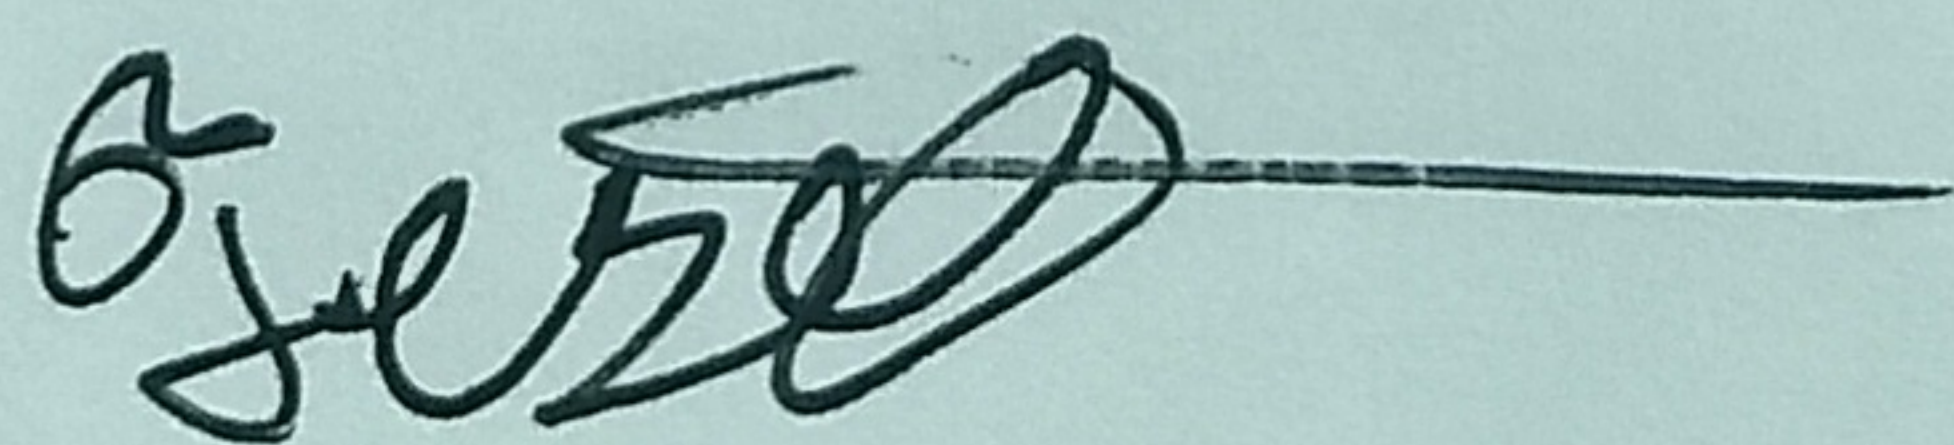

"§12-46-102 Bona fide occupational qualification (BFOQ). (a) The burden of proving that sex is a bona fide occupational qualification (BFOQ) rests upon the employer or other covered entity seeking the exception.... (3) The refusal to hire, refer, recommend, or consider for a position, or promote an individual because of preferences or sense of propriety of co-workers, the employer, client, or customer; or..." This is clear that they are discriminating on me for being part of the male sex because I have submitted evidence that shows 100% of the cashier positions are held by women.

The management did not try their best to accommodate me during my injury. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] can speak on this. Dr. [REDACTED] did his best to accommodate me, not the management at Del's. He may also speak about what he sees regarding daunting work at Del's.

I have submitted the evidence suitable for the realm of The Hawaii Civil Rights Commission. With this letter sent on 12-22-2017 it is clear from 12-46-102 (3) that they have violated Hawaii State Law. The rest of my evidence is reserved for the court and social justice. I will take that right to sue letter.

Dear Mr. Feste:

Re: HCRC No. H-19821, Bryan M. Feste vs. Del's Farm Supply

This is to advise you that a preliminary finding of no cause has been recommended regarding your allegation that you not hired for a cashier position because you are a male. The investigation included interviewing witnesses and reviewing documentary evidence. You, the complainant, have the burden of proving that an intentional violation of the law occurred before the Commission can find cause. The review of all the evidence in this case failed to satisfy this required burden of proof.

The statements listed below may not represent all of the information that has been considered. They are a summary of the major points on which the closure recommendation is based. Any new relevant information must be submitted within seven (7) days from the date of this letter and should be in writing. Your response shall be carefully reviewed and further investigation done if necessary. If the new evidence does not change the recommendation, or you do not respond, then your case will be submitted to the Executive Director for formal closure.

BASIS FOR CLOSURE RECOMMENDATION

You alleged that you applied for a part-time cashier position by giving a letter expressing your wishes to transfer to Store Manager Bob Ogilvie. You put your request in writing because you had only seen females hired for cashier duties and males hired for warehouse duties. You said that Mr. Ogilvie denied your request because it would "cause havoc". You also claim that you applied for a cashier position two more times in response to new job ads. The store hired a new female employee for cashier duties.

There is insufficient evidence to prove that you were denied the cashier position because of discriminatory reasons related to your sex. Interviews with former Team Members and a Store Manager have proven that there have been men hired to the cashier position and women hired in the warehouse in the past. All of the Team Members interviewed had said that Team Members are responsible for a variety of duties, and women have worked the forklift and would stock freight even if they worked up front at the cashier.

The Respondent had a legitimate non-discriminatory reason for not offering you the cashier position. One being that there has only been one woman who has recently been hired to work the cashier, and she is a part-time employee. There have not been any recent full-time hired to work the cash register. Another reason is that the Respondent has provided enough evidence and testimony showing that you had performance issues when it came to customer service and interacting with other Team Members, and that it would not have been in management's best interest to assign you at the cash register at that time. It has been noted that management did their best to train you and accommodate you during your injury.

Lastly, the Hilo store serves a rural population and processes approximately three times as much animal feed and forage as the average Tractor Supply store. Due to the high demand for feed and forage, Team Members at the Hilo store are assigned to focus either on serving customers in the warehouse with load-outs of animal feed and forage and related customer service, or working the cash registers and providing related customer service in the front of the store. However, all Team Members are trained in all areas of responsibility and routinely work in both areas of the store as necessary to meet the store's demands at different times of the day. When help is needed in the warehouse, Team Members are expected to perform physical labor by picking up feed bags on a daily basis. This was not out of the ordinary for a feed store. Team Members interviewed did not express that the physical labor was particularly daunting, and did not have issues with doing the work that was expected of them at a Tractor Supply store.

I understand your disappointment in the outcome of this investigation. However, the evidence I have at this time does not establish a violation of the statutes. Unless you are able to provide sufficient new evidence, the next step will be to complete Commission action and provide a right to sue letter to you. This will allow you to proceed on your own with an attorney in court. This does not mean that your case is not meritorious, but that this Commission cannot further process it and must provide you with the right to sue letter.

Sincerely,

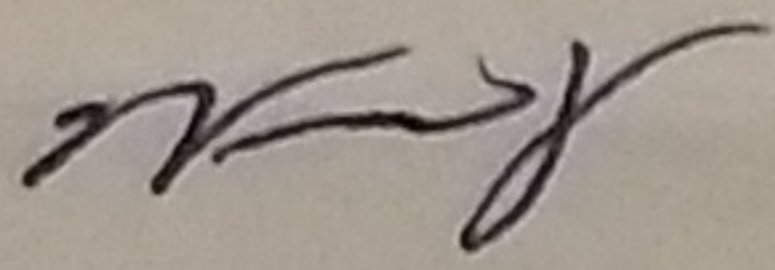

Christal Phillips

To whom it may concern,

Bob really didn't want Kyle fired because Kyle works hard. No one at this location works smart expect for me: correctly lifting. Perhaps you should visit this location to see the pain in the men's, warehouse, faces as they work or as they walk; truly it is appalling and made me emotionally disconnect from my team members because all the men here are extreme masochist because that seems to be the culture the managers and leads promote: sacrifice yourself, don't dare try established lifting techniques or you'll be constantly harassed, and don't dare let a woman lift. Customers tell me multiple times a week something along the lines of "wow, you're the only one that lifts correctly, and that's insane."

On 9-1-2017 I saw the look on Bob's face as he lay backwards on a pallet of dog food with his arms above his head. "Ugh, my back" Bob says as Higgins responds while walking by with a loadout saying, "get back to doing loadouts, we need you Bob." Bob has always hobbled with his hips way off and spine way to the right. It would seem something happened, Bob's incorrect alignment of his back being thrown off, and now is hobbling in a new way on 9-2-2017. Perhaps the fall of Babylon is about a curve in a man's spine that should have never been: Once set the muscles do what they can to keep it that way but a slip can result in a grim fate for all to see with each step.

On 9-2-2017 we had a brief meeting in the warehouse that started with how we lost one the other day ad we all need to respond to loadout calls asap and take the initiative on dog food. It's untasteful that Bob, Kris, Scott, and the 5pm guy are too busy doing whatever else to follow these words. Perhaps when the managers give a pep talk to warehouse and use the word we they should note that if they are sweeping or unable to follow their own words it's because it's very important business. Rome collapsed because of shit like this: Men scared as all hell taking a dose of their own medicine. Thank God for the internet and the sharing of information freely. You should see the notes and letters on the white board in the warehouse, for it is sexist to assume woman cannot lift without hurting themselves. It is rich that the day Bob initials next a note that says customer service is the #1 priority, not safety, is the same day he is staring at the ceiling trying to stretch out his back on a pallet of dog food for all of us, and customers, to see.

On 9-2-2017 Scott assigned dog food to Shane and I was to support him. Dog food, I haven't done this in like half a year or more, and this task has broken every man's back who's done it. This location is either dated or the managers have it set up to a way that the bending/twisting mixed with lifting required to do the dog food task grinds spines in ways that ruins lives: IE see Kyle... this is retaliation. They say they use the space they have in the warehouse intelligible, but the facts are that some tasks break backs. I've seen what it's done to my co-workers. I can have people speak on things like the quality of life they live now after doing dog food under these conditions. These new job duties are forcing me to quit: bending and lifting always ends bad. The managers don't do dog food, they avoid it like the plague: has Ducky who's been here for like 5+ years, the same last name as Bob, ever done Dog food for a week to see what it's like? No, but she yells at men for working slow or in my experience working safe. I feel the current person assigned to dog food is grinding disk on disk in his back. The expression on his face, and seemingly all the other men, throughout the workday is disturbing and forcing me to pick up personality traits that no normal or reasonable person would endure. No reasonable person would want to see these expressions on their team members face while working a job.

The dark triad is a blessing and a curse, for it helped me dodge one of the grimmest fates of all and this job is imbedding some concerning personality traits that society does not openly condone, however, I am not a traitor and betrayal to my own kind, or anyone who is nice to me or willing to work with me, like the managers and leads & Angel at this location. I have found another job that pays about the same, and that job has actual opportunities to advance. This new location they use safety equipment religiously and have plenty for everyone ranging from gloves, lifting belts, safety goggles, to all kinds of machines to eliminate stress on the body.

I live with a parent who's worked a physically demanding job in the past and has had back surgery. I'm fully aware of the warning signs and the fate of those signs. I work at a location where people shop at seemingly because they are unable to lift the bags of feed themselves. I could help prevent the fate of lifting incorrectly for so many people, the authoritarian side of me, but the libertarian side of me says, "If someone wants to try to redefine masculinity after thousands of years let them because it's all fun and games until someone gets hurt, then it's hilarious." One day Kyle is expressing something like "it feels like a screwdriver is being dug into this part of my spine" to Scotty in the warehouse and the next day Kyle said something like "I think I pulled something in my back getting out of bed this morning. There's this shooting pain in my leg right now," and his concerns were met with jokes from a Team Member about pulling his groin each night trying to get into bed and Scotty escalating it to something like "I pulled it each night when my wife was out of town" and how awful it was because no one was there to rub it out for him. I was a few aisles down watching a customer crack up by the dog food in response to hearing this. This culture of hate the managers promote is so unbearable, and me, being a compassionate human, cannot bear this any longer.

If you are really interested in talking to me, perhaps we discuss something that'll make me feel comfortable because if I can prevent and save the quality of lives from being ruined, I will do what I can for the greater good. Perhaps TSC will become a leader in business and become a living embodiment of the saying "Make America Great Again." We can work together to build bridges to make a lot of things great again, or we can just Make work at TSC Great Again. I digress.

Truly, this must be one of the most hostile work environments and expressing my concerns to management has laid on deaf ears. I contacted HR and the response I get are job duties that have broken every man, and woman, like clockwork who's take them on at this location.

I, Bryan Feste, am forced to quit in response to new job duties assigned by management on 9-2-2017.

Last thoughts for now,

Imagine if a large amount of workers cashiers, retail, etc would throw up or gag on the sight of an interracial couple. Is it extreme to force people to eat / smell that squid in this text and make them link it to interracial pron and couples to the point that they break into a cold sweat, start gagging and vomit on the clock for some global company? What would the public do? Who's mentally ill? Can these people who reject interracial couples who vomit at the sight of them claim disability and collect money or will their j-left bosses keep them on the clock to vomit and gag throughout a 40 hour work week?

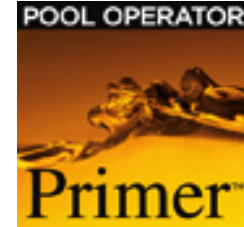

The day after I linked the squid to the white female and black man scene I still gag and almost vomit at the thought of interracial couples. While picking up enough ink to finish making this packages without even thinking about any of the triggers just seeing niggers now make me almost vomit. Does it sound crazy? What if the silent majority started vomiting on sight to niggers instead of flinching? Can a high quality troll song achieve this? Who wants to be part of the testing group! Within a couple weeks of writing I've never been so happy after uprooting every jewish lie I found a way to cause a fissure in my brain to truly up root it.

I hope you enjoyed my resume / business plan / tool box.

Store Manager

Hilo

I was hired by Tractor Supply Company at Del's location in Hilo, HI on 5-28-16 to a full time position.

I was written up on 10-15-2016 for failing to work at a pace of other team members in completing task, for failing to stop, drop and engage with customers or responded to calls for customer load outs (failing in deliver legendary customer service), failed to communicate effectively with the team resulting in poor team work and animosity creating a poor work environment, failed to understand simple instructions from a supervisor, failed in establishing good team work in and understanding how a team works together.

Before I was written up, they found out was pro-Trump. The only Pro-trump persona at this location.

Only men do warehouse work and the only time men cashier is when the cashiers need help. However, the cashiers do not help with loading out orders, ever. Despite us having the same title "team member," only women cashiers and only men do warehouse work. Currently all the cashiers are female and the last four hired are female. Currently all the warehouse members are male and the last 7 hired are male.

Today, 5-5-17, all my of male coworkers are experiencing back pains that cannot be cured by eight ibuprofens, weed or other drugs. They have been lifting 50lbs bags of feed incorrectly and carrying them on their back.

The warehouse lead will talk to the assistant manger of the warehouse for about 50 minutes about either food or old tv shows while skipping his main job duties. He does this in 20 minute intervals throughout the day and another 30 minutes at the end of the shift. After the managers above him are gone (around 4pm or 3pm) he'll take six 10 minute breaks when it's busy or he'll take an hour long break smoking. I believe he is smoking crack or something with other coworkers because often his emotions are dead and he is super focused and not doing anything that makes sense. His hands are shaking uncontrollably too. He has complained about heart pains a few months back. His back pains cannot seem to be cured and he is always doing bull shit projects and knocking things down. He took the fence out a few months ago.

One older warehouse member, hired around November, had a stroke on the job, said he was fine, and went home. He is constantly not responding to loadout calls for hours on end, he is walking past customers trying to hand him a loadout, he now has x5+ 20-30minute bathroom breaks when he's on the clock. He'll talk to customers for 30 minutes after loading out a $20 bag of feed and talk to them about politics or whatever. He constantly calls out sick and has reduced his hours to 1-2 days a week.

My two coworkers on about the same level of me are hamstring or psychotic. The psychotic one has said "I can't wait for niggers to kill white people" to my face, "I'm racist against white people" to my face, or "you don't get it because you're a trump supporter" to my face in front of customers. After the manager leaves he's yelling to himself that he's going to be the biggest asshole possible. He takes 8+ ibuprofen a day, 5 energy drinks, 2 pots of coffee, smokes a ton of weed to reduce the pain, drinks a bottle of Nyquil a night and is constantly taking smoke breaks with or without writing them down. He has refused to help me in front of customers.

The other coworker complains daily about anything he can find. It seems to make him feel better or think it improves his situation. He's constantly complaining about people "everyone takes bath room breaks to often" "some peoples bathroom breaks are too long." He's not drinking 3-4 energy drinks a day, back pain cannot be cured from any drug and drinks like 8 shots of alcohol a night and constantly coming into work with a hangover.

The assistant manager of the warehouse says he does not have back pain but walks out most days looking like a mummy, unable to walk properly, stand properly, or move his arms properly. He has threatened to make my life hell at this location twice. He does what I call bull shit story time, where he ignores work to talk to other coworkers about food or tv for 20-30minute breaks at a time.

The cashier lead is a feminist, she times me when exchanging a 150 t-post order and acts like I'm fucking up for not rushing to get it done despite other co-workers refusing to help me in front of the customer upon the customer's request. She draws all the time on the clock. She reads all the time on the clock. She plays on her phone all the time on the clock. She does not leave the cashier stand to do anything around the counter. She has been talked to the main manager that she cannot draw but she does it anyways and thanked him for letting her do it despite others complaining.

The other cashiers (women) follow suit. It's often a competition who can do the least or look the most pathetic. They all seem to call out 1-2 times a week and are usually always late. They all never miss a break. They all play on their phone or do crossword puzzles in front of the distract manager.

The cashier assistant manager has discriminated against me saying " you're schizophrenic, trump thinks we should lock up schizophrenics, we should lock you up" on 1-30-17. I have written a letter expressing I want her to apologies to me in front of the other coworkers she said that in front of. And no action yet. Report # 125284020 from some random number on the company wall. I have contacted the EEO on 5-5-17 inquiring about this. She'll do cross word puzzles or take long smoke breaks.

The main manager is swearing it up. He's complained to me not to complain about other people so I've stopped complaining about others actions months ago. I believe he's letting these other peoples micro aggressions add up to a case against me, but whatever. I may not work as fast as the other men breaking their back, but I work without break.

1. I want to "piggy back" on the assistant managers pay. She gets paid $17 after complaining about Starbucks managers making that much. I, and the other men, do cashier, do have product knowledge and do answer phones. The only thing we don't do is take smoke breaks, show up late, do crossword puzzles or play on our phones all day. We help with cashiering, but they do not help with warehouse despite mostly all of us having the same job title. The duties are divided based on gender and men are paid less than cashiers in general.
2. The cashiers get set hours because what they do does not depend on when a truck is coming in, despite once again being team members as a job title. Women take breaks, but men cannot without being yelled at. Women clock in late all the time, and it's fine whereas men get told to find a new job.
3. Positive discrimination. Manager, Assistant manager, Team lead, Team member. Somehow, all the women have the job duty as cashiering and all the men have the back breaking duty for less pay. 100% men warehouse, 100% women cashier. The last six cashiers hired are all female. The last eight warehouse hired are all men. The company training video programing tells it's employees that this is sexist to have all men or all women do a specific duty OR have all the same job title. Coprate does not care about sexism against men because this location makes so much and the men (besides me) are feminist and go against their own best interest.

4. When I asked why I haven't had much time cashier I was told by the manager that the girls would not like a man to be up there, especially a conservative man and especially me since I have a speech independently from my schizophrenia. Despite no customer complaining about my speech, I am never called to assist with cashier when one or two of the women are either called out or on break.
5. discrimination for marital status. The male lead has a wife and kids, so he gets Friday/Saturday off to be with the wife and kids. Whereas all the other men (besides the receiver and managers) are pushed around. I want Tuesday off for my social life and Wednesday off because I need time for my body to recover from lifting 5 days straight. I lift on top of my job and need ideal circumstances to recover (two days off in a row) but we men rarely get two days off in a row. The other training is taking a toll on men and it is devastating.
6. About four men load out the majority of the 8 million dollars' worth of product over the year. We are not offered chiropractic care in any insurance plan offered. We do not get two days off to recover. We only get a slight change in duties if we have a Workmens comp note from a doctor. We do not get paid time off to recovery for small injuries that slip through the daily routine. We do not get a swap or new duties despite men having crushing chest pain or crushing back pain. We are not written up for lifting incorrectly and it has taken a year and two months for four men to destroy their back, and seeing and interacting with them daily is ugly.

I feel I have the same skill as the cashiers expect I also have warehouse skills, and not being paid more is discrimination.

I feel the sheer amount of effort of loading out 5k+lbs by hand a day merits more than $11.50 an hour. We get paid less than cashiers. We talk to more customers, we build more sales, we push more products but are paid less.

Working conditions for men are harder. We are out in 80-100 degree weather with steel toe boots, vests, and work pants. I was told I cannot wear sun glasses. We men constantly have to push a hand truck across a busy street to complete load outs. We men are constantly or have been hit by cars either in our extremely small lot or on the street. No cameras, the cars just drive off. Across the street major events are hosted and being hit by a car is real. The fork lifts are often not kept in the best condition: no back up sounds, old breaks and wheels that are missing major chunks so every couple of feet the 20k lbs beast jerks extremely hard.

I was told I cannot cashier because the women would not want it.

What am I thinking about doing?

1. I've been keeping a log for the last 8 months of everything.

2. My manager, EEOC and our cooperation doesn't care about men's complaints, so I'll whistle blow on youtube.
3. I may settle out of court for a large settlement, but I do not want to present any information to this company.
4. Finishing my workmens comp. I am the only man that has went to Workmens comp and has returned to work at this location. I can talk about the experience of what it was like to met by feminist doctors that said pretty much said "take two a day, overdose and kill yourself" and still find a way through the mess to get the care I need.

Do I need income from this job? Not really, I've developed a body and can pull just about any female I want in my community. The status is great, I plan to write about how I developed status with nothing. I live with my parents and my step dad is reasonable. I may be some scum bag boyfriend and move in with one of these females rent free and keep doing my music. Before Del's, I was employed and the manager has said she'll take me back if I never need a part time job. This means, I am ok losing my job over this.

It just sucks because everyone that I tried to share a little bit of info about this (besides my parents) think that I'm wrong and sexism against men isn't a thing. Even the men at this job that are breaking their back, having strokes or heart attacks on the job still side with feminist. I will literally be the last man standing at this location in a few months.

This is my starting point and I look forward to having an very toughly conversation with you later. I am so happy a place like this exist. I type MRA or men's right, men's right activist into google and it's mostly all man hating results.

My cell is . I usually have Tuesday and Thursdays off. I have work comp appointments at 10 or 11am Hawaiian time that last an hour on those days. You could imagine I don't always function best in the morning. I will set up an appoint to call on a Tuesday after a WC appointment (like 11:45am) Hawaiian time at

Thank you so much for talking to me on 5-5-2017.

On or about 7-25-17 I handed said memo to my store manager, Bob. Seemingly up till or about 8-14 he hasn't taken any action in response to my memo. Around 8-14-17 he received my Hawaii Civil Rights Commission discrimination case against him: I was refused transfer to cashier duties under the same job title, team member, because I was male and it would cause havoc; all cashiers are women and all warehouse are men; then he hired a new woman to fill the cashier role.

These are the events that stand out after him receiving said letter from the HCRC.

The assistant manager, the one who manages the cashiers and oddly enough has the same last name as Bob, was on the phone with corporate prior to me clocking in. She was spreading rumors that I was snooping outside the office listening in to the phone call with corporate. I arrived around 9:20 am with headphones in. As I was going up the stairs I heard someone coming down. I thought it was her, so I took a step back and turned again. I turned away because the day before she just started showing signs of ring worm ranging from her forehead, ear, leg and other places. The day she found them, she said it wouldn't spread but it did on her. She put horse hoof dewormer on her face and it had an allergic reaction causing a big red spot. I did not want to start the day/set the mood by looking horrified by what may still be ugly as hell to look at. I also turned my back since a couple weeks ago I was saying excuse me while reaching for a key to open a lock case and she sneezed/coughed in my mouth. She was turning around to sneeze/cough away from the customer; later in that day she threw up on her way to the bathroom a couple times. I've been fighting some sore/whatever in my mouth since.

She was expecting a long call that would take all morning. It only took like 20 minutes. When I first applied to cashier position in writing, Bob the Store Manager, Talked to her for like two hours in his office. Bob later refused my transfer to cashier duties because it would cause havoc.

On 8-25 a team member said something like " my back hurts so bad that it feels like someone is grinding a screw driver into this part of my spine" the assistant manager didn't do anything besides tell the store manager. Hours later the managers both clock off and the team member completes his shift because he needs the money. while another assistant manager goes home early due to ring worm and feeling bad everyone is cleaning around them.

8-26 the team member said "there's this shooting pain in my leg going up and down. It hurts so bad. I think I pulled something in my back getting out of bed this morning." Another team member goes " ya, I pulled my groin getting out of bed this morning. Then i tried to get up again and I pulled it again. In fact I pulled it last night getting into bed while watching tv." The assistant manager, the warehouse one, joins in with groin pulling jokes. They made dick jokes in response to a team member describing a pinched sciatic nerve. The team member took many smoke breaks that day. and seemingly completed his shift again.

Said team member has said to my face he is racist against white people (he's half white) and that Trump supporters don't get it. He's said a lot more.

As I wrote before on 5-5-17 about the characters and events, I write again with how these characters have progressed down their path.

Store meetings. Bob has made it clear "Men stay healthy." Despite the men having the same job title of the female cashiers, this location needs men to do the work since the women stay at their pedestal "the cashier stand" like 90% of the day. Bob tells everyone that lifting 50lbs bags of feed on your shoulder is bad and not to do it or else. I was hired in May 2016 and men still do it.

The warehouse lead and assistant manager don't talk as often, however, he's taken an interest in taking smoke breaks across the street in a parking lot to take smoke breaks with one of the cashiers. He doesn't sign off on breaks and has taken breaks for up to 40 minutes smoking with one of the cashiers. The cashier lead will call for me him 40 minutes and act like she doesn't understand: She's a feminist and he's married to a feminist so he gets a pass. This dude embodies the saying "rat baster who's about to croke." I believe he's something else since he went from a full sized teeth to little tiny teeth. Also a team member has said "I think you're smoking too much of that stuff man." It's weird how some days him and the cashier can talk for hours on end after smoking while ignoring work while on the clock. His hands are still shaking uncontrollably. He constantly leaves a diarrhea mess in the bathroom; maybe he does double flush, maybe it's just bad. He calls out sick once a week and the manager lets him use one of his vacation days. During store meetings he said it's all about team work, then precedes to hide for 20-40 minute periods with another team member to smoke.

The older warehouse member, hired around November, put his two weeks in after being refused accommodations. I don't know the whole store, but him and I are on good terms. I will soon call him. Oh, and he wasn't as old as I thought, he's 45. Chewing Tabaco really ages people...

The hamster stopped running to the store manager with every little piece of shit he finds, since Bob doesn't care about the rules. He went from complaining about people taking bathroom breaks to having an ulcer in his intestine. He doesn't seem to be leaving blood in the bathroom any more, and this is nice. He's still drinking heavy and can't understand why it flairs up. His roommate responded to one of my CL ads about looking for a room. He didn't know it was me but I knew it was him: I'm not really stoked about the $550 a month because I'm trying to paint myself not as a ticking time bomb/ energy leach / annoying little bitch. I do value good people and a decent setup, so I'll check it out." He's got a set schedule so he can focus on starting a construction company. I guess hammers falling in people's face is normal for construction. He's showed up drunk on Sunday morning (day with no manager) and was blasted till about 2pm.

The psychotic extreme masochist regressive leftie who's racist against white people, despite being half white, is well. There's a lot I could say but the dates given prior sum things up enough: karma. Oh and he loves fucking his fugly girlfriend and throws it in my face that he gets laid and I don't. I'm MGTOW.

The assistant manager of the warehouse has said in two different store meetings something like " I know I did good somedays at work because I can barely get into my car my body is so stiff." He's made it into a full-time job to skip loadouts as often as possible. With his three years at this location, you can imagine he's pretty good at being a worthless to his team but talking like he's in the right. He's talking about selling his house. He's been married since like 16 or something. She manages all the money. He likes to buy organic food yet eats out for fast food or brings ham/cheese sandwiches with soda. It would seem somethings that seem to be "virtuous" are just talking points, not values. He has expressed a pain in his knee a month ago and that he's gonna take it easy for a day or two. It's been one month and you can see he's in real pain somedays. Did he too, like the fucking idiot who's about to snap, pinch a sciatica nerve? Workmen comp covers damaged muscles (up to 180 days) whereas joint/ligament takes like 270 days to heal. Really makes me wonder what all the workmen comp cases against this location include...

how many were filed too late or failed to file correctly or were filed vs the next company that hired them.

A lot of workers here are looking for new work yet are so toxic they can't even get part time employment elsewhere. Something about the bible saying "it's better to live in a desert alone than with a nagging wife."

The cashier lead is a feminist but doesn't wear as much pink. She was talked to by the store manager about drawing again and came at me thinking it was me. To sum it up she said if we have a problem with each other, we should talk to one and another and not go to management. The dumb fucking slut bitch snitched on me the next week. She doesn't seem to understand sweet equity. Weird how the person who can't lift more than two 30lbs bags of feed without getting exhausted can't understand that. She did go on walk breaks for pokemon go for a few months. She's back to drawing more than ever. She now draws fat drawings to get praise from her assistant manager. She stopped reading after being turned off by some pro-feminist super hero power book. She talked to the new district manager about people taking too long during loadouts and he said "if the customer can see people are working they have no right to complain. In fact tell them they can get a refund and go someplace else." The cracks are beginning to show, around age 25, blue veins are popping up below her eye, legs, arms. Obviously she doesn't have to follow the rules about showing up on time or how to properly take breaks since she's putting on makeup.

The pathetic competition continues and the new cashiers are being met with hostility by the more tenor ones because they are often doing work related stuff opposed to doing each other's hair.

The cashier assistant manager has her own catchment and lives in a bus. Now she has ring worm, will she ever get rid of it? She calls out sick all the time. She has ear infections each week and she just started having double ear infections. Attendance is not a priority for women, despite having the same job title as men. It's a shame they, women, opt for a career only in checking people out because it will soon be automated. But no worries, I feel no woman should be allowed to be on public assistance due to "no employment" if there is a farm supply store close by. I believe this location is extreme but is a clear example: 100% of men do warehouse duties and 100% of women do cashier duties. It is time to close that gap. She gets paid almost $20/hr and cannot afford her medication on time. She has like 10 animals (farm store so think outside cats and dogs). She's really defined what a red flag is.

The store manager is a slip away from maybe never walking again. It must feel good living in a bubble. Hawaii is like 3000 miles away so he does what he wants long as it makes money because "money fixes everything." He probably wanted to fire me at one point or thought about it, but I literally do so many loadouts reducing the load for everyone else aka making the managers life easier.

The nick name of the warehouse part of the building is the dungeon, where men work and find whatever fate waits for them. This store acts as an amp. It amplifies habits to an extreme hence why no woman does warehouse work. Women live in the house, the cashier pedestal, and complain about a glass ceiling. "I can't believe our store manager didn't get the promotion to district manager" = translation "I wanted to be store manager." And the cashiers below her complain about her.

We got a couple new men working in the warehouse. After my workmen comp thing, I can look at how a man walks and place a bet how long till he's fucked for life. Workmen comp currently acts as a filter:

filter out the betas and give care the alphas; cause Obamacare needs its money by any means: destroy people lives who just wanted to work for a living aka creating people to vote for more handouts.

I will crush my enemies totally. Perhaps men will protest outside this location and force the men to walk down the street with hand trucks of feed because parking is so limited at this location. I bet if we did this Wednesday the fucking idiot with rage out/ collapse, the managers would hide/be unable to walk at one point, and the men left might die/collapse due to their unhealthy habits. Even on extremely slow days, these men look so awful. I mean, they went to workmen comp for back, knee and heart pain but the feminist Dr they met probably said try stretching, you look better than the average American.

I will write later about the doctors I met while going through Workmen comp... Her name is burned into my mind because of what she said to me.
